

Announcement

Two Departments To Be Discontinued

Owing to the fast increasing business on Pianos, Pianolas and Victrolas, it has become necessary for us to discontinue two entire departments:

Sheet Music and Musical Merchandise

The importance of this announcement will be readily recognized by the profession, music teachers and students.

The reductions on these goods start immediately and will continue until all goods in these departments are sold. This is a rare opportunity to secure standard musical merchandise, music and teaching material at prices that will justify teachers and the profession to buy their supplies needed during the next few years.

These Reductions Include

- SCHIRMER EDITIONS
- PRESSER EDITIONS
- DITSON EDITIONS
- WOOD EDITIONS
- McKINLEY 10c EDITION
- CENTURY 10c EDITION

Mrs. Fred Squires Hostess This Evening at Her Paxtang Home

Mrs. Fred H. Squires, of Paxtang, is giving a full course dinner this evening at 6 o'clock to the ladies of the Idylwhile club and their husbands. The table centerpiece will be of sweet peas and there will be decorations and favors appropriate to St. Patrick's day.

The guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Ward D. Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Fugh, Mr. and Mrs. James Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cordry, Mr. and Mrs. George Mormann, Mrs. Royal Stowell, Miss Florence Carroll, James Phee and Robert V. Crosby.

KITCHEN SHOWER GIVEN FOR MR. AND MRS. CHAS. KISE

A kitchen shower was given last evening for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kise, in their newly furnished house, 1104 Plum street. Mrs. Elsie Fox, of 1522 North Fourth street, and Charles Kise were married last Sunday, March 1, at the parsonage of the Fifth Street Methodist church and kept the wedding a secret until yesterday. They have gone for a trip to Philadelphia and New York, and after March 14, will be "at home" to their friends.

Stories of the Opera Told at League Meeting

Tales of the Operas will be told at the meeting of the Story Tellers' League, Tuesday evening, March 10, in the lower hall of the city library. Miss Martha Elmer Fleming, who has charge of the program, will tell of "Hansel and Gretel," Humperdinck's delightful opera; Miss Elizabeth F. Goldsmith has chosen "Lohengrin" by Richard Wagner for her theme and Miss Florence Carroll will relate the plot of Wagner's "Parsifal." "The Barber of Seville," by Rossini will be given by Miss Mary Snyder. Miss Ella Yost and Miss Theo Boone are also on the program.

MARRIED AT HAGERSTOWN

Special to The Telegraph
Hagerstown, Md., March 7.—Miss Sarah C. Duerr, of Rutherford, Pa., and Walter H. Leaman, of Harrisburg, were married on Wednesday evening at the parsonage of the First Baptist church in this city by the Rev. E. K. Thomas.

Mrs. Henry B. McCormick, of 305 North Front street, is at the Boyd country estate, Southern Pines, N. C.

Miss Louise Plank, a student at Emmittsburg, Md., is spending the mid-year vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton H. Plank, 1521 North Front street.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKelvey, of Titusville, spent the week with Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Orth, of West State street.

PERSONAL SOCIAL

Berger will probably be the judge; "America," Mrs. Robert C. Williams; district attorney, Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones; attorney for the defense, Mrs. Herman P. Miller; witness, educated Italian, Mrs. A. M. Lindsey; East Side Polish mother, Miss Caroline Moffitt; Porto Rican, Garfield McAllister; Negro, the Rev. Thomas H. Ames, pastor of the Capitol Street Presbyterian church; city missionary, Mrs. Gotschall; home missionary, Miss Ella L. Hart; jury guard, Captain R. C. Williams; foreman of jury, Mr. Henry P. Quickel, clerks, reporters, etc.

Mrs. Karl Fogg's Class Holds First Banquet

There was a beautiful celebration at the Stevens Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church last evening when the Sunday school class taught by Mrs. Karl F. Fogg held its first banquet. The class is composed of young ladies who have always taken a pardonable pride in their class. Last evening they had their parents and a few other friends as guests. At the close of the banquet every one pronounced it a great success.

