

RAILROAD NEWS

TRAFFIC INCREASED;
PROFITS TOOK TUMBLEAnnual Report of Pennsylvania
Railroad Includes Record
Figures

In the annual report of the Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad, made public last night, and printed in full on another page of the Telegraph to-day no reference is made to the proposed improvements which will be started in South Harrisburg on or about April 1, nor are any recommendations made to refigure improvements in this vicinity.

The report shows increased traffic and in aggregate gross receipts; but decreased profits, due to increased expenses. President Samuel Rea, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, takes opportunity to refer to the "haphazard" way the government is taking care of railroad interests.

President Rea said the making of rates by one organization and the control of wages and operations by separate bodies is creating havoc among railroad profits. He suggested that one governmental commission should have charge of all these matters so that it could make all its adjustments at the same time and not upset the whole industry by discussing this matter, President Rea says.

High Cost of Material.—While the revenues have increased 6.18 per cent, the total expenses show an increase of 8.96 per cent. The increase of maintenance of way and structure expenses was 14.28 per cent, due to higher cost of renewals of rails and the increased cost of roadwork to prevent trespassing and reduce accidents. Maintenance of equipment expenses increased 7.46 per cent, due principally to increase in repairs to locomotives. Transportation expenses increased 8.02 per cent, due to increases in wages and installation of safety appliances.

The operating expenses of 1913 were increased by legislation such as the extra crew laws and other expensive measures and by wage increases granted as the result of arbitration under the Erdman act. The extra crew laws, for instance, alone increased an expenditure of $550,000 and this will convey some conception of the extent of the needless expenditures that have been placed upon all the railroads in this territory.

In spite of these setbacks, the actual revenue of the Pennsylvania was greater last year than ever before. The income account shows gross earnings of $185,400,925.27, an increase of $10,092,221.55. Net earnings, $47,413,424.52, a decrease of $550,229.11.

Mrs. Dorsey a Widow.—A letter was received by Colonel Joseph B. Hutchinson this morning from Frank Dorsey, a resident of Green Spring, West Virginia, announcing the death of his brother, G. A. Dorsey, formerly of Harrisburg, who was at one time employed on the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad as a brakeman. It is stated that the police try to locate Mrs. G. A. Dorsey, who probably does not know that she is a widow.

RAILROAD NOTES

Ross Siler, employed at Enginehouse No. 2, Pennsylvania Railroad, who has been confined to his home, 525 Calver street, with an attack of pneumonia, is still quite ill.

The week ending February 26, a total of 654 trains and 27,839 cars were handled in the Maryland and Pennsylvania Railroad, calling for the withdrawal of a number of trains will be in effect at noon to-morrow.

MIDDLETOWN TO GET
$75,000 POST OFFICE

[Continued from First Page]

the five years. An increase to $16,000 during the present year is predicted. Besides this large local business, three rural delivery routes start from the Middletown office, the carriers of which serve 1,540 people.

In addition to the news of the introduction of this bill it can safely be predicted that the building will be authorized. It is generally understood that an omnibus public building bill will be put through by this Congress.

A Full Set of Teeth, $5

NOTE
NO PAIN
SUCTIONS
ROOFS

Come in the morning. Have your teeth made the same day. Plates repaired on short notice.

MACK'S
PAINLESS DENTISTS
310 Market Street.
Open Days and Evenings.

10c Cigar

All-Havana Tobacco
blended with such knowledge that it satisfies all tastes.
The rich quality does it.

10c Cigar

10c Cigar

10c Cigar

10c Cigar

10c Cigar

10c Cigar

10c Cigar

Standing of the Crews

HARRISBURG SIDE
Philadelphia Division—126 crew first to go after 12 p. m.: 123, 109, 117, 108, 111.

Conductor for 108.
Brakemen for 109, 121, 123, 125.
Engineers up: Newcomb, Howard, Bair, Keane, Yenrick, Lefever, Baldwin, Martin, Downs, Reisinger, Simms, Sheaffer, Green, Walker, Happersett, Sellers, Kautz, Hogenotger, McGuire, Tennant, Shocker.

