MOTHER! IT'S CRUEL TO FORCE OIL OR CALOMEL INTO A SICK CHILD

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "physic" that mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them. With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them. If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing give "California from Harrisburg, Thursday afternoon at 2.30, and again at 8.15, on board the ship Majestic, with all the comforts pertaining to a first-class theater. No matter what your limitations of time and money, you can see the world now; you can go completely around it, seeing its temples, enjoying its hundred wonders, realizing its differences of life, civilization, religion and ideals. You can do all of this and still be home in time for bed or supper.—Advertisement.

"COLONIAL DAYS"

The most severe critic must admit that Rolfe's "Colonial Days" the Orpheum's fine headliner this week, is a positive artistic triumph. It is artistic in the talent employed, in its staging, its costuming and its theme. Then to the action of the piece move along in a smooth, logical order, without any uncalled for situations or specialties. The playlet is all color, light, beauty and harmony with only an semblance to buffoonery or horseplay. "Colonial Days" just tells a pretty romance in song, dance and musical interpolations that is beautiful throughout. Those who like to laugh must find it in the remaining attractions, and those who have seen it will know that it is there. For instance, Imhoff, Corine and Conn in "U. S. A. Regular" are handing out the comedy even to the season. Patrons who have not seen it have been in line

TO GIVE ENTERTAINMENT

Lewisberry, Pa., March 4.—Some folks from Lisburn, in charge of Miss Zay Kunkel, will hold an entertainment in Lewisberry hall on Saturday evening. All persons wishing a good laugh should attend. Two-thirds of the money taken in will be given to the Lewisberry Chautauqua Association to be used for transportation of the talent. This entertainment was given at Lisburn last week and was favored very good.

FAVOR NO-LICENSE LEAGUE

Enola, Pa., March 4.—At a meeting of the West Shore Ministerial Association yesterday the ministers endorsed the movement for a No-license League in Cumberland county and pledged their co-operation in the formation of such an organization.

AT THE COLONIAL

Enough female applicants to climb the "greased pole" are entered at the Colonial box office to almost assure the fair sex that they get the "bacon" this week. That also sounds pretty promising for some good fun too. And some crack amateur artists are also booked for their initial plunge into vaudeville features of merit.—Advertisement.

VICTORIA THEATER

The big historical feature picture in three acts will be shown to-day at this theater. The Dreamchild in two acts will also be shown and the sixth picture of "Our Mutual Girl" will also be shown. Seeing New York from the tallest building in the world. She runs away from her aunt's home to her country lover, who is employed at the docks. Many interesting views of famous places and buildings in New York are included in this picture.—Advertisement.

BIG ICE HARVEST

Anville, Pa., March 4.—Ice men of this district are reaping such a large harvest from the dams that surround the town that they find it almost impossible to secure enough men to do the work for them. All sorts of inducements are being offered to tramps who happen to wander into the town.

HIGH PRICES FOR FARM STOCK

Dillsburg, Pa., March 4.—The public sale of Reuben Strayer, of Washington township, was held and was one of the largest sales of farm stock in this section this Spring. In spite of the extreme weather the attendance was good and exceptionally good prices realized. Hogs sold very high priced; cows sold for from $60 to $85; one pair of mules sold for $550, another for $316, and a horse for $225. The total amount of the sale was over $4,500.

LECTURE ON "OUR CAREERS"

Mechanicsburg, Pa., March 4.—On Friday evening next Professor H. Hayward, M. S. of Newark, Del., will deliver a lecture on the subject, "Our Careers," in the Messiah Bible School Chapel in Grantham, several miles south of this place. Professor Hayward is a graduate of Cornell University and has been connected with the Pennsylvania State College and is at present a director of the Delaware Agricultural Experiment Station. A silver collection will be lifted.

CURFEW LAW TO BE ENFORCED

Dillsburg, Pa., March 4.—The curfew law, requiring children under 16 years of age to be off the streets by 7 o'clock from October until April and at 8 o'clock from April to October, will again be enforced by High Constable G. C. Fishel. Chief Burgess Sidle is also having notices printed and circulated calling the parents' attention to the law. The ordinance was passed several years ago by the council, but has not been enforced for some time.