Addresses were made by the Rev. Dr. Smucker and Mrs. Smucker, Charles H. Hedden and Dr. C. E. Lo Keene. The greeting was extended to all present by Miss Lillian Shoop, president of the class, in a little address. The treasurer, Miss Katherine Keene, made her report and also gave a reading. Miss Marie St. John entertained with a reading. Mrs. Fogg, teacher of the class, acted as toastmistress and the other officers of the class presided. Mrs. Miss Helen Kirk, secretary, and Miss Florence Hughes, vice-president.

Joint Birthday Party Last Night at Steelton

A birthday surprise was given Miss Katherine Brown and Mrs. Annie Tomlinson at the home of Miss Katharine Brown, 521 Lincoln street, Steelton. The guests spent an enjoyable evening relating past experiences; music and games were also enjoyed. A buffet supper was served at 8 o'clock. The table decorations were of jonquills and ferns. The favors were small baskets of Spring flowers.

Guests of Mrs. Walton Enjoy Games of Bridge

A bridge of three tables was given by Mrs. William A. Walton, of 1925 Kensington street. The decorations were beautiful Spring flowers and pink shaded candelabra in a color scheme of pink and white.

Children's Home Society Representative Here

The Rev. Benjamin Porter White, field secretary of the Children's Home Society of Pennsylvania, is spending a few days in Harrisburg. He preaches to-morrow morning at the First United Brethren Church, corner Boas and Myrtle, and in the evening makes an address on child saving at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, corner Nineteenth and Market streets. The Children's Home Society is incorporated, State-wide and undenominational, and during the twenty years of its work has placed 1,400 children in private homes for adoption.

Parent-Teacher Circle of the Maclay School

The inclemency of the weather did not dampen the ardor of the parents attending the Parent-Teacher Circle at Maclay building Thursday evening. They were amply repaid for braving the storm. The music by the pupils was exceptionally good. Miss Ruth Himes, a reader, charmed the audience, having to respond again and again to continuous applause. Miss Himes is a perfect impersonator.

Central High School Notes of Timely Interest

The regular choral work was conducted by Professor Rose yesterday in the auditorium. The choir practiced the fifth period and the Junior Girls' club on the sixth period.

FRANCIS L. SKELLY GETS FINE POSITION

Former Harrisburger Is Making Good "Way Down South in Dixie"

Francis L. Skelly, of this city, is making good "way down south in Dixie," and a recent number of the "Florida Fruit Grower," says of him: "The directors of the Florida Citrus Exchange held their monthly meeting this week. Acting on the request of the general sales manager, a man was selected to help in the work of the department, and to get the necessary experience in the office, so that he might retire at the end of the season. Francis L. Skelly, who has been the general northern manager of the Florida Citrus Exchange, was the unanimous choice of the directors for this position. Mr. Skelly had some considerable experience in this position a year ago, and has wide experience on the other end of the line. His work in the office a year ago proved his fitness for this important position, and he will no doubt fill it with credit."

Five Hundred Party at the Stouffer Home

The first of a series of St. Patrick's Day parties was given last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Stouffer, 422 Crescent street. Drapings and flowers and tables were profusely arranged in green and white and prizes were awarded for points in games. Refreshments unique in form and color were served to the following people: Mr. and Mrs. Loeser, Mr. and Mrs. Rupp, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Hershey, the Misses Agnes Schell, Mary Cashman, Grace Witmer, Ada Witmer, Mary Witmer, Neva Rupp and Lydia Weigle; Will Henry, H. A. Mishler, Mr. Adams, Bernard Cashman, Chester Stouffer.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bierbower, of 553 Race street, will spend Monday in Philadelphia on business.

Miss Helen Rinkenbach and Miss Anna Bacon attended the Sigma Chi Fraternity dance at Dickinson College, Carlisle, last evening.

Edward E. MacFadden, of Columbus, Ohio, was called to the city by the death of his aunt, Miss Sarah R. Parker, of Green street.

Mrs. Bruce Milton Swope, of Oakmont, Pa., is visiting her mother, Mrs. John E. Booker, at 1118 North Second street.

Mrs. Abram L. Groff, of Old Orchard, was given a surprise party Thursday evening by members of her Sunday School class of Olivet Presbyterian Church.

Miss Harriet Lehman entertained a Friday evening embroidery club of which she is member, last evening, at her home, 918 Green street.