Conductor up: Pink.
Brakemen up: Newman, Slattery, Welsh, Powers, Rost, Gowler, Kerstevens, Emrick, Hartz, Beckman, Hayes, Farner, Jackson, Resler, Peters, Edrich, Sober, Donache, Deck, Lehman, Baker, Neuhauer.

Conductor up: Pink.
Brakemen up: Preston, Willard, Shupe, Wynn, Collins, Hubbard, Shultzberger, Mumma, Bussler, Bainbridge, Miller, Sherk, Hill, Carroll, Dengler.

Middle Division—127 crew first to go after 2 p. m.: 17, 19, 24, 18.
Marysville: 7, 10, 2.

All engineering crews laid off until midnight, Monday.
Engineers for 27, 19, 18.

Conductors for 17, 19, 18.
Engineers up: Baker, Kauffman, Shirk, Hummer, Bennett, Doede, Garman, Kugler.

Firemen up: Libau, Forsythe, Master, Dykes, Stuber, Snyder, Rupp, Mumper, Bruker, Bortel, Reeder, S. G. Hoffman, Lukens, J. D. Hoffman, Hunter, Murray, M. W. Hoffman, Belsel.

Conductor up: Wicand.
Brakemen up: Harris, Sutch, Durr, Bock, Williams, Schmidt, Kistler, Fleck, Scherlick, Wright, Monmiller, Quay, A. M. Myers, Foltz, Dare, McNight, Keckin, Musser, Blessing, Eley, Walmer, Kliche, Shearer, Walk, Murray, Burd.

ENOLA SIDE
Philadelphia Division—250 crew first to go after 1:45 p. m.: 253, 232, 236, 213, 201.

Engineers for 220, 222, 237, 258.
Firemen for 212, 232, 237.

Brakemen for 236, 253.
Firemen up: Hartman, Quinzler, Brakemen up: Beckman, Galt, Bair, Wolf, Albright, Crook, Boyd, Burd, Malaby, Robinson, Brownwell, Reisch, Uhl, Hart, Harvey, Schmitt, Burd, Hardy.

Middle Division—113 crew first to go after 3:20 p. m.: 115, 103, 118, 121, 108, 114, 117.

Engineer for 103, 118, 121, 116.
Fireman for 115.

THE READING
Harrisburg Division—126 crew first to go after 9:30 a. m.: 24, 12, 23, 19, 17.
Helpers' crews: Freed, Wynn.

Engineer for 24, 12, 23, 19, 17.
Fireman for 115.

Engineer up: Crawford.
Brakemen up: Kennedy, Longnecker, Elv, Brown, Kelly, Smith, Wolland, King, Holbert, Boyer, Anders, Hoffman.

CAROTHERS WILL STAY WITH VILLA

[Continued from First Page]

the elements was a final act of humiliation toward the ranchman, who had protested when his horses were stolen.

Vergara Is Reported to Have Been Kidnaped

By Associated Press

Washington, Feb. 28.—Officials here discussed with much interest to-day the report of Captain Sanders, of the Texas Rangers, saying Clement Vergara, an American citizen, reported hanged had really been kidnaped and shot by Huerta's federals.

While Consul Garrett had been ordered to make an extended inquiry and vigorous representations demanding reparation have been made to the Huerta government at Mexico City, there was little official information to-day on the Vergara killing, which has admittedly stirred the Washington government just as much as the recent execution of William S. Benton, a British subject, at Juarez.

The inquiry into the Benton case was planned to begin in earnest to-day or to-morrow with the departure of a special train from Juarez for Chihuahua, furnished by Villa, bearing representatives of England and the United States. In Chihuahua American Consul Letcher will join the investigators. Opinion is divided here on whether Benton's body after being buried nearly two weeks in a tropical climate would show if his wounds were inflicted by a pistol or a firing squad. While no satisfactory answer has been made to the American government's request for the surrender of the body to the widow, that point will not be pressed until the evidence of a medical examination is secured.

