COLORED STARS ARE TRAINING IN SOUTH

"Jack" Potter and Other Harrisburg Players Are Showing Great Form

Special to The Telegraph Nassau, Bahamas, March 7.—While blizzards are raging in the North and Harrisburg is blanketed with snow and sleet, and all the residue of a belated winter, four Harrisburg boys are doing their level best on this sunny island, under the flags of two great nations, to uphold the best traditions of the Harrisburg Giants on a diamond hedged with royal palms, the giant cotton and other tropical trees. Up to date in the season's series of games, the Colonial Giants, on which team the four Harrisburg boys are playing, have won ten games to three for their adversaries, the Victoria Stars. Snappy play is no name for it. Their work is fine from start to finish. All four were members of the aggregation organized by Colonel C. W. Strothers in Harrisburg and which has a reputation all over Central Pennsylvania. Their names are Jack Potter, John Manning, Rube Jordan and Ben Randolph. The last two are pitchers and the first two fielders. John Jones, another Harrisburg player, has been in the hospital since his arrival on the island. They will remain here until the latter part of March, when the winter tourists begin their northward flight. Jack Potter took a prominent part in a cakewalk entertainment at the Hotel Colonial last night.

Arnold Kruckman

The head of the bureau of aeronautics at the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco. He is the man on whom rests the responsibility for the round-the-world aeroplane race which has been advertised as one of the features of the great exposition. The race is planned to start and finish on the grounds of the exposition during next year while the show is in progress. While many doubts have been expressed as to the advisability of attempting such a feat in the present stage of aeroplane development, Mr. Kruckman is enthusiastic about the possibilities of the race.

Federals Lose Out in New York Game

Special to The Telegraph New York, March 7.—Organized baseball scored heavily yesterday in the struggle with the Federal League for the services of the players who completed their tour around the world early to-day. The Boston Americans signed Tris Speaker for two years for $18,000 a year; the Detroit Americans closed a contract with Sam Crawford and the St. Louis Americans kept Pitcher Levern in line with a considerable raise in salary. Although the Federal League magnates were in conference with all these players, they were unable to secure their services, and the best they could do with Mike Doolan, of the Philadelphia Nationals, and Dick Egan, of Brooklyn, was to obtain a promise to consider the propositions made by the new organization. "Steve" Evans and Lee Magee, of the St. Louis Nationals, were also reported to be comparing the offers of the two forces.

TECH HIGH LOST OUT

Tech High tossers hadn't a look-in with Williamsport High at Williamsport last night, losing by a score of 23 to 15. A floor with four pillars made good work by Tech, but the use of Y. M. C. A. rules made a further handicap for Tech. Title and Beck did good work for Tech, but Williamsport was too fast and was at home.

All Reading Games on Circus Maximus

Reading, Pa., March 7.—That the Reading Tri-State baseball team will play on the Circus Maximus diamond was assured yesterday when President John H. Myers, who resides in Lancaster, came to this city and signed the lease. The terms were not made public, but is generally believed that the grounds were only leased for one year. The deal was made through the offices of the Farmers National Bank, owners of the grounds. "During his brief stay President Myers evinced enthusiasm for the prospects for the coming season, and reiterated his former statement that Reading would have the best club on the circuit. He stated that Connie Mack would keep his pledge to give the team five of his recruits and more if necessary and that the club would receive support of other big leaguers.

ANSON AGAIN AN AMATEUR

New York, March 7.—Adrian C. "Pop" Anson, famous twenty years ago as manager of the Chicago National League Club, has been reinstated as an amateur by the United States Golf Association. About a year ago the veteran diamond star became a golf player, and it has become his favorite pastime. However, having been a professional ball player he was not eligible to compete as an amateur golfer, and it was necessary for him to be reinstated as such before he could compete in the regular competitions.

TECH HIGH ATHLETES ANSWER FIRST CALL

In response to the first call for track athletes made by Dr. Charles B. Fager, principal of the Technical High school, yesterday, fifty-three candidates responded. Indications are quite favorable for a champion team at Tech this season. Among those prominent last season who will be back are Earl Flickinger, M. W. Garland, Victor Emanuel, Robert Koons, Jack Stiteler, David Heffelfinger, Jack Morgan, Mack McCurdy, John Holtz, George Miller, James Evans, Norman Stetler, Stevens Anderson, John S. Lloyd and George Fitzpatrick.

