PASTOR OF PENBROOK CHURCH OF GOD DIES

The Rev. Orville E. Houston Was Founder of Church and Widely Known

THE REV. ORVILLE E. HOUSTON

Special to The Telegraph Penbrooke, Pa., March 4.—Shortly before 7 o'clock last night the Rev. Orville E. Houston, pastor of the Church of God, and one of the most prominent ministers of that denomination in this State, died at his home, 123 South Twenty-first street. He had lingered for more than twenty-four hours in an unconscious condition and when the end came he was unable to recognize his wife and children who had gathered at his bedside. Death was caused by a cerebral disease, but was principally due to a nervous breakdown caused by study and overwork in the church which he had founded here seven years ago. He was 55 years old.

"TIZ" draws out the acids and poisons that puff up your feet. No matter how hard you work, how long you dance, how far you walk, or how long you remain on your feet, "TIZ" brings restful foot comfort. "TIZ" is magical, grand, wonderful for tired, aching, swollen, smarting feet. Ah! how comfortable, how happy you feel. Your feet just tingle for joy; shoes never hurt or seem tight. Get a 25 cent box of "TIZ" now from any druggist or department store. End not torture forever—wear smaller shoes, keep your feet fresh, sweet and happy. Just think! a whole year's foot comfort for only 25 cents.—Advertisement.

PLOT OF GROUND IS WITHOUT A BURNER

Site Wanted For Firehouse Was Thought to Be Borough Property

Special to The Telegraph Wormleysburg, Pa., March 4.—Members of the Wormleysburg Fire Company and residents of the borough generally will experience another delay in the erection of a new town hall and fire house because council and the fire company have learned the borough does not own a plot on which the building can be constructed. For sixty years, some of the other residents say, it has been understood that the plot of ground at Second and Market streets belonged to Wormleysburg, having been given by the founder of the town. However, there was never any formal transfer made and court records fail to show who is the owner of the plot.