COMPANY'S BANQUET FOR ITS EMPLOYEES

Millfinburg Corporation Brings Management, Stockholders and Employees Together

Robert S. Gutelius, President and Founder of Millfinburg Buggy Company

Special to The Telegraph. Millfinburg, Pa., March 4.—On Monday evening the first annual banquet of the Millfinburg Buggy Company was held at the Parkersburg Valley Inn, tendered by the management to its employees and stockholders. The affair was set for 7 o'clock, and previous to the hour guests with the management began to assemble at the Inn, when they were received by the reception committee, and assembled in the parlors on the second floor, where the guests held social intercourse until dinner was served. The menu consisted of a turkey supper with all the accompanying side dishes. Robert S. Gutelius, president and founder of the Millfinburg Buggy Company, gave a very appropriate talk on efficiency and co-operation. Harry F. Blair, the vice-president, and associated with Mr. Gutelius in the business since its inception, followed with well chosen remarks, after which ex-District Attorney of Union County and treasurer of the company, David L. Glover, gave a splendid talk on patience and loyalty. A. C. Ehrhart, secretary of the company, was kept busy during the evening looking after the comfort and welfare of the guests. There were also remarks and suggestions made by the different employees, and a co-operative plan was worked out to take care of employees during illness. The object of bringing the employees and employer more closely together, in deep appreciation of each other, and closer proximity, was entertained here. Indeed, the pleasing affair brought out the fact that the men of the company are more closely united together, in deep appreciation of each other, and closer proximity, was entertained here. Letters to the Editor

SCHOOL ARCHITECTURE

To the Editor of The Telegraph: A meeting of the Southern Pennsylvania Chapter of the American Institute of Architects, was held in Harrisburg on the evening of October 20, 1913, in which was discussed at some length the question of competitions for school buildings. The Harrisburg situation was discussed and the committee on competition had reported that their efforts to get a hearing from the Harrisburg School Board had failed.

An article published in the September, 1913, number of the American School Journal relating to the selection of a school building in Parkersburg, W. Va., was read and favorably commented upon, the chairman of the publicity committee was requested to ask the Harrisburg papers to publish it for the year in the selection of architects for the erection of its school buildings and not one word of criticism has been heard from the Harrisburg School Board.

The architect at Parkersburg follows: 1. The board in a preliminary way decided the kind of building to meet the requirements. Sketches are not desired. The architect who is best qualified will be selected. He is to appear before the board and answer the following:

2. How long have you been engaged in your profession as an architect? 3. What has been your training and experience? Included in this question the board desires information as to what buildings you have designed, including buildings other than school buildings.

4. The board would be pleased to see photographs of some of the more important buildings which you have planned and erected. 5. Give the approximate cost of the various structures which you present as examples of your work. Also, state the names of the general contractors for such buildings and state whether or not you had charge of the supervision of the construction.

6. Give an outline of your methods of doing business—how your plans are prepared, how they are detailed, how many copies of plans you furnish, submit samples of working plans, details and specifications of at least two jobs. 7. A brief reference to your methods of handling work would be desirable.

8. What are your facilities for handling work of this kind? Have you in your employ competent designers and engineers and building superintendents? 9. Give such other information as you yourself would like to have if you were asked to employ an architect for a building of this kind.

10. The above information should be submitted to the board, but the board desires you to appear personally at the above work if you are interested in this work. 11. After the board has decided on its architect, the architect is to prepare preliminary sketches until a satisfactory plan has been evolved. Should the architect desire to be considered for other selection without obligation to the board.

12. You will further be expected to enter into contract with the board and make such other necessary arrangements that may seem desirable. T. H. HAMILTON, Chairman of Publicity Committee.

Dyspeptics Enjoy All Good Eaters

But If They Would Stop Fearing Food and Use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets They Could Eat Heartily.

It is not only sad but amusing as well to watch a dyspeptic regard a friend as that friend talks about a fine meal he has just enjoyed. To the dyspeptic there comes only the thought of the pain, the belching, the indigestion, cramp that follows the meal and the awful sense of repugnance that occurs while the meal is being eaten.

"Which one do you think is describing a great big hearty meal?"

The easy way, the pleasant way, is to use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets that quickly restore appetite and build up the worn-out body by the perfect assimilation of food.

These little digestors are powerful, pleasant, and produce almost immediate digestion of any meal. If you will use them occasionally you will quickly learn what a joy food really is. One cannot hope to help nature by eating food from which a weakened digestion cannot take the ingredients it needs.

The only way is to put these ingredients in a pure form into the body. Then they are absorbed the system at once starts rebuilding and is enabled to soon perform its proper and perfect function.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain the very essences most demanded and desired by the body to do its work of taking nutrition from food.

As soon as the stomach is enabled to stop food decay and balance its gastric juices, then raw stomach gas, foul breath, catarrh, heartburn, bowel trouble, etc., disappear. The result is always the same. This fact alone is what has made Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the greatest dyspepsia and stomach remedy ever sold. They are on sale at every drug store and you may obtain a box anywhere. Price 50 cents.—Advertisement.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to bring back color, gloss, thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur no one can tell because it does so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.—Advertisement.