CARDS WITH MRS. MONTGOMERY

Mrs. Harry E. Montgomery entertained informally at cards yesterday afternoon at her residence, 902 North Second street, in honor of Mrs. Warren Jay Vinton of Detroit, Mich. Several guests came in for tea at 5 o'clock. The decorations and menu were carried out in St. Patrick's Day style.

COMES FROM FAR OREGON

K. C. Banks, formerly of this city, a representative of the sales department of the Pennsylvania Steel Company at Portland, Ore., has joined his wife and son as guests at the home of Howard Wickersham, Camp Hill.

Chief Justice Claibagh Is Dead in Washington

By Associated Press
Washington, D. C., March 7.—Chief Justice Harry S. Claibagh, of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, died suddenly last night of heart failure at his home in Washington. He was 68 years old.

Chief Justice Claibagh was on his way to Georgetown University law school to lecture when stricken. He died shortly after being removed to his home. A widow and two daughters survive. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Justice Claibagh was born at Cumberland, Md., in 1845. He was elected attorney general of Maryland and served until March, 1899, when appointed to an associate justiceship of the District Supreme Court. He was appointed chief justice May 1, 1903. He was at one time chairman of the Republican State committee of Maryland.

"A Perfect Woman Nobly Planned To Warn, to Comfort and Command"

Nature never intended woman to be delicate, ailing, or a sufferer from "nerves." Women in middle age complain of "hot flashes." Many women suffer needlessly from girlhood to womanhood, and from motherhood to middle life, with backache, or headache, dizziness, faintness, or bearing-down sensations. For a permanent relief from these distressing symptoms nothing is so good as

as a soothing and strengthening nerve—always and subdues nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, and other distressing symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the female organs. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and dependency.

The "Favorite Prescription" is known everywhere and for over 40 years as the standard remedy for the diseases of women. Your dealer in medicines sells it in liquid or tablet form; or you can send 50 one-cent stamps for a trial box of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription tablets, address Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules.

You Should Own The Victrola

In your home, for your amusement and education should be one of these wonderful instruments.

Always ready with their infinite variety of music, they become a source of endless pleasure. Bringing to you the great artists and operas, in short, the music of the world; they assume the role of educator.

Until you own one is but a question of time. Price need not deter you from enjoying one now—our convenient terms make that possible. Choose the style you prefer, they range in price from $15.00 to $200.00.

MERCER B. TATE, JR., HOST TO THE TADPOLES

The membership campaign waged between the Squeakers and the Croakers of the Tadpole class of the Pine Street Presbyterian Sunday School was won by the Croakers with a narrow margin, the result being announced last night at a banquet.

The event was held at the home of Mercer B. Tate, Jr., president of the club, and after the feast toasts were given by Clark Carter, Brenton G. Wallace, Theodore Arnold, Oscar Sutch, Edwin Brown, Earl Waltz and J. Calvin Frank. Vance C. McCormick, in response to a toast, told of college day fun and a song written by William B. McCaleb, Jr., for the class followed a report of the secretary, Nathan B. Stroup.

MRS. T. L. WALLACE ILL.

Mrs. Thomas L. Wallace, of 214 Pine street, was operated upon at the Harrisburg Hospital yesterday for appendicitis. Mrs. Wallace is 73 years old and her condition was serious. She is reported better this morning.

Ladies' and Misses' Suits and Coats

Our advance line of the new Spring tailor-made suits and coats is now ready for the choosing of women who desire fashion approved and quality-certain apparel. All the fashionable fabrics, weaves and colors are represented. Suits and coats are cut along smart and jaunty lines and are finely tailored and finished throughout, and carry with them the assurance of the usual Cook impress of quality.

SUITS

Suits are decidedly different from those of last season—the tiny jackets with the new and distinctive collars, cuffs, peplums and vestee effects—the wide-hip skirts with ruffles that suggest tunic and other draperies and the circular flounces and peg-top effects.

COATS

Coats are new, stunning and stylish—the new mannish coats with their large raglan sleeves, mannish collars and cuffs and wide flares—three-quarter length, cut-away coats with kimono sleeves and yoke backs—new fancy tailored coats with drop-shoulders and yoke or pleated backs.
