Have You a Musical Child Whose Genius Lacks Opportunity?

Almost daily we read about some musical prodigy being discovered in some unexpected walk of life.

Some blacksmith who trained his voice at the forge or some boy or girl whose chance supplied with some musical instrument.

It all proves the universal love of music and the fact that a musical genius is likely to be discovered in any home where the child is given opportunity to develop the latent faculty.

The Home That Possesses a Piano Cannot at Least Be Charged With Neglect

Where there are means to decide that the piano shall be a Chickering Everett, Hardman, Estey, Kimball, Poole, Merrill, Bush & Lane, etc., there can never be any question about quality; but where a piano is desired at a more moderate price a great mistake may be made and life-long dissatisfaction and regret may follow.

But There Is One Safe Thing to Do. Come to This store, where quality may be depended upon; where you can secure a moderate priced piano bearing the name and guarantee of a reputable maker, there you may safely pay a low price. We won't let you pay less than is safe, or more than is just, we give you a guarantee. If everything isn't exactly as we say; if you have any fault to find we give you another piano.
