GEORGE SIDNEY IN "BUSY IZZY"

George Sidney in "Busy Izzy" will offer an opportunity at the Majestic Theater next Wednesday, matinee and night, to judge how far it has deserved the exceptionally fine favors that have been showered upon it, and in all probability it will demonstrate quite conclusively that a musical comedy with a real fun plot can be more than friendly toward the engagement of comedians of ability and skill, and in the same spirit allow for novelty features and grandeur of costumes and stage effects.—Advertisement.

ARTISTIC OFFERING

While there is nothing sensational about the current vaudeville bill at the Crown, it has been many a long day since an offering so artistic or so meritorious throughout has been presented there. AT THE COLONIAL

This is the night when the Colonial's motto, "Do your Country Store shopping early" will be in use. A splendid Vitagraph feature film, entitled "Iron and Steel," will be a special attraction to-day.—Advertisement.