ALLENTOWN FOLKS BOOSTING BASEBALL

Chamber of Commerce and Saengerbund Promise Enthusiastic Support This Season

Allentown, Pa., March 7.—If Tri-State baseball is not a success in this town, it will be due to lack of support from the Allentown people. Never in the history of baseball has there been such strong boosting, as is now in evidence. The Chamber of Commerce is now in the game. At a recent meeting the members of the local commercial body decided that no better advertisement to the city can be had than through a successful baseball team. The Saengerbund, one of the strongest musical organizations in the State, will also assist in raising funds, and will give a dance and concert, the entire proceeds to go to the support of baseball.

The team will be run under the most stringent management and it is certain that the effort to conduct the national pastime in the cleanest possible way will be fully realized thereby affording a half day of recreation for all persons interested in this form of amusement. As usual the ladies will be granted their day, Wednesday afternoons having been designed. On Ladies' Day all women will be admitted to the grounds and grandstand free of charge.

High School Team Will Play All-Stars

An added feature at the Armory to-night, in addition to the game between Harrisburg and Penn Freshmen, will be a contest between the Central high school second team, and a picked team from the P. R. R. Y. M. C. A. league.

In the Penn line-up will be seven stars, including Altan and Cohen as substitutes. The second game is a result of a challenge from the high school tossers who claim they have the pick of the scholastic and independent teams in this season's stars. The first game will start at 8 o'clock. After both games have been completed there will be a dance program. The teams will line up as follows: Penn Freshmen. Harrisburg. McCord, f. Bumbach, f. Tobbett, c. Seiadell, g. Gallin, g. Gaffney, g. Searles, g. Attick, c. High School. P. R. R. Stars. Smith, f. Mellinger, f. Ford, f. Yoder, f. Burns, c. Winn, c. Roth, g. Hoover, g. Bingham, g. Simonton, g. (Kulp) (Waltz)

Basketball "Eats" a Big Inducement

Before the basketball season ends, several Harrisburg basketball teams will play McSherrytown. In this village, there is a bunch of sport enthusiasts who will not let anything stand in the way of their basketball aggregation. They offer big inducements to all teams in the way of "eats." Here is a letter the McSherrytown management sent to Locust Gap regarding a game scheduled for next week: "Dear sir: If you come down and play us we will give you $25 and eat you or if you don't want to do that we will give you $30 and you can eat yourselves. Bring your manager along and we will eat him. On Thursday next the Hassett tossers will play the Locust Gap team, and it is probable that McSherrytown will be seen here later. The Locust Gap team made a favorable impression while here before the holidays. This game will be of special importance because of the controversy among independent teams in Central Pennsylvania of this class as to which is the strongest.

STEELTON HAD REVENGE; DEFEATED YORK TEAM

Steelton High handed York High a decisive defeat last night on Felton Hall floor; score, 48 to 37. York put up a great fight, but was up against a star aggregation of basketball tossers this time and did not have as easy time as in the first game with Steelton early in the season. Crump played a great game for Steelton and Keim and Boyles were close seconds for York. Brenner and West were York stars.

ZION BOYS WON GAME In a fast and exciting basketball game the Zion Boys' club last night defeated the Hummelstown High School five at Hummelstown; score, 48 to 25.

New Interscholastic Plans Are Discussed by Board of Control

Officials of Pennsylvania Association Meets at Commonwealth Hotel This Afternoon

Plans for taking up the work outlined by the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Association, organized some time ago were discussed at a meeting of the board of control, held at the Commonwealth Hotel this afternoon. The purpose of this association is to bring about a more uniform system of athletics in high schools throughout Pennsylvania, and to arrange various sports so that stars in the various classes can be determined without the annual controversy and claims of professionalism. With a close adherence to the new rules, the officials of the Pennsylvania Association are of the opinion that all scholastic sports will be brought to a higher standard.

Professor Charles S. Davis, of the Steelton High School, chairman of the board of control, presided over this afternoon's session. Other members present were: J. H. Saul, Peabody High School, Pittsburg; C. O. Althouse, Central High School, Philadelphia; Rhys Powell, Technical High School, Scranton; Edward Sergeant, New Castle High School, and Harry Hauck, Williamsport High School.