That General Garza was rapidly getting into touch with the situation at Juarez and Chihuahua and would exert his influence to clear up the Benton case, was the informal assurance which reached here to-day. It was also supposed that Garza would secure compliance to the American demand for the body.

Officials had before them to-day Governor Colquhoun's telegram asking whether the United States recognized any constituted government in Northern Mexico, with whom he could arrange for the extradition of those whom he believed responsible for the death of Vergara.

Where the Shamons Flow
Saturday for matinee and night, Ireland, the home of the harp and scenery and "colleens," beautiful there is much to interest and charm because this country is one of the favorites for all tourists. Blarney Castle, the Lakes, the Ring of the Round Towers, the Wishing Bridge, the market at Cork, and the Punctured Steeplechase at Dublin together with every other feature of life among the people make a program that is beautiful and realistic.

With an assortment to select from and with the features of everyone of the programs shown in motion pictures and colored views, the Niblo Travel Talks should find many interested friends and the fact that the Telegraph has made it possible for the people to see this wonderful assortment of things in ten cents, when presented at the box office with a coupon, should insure crowded and delighted houses at every performance. It is without doubt, the greatest attraction of its kind ever in Harrisburg and the full and complete series will be given just the same as if the regular prices of 25 cents to $1.00 were charged. The series opens on Monday night at the Chestnut street auditorium with Russian and German cut from the Telegraph and ten cents presented at the box office is all that is needed for admission.

Philadelpha May Get New Regional Bank

Special to The Telegraph

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 28.—According to advices telegraphed to this city from New Orleans, the first draft of a plan for the United States reserve banks was obtained today. There will be twelve federal reserve banks, the full number authorized by law, according to the dispatch, which goes on to say:

"Three of the banks will be in the East, at New York, Boston and Philadelphia; four in the West, at Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and Minneapolis; two in the South, at Atlanta and New Orleans; one in the Rocky Mountain region, at Denver, and on the Pacific Coast, at Portland and San Francisco.

MRS. BUFFUM GUILY;
SENTENCED TO DIE

Five Sons Visited Her in Her
Cell Early This Morning

By Associated Press

Little Valley, N. Y., Feb. 28.—Mrs. Cynthia Buffum, convicted of murder in the first degree last night for poisoning her husband and sentenced to die in the electric chair in April, was awakened by Sheriff Dempsey before sunrise this morning. At 6 o'clock her five sons were brought into the cell to see her. None but little Francis, 13 years old, showed any grief at parting. At 7 o'clock Mrs. Buffum was started on her trip to the death house at Auburn Prison.

All during the night the little pale-faced, sullen woman had been carefully guarded in her cell to prevent her from attempting suicide, but her iron nerve remained unbroken. She relies on the encouragement from her counsel, who told her last night after she had been sentenced, "Don't worry, you will never die in the electric chair." Counsel will ask the Court of Appeals to order a new trial. The trial of Ernest Frahm, Mrs. Buffum's alleged accomplice in the murder, will begin in a few days.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

The counties where institutes will close this winter in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling farm counselors and the rural districts early in April have already received hundreds of requests for expert advice through the institutes.

WISCONSIN CLOSE
INVESTIGATES
EVERYBODY IS GOING
TO CHURCH TOMORROW

Remarkable Attendance in Spite of Cold Weather and Deep
Snows in the State

AUTO LIST IS PUBLISHED

Division Breaks a Record in Putting
Out the License List—
News of the Capitol

Farmers' institutes will close in Pennsylvania for this winter in all counties except Wyoming, Sullivan and Armstrong next week and in spite of heavy cold and weather the attendance indicated by reports to the division in charge has been large. In some counties the attendance has exceeded that of last winter by ten per cent, and in eastern counties the gain over 1912 and 1913 has been notable. The interest has been increased by the fact that courses provided in movable schools for farmers and the establishment of the traveling