

RECEPTIONS, PARTIES, WEDDINGS, ANNIVERSARIES

RECEPTIONS, PARTIES, WEDDINGS, ANNIVERSARIES OBSERVED BY PARTY

David Mill, Oldest Resident, and Grandee Celebrate at Millersburg

PASTOR RETURNED TO CHARGE

Burglar Rob House During the Storm Early in Week

By Special Correspondence

Millersburg, Pa., March 7.—Samuel D. Mill, Millersburg's pioneer dairyman, residing east of town, slipped on a pile of harness while in his barn and fractured one of his arms above the elbow. He was taken to the home of the oldest resident, celebrated his ninety-second birthday anniversary on Friday. He is in excellent health and is seen daily taking his morning walk in the streets. His honor was given at the home of his nephew, R. E. Woodside, where the event was celebrated in connection with the thirty-day anniversary of the death of his daughter, Mrs. A. E. Leach, whose date of birth is also February 1. Guests present were L. O. Miller, Richmond, Va., a son of Mr. Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. High and Mrs. High being a sister of Mr. Woodside. The Rev. G. W. Hansen, pastor of the United Evangelical Church, has been returned to the Millersburg church for the third year by the conference held at Bangor. Norman Lower, of Millersburg, who has been studying for the ministry, was appointed by the conference to the Millersburg church near Lancaster. John T. Miller, who has been confined to the house by illness for a month, is able to be out again. Robert R. Miller, clerk at the Hotel, will resign his position in the Spring and move on his father's farm near Nekoda, Perry county. Burglars entered the cellar of I. E. Ush during the storm on Sunday night and stole a large quantity of potatoes and canned fruit.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Harter Are Married Forty Years

By Special Correspondence

Millersburg, Pa., March 7.—Mr. and Mrs. William J. Harter entertained at home, celebrating the fortieth anniversary of their marriage. Supper was served after an evening of music and entertainment. They received many beautiful gifts and a handsome bouquet of flowers. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. William Harter and daughter, Mrs. W. Ward and children, Miss May and Harter, Ward, Rev. and Mrs. M. S. Romig, the Rev. and Mrs. MacLeod, of Liverpool; Mr. and Mrs. John Holman and son, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ward, Jr. and Mrs. Cloyd Ush and son Ray, Jr. and Mrs. Abraham Auker, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Beavers, Mrs. Abraham Kaufman, Mr. and Mrs. William Brandt, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rumberger, Mr. and Mrs. George Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. Parke, Mr. and Mrs. John Fry, Jr. and Mrs. Charles Troutman, Mr. and Mrs. Able Wilt and son Albert, Mr. and Mrs. John Troutman, Mrs. Lew Zeller, Mr. and Mrs. John Fry, Jr. and Mrs. Harmon Kipp, Mrs. A. J. Holman, Mrs. Daniel Wolf and grandson, Casper Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. George Hesper, Mr. and Mrs. Able Jis, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Witmer, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Troutman, William Ward, Jonathan Wert, Mr. and Mrs. George Rumbaugh, Mrs. Frank Rumbaugh and son Orville, Mr. and Mrs. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. George Fry, Mr. and Mrs. John Ward, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Shenk, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Crane, Misses Olive Long, Nanough, Kathryn Rickabaugh, Miss Jennifer, Ruth Fry and Dorothy Aars, Mason McGowan, Ross DeFencey, Edward Holman and D. Gilber Rickabaugh.

Shower for Newly-married Young Couple of Lemoyne

By Special Correspondence

Lemoyne, Pa., March 7.—A miscellaneous shower for the newly-married couple of Lemoyne, last night at the home of J. S. Cummings, in honor of their marriage. The young couple received many handsome and useful gifts. Refreshments were served by Helen Windsor, George Winer and Margaret Reel, of Harrisburg; Mrs. Jacob Switzer, Miss Grace Weitzer, Mary Switzer, of New York; Mrs. Edward Cummings, Mrs. Eslinger, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wolsberger, Mr. and Mrs. John Moul, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Mowery, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Leach, Mrs. Laura Sier, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Schuller, Mrs. Lowry, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Moul, Edna Leach, Addie Eslinger, Esther Leach, Thelma Wolfensburger, Mildred Bantz, Ruth Benz, Martha Bantz, Florence Long, Nancy Bantz, Esthling, Benjamin Kunkle, Ray J. Dwyer, Charles Moul, Edgar Mowbray, David Moul, Walter Moul, Sam Mowbray, Moul, Samuel Decker, William Bentz.

Mr. Staley Serves Supper to Jolly Penbrook Girls

By Special Correspondence

Penbrook, Pa., March 7.—Robert J. Staley, of Mechanicsburg, visited relatives in Main street this week. John J. H. Miller on Tuesday. John and family moved here this week from Perry county. On Saturday night a sleigh party was given by a crowd of girls, chaperoned by Mrs. C. W. Trullinger. On their return supper was served the following guests at the home of Mrs. Staley: Mrs. Martha Trullinger, Miss Janet Swartz, Miss Helen Aungst, Miss Ellen Garberich, Miss Eunice McMillen, Mrs. Mary Good, Miss Talitha Shade, Miss Frances Booser, Miss Caroline Houston, Miss Ethel Trullinger, Miss Thelma Moore, Miss Jennie Shertzer, Miss Anna Evans, Miss Young, of Reading, visited relatives here during the week.

CLARK CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

By Associated Press

Washington, D. C., March 7.—Speaker Clark celebrated his sixty-fourth birthday to-day by denouncing from the rostrum of the House an address by Charles D. Sullivan of Winchester, Mass., former professor of sociology in the University of Chicago, calling the Speaker's counting of votes on the report of the committee investigating the Mullhall lobby charges.

Baiting Crows With Chicken Young Farmer Kills Many

State Highway Department Clearing Perry County Roads; Horse Nineteen Years Old Sold For $105

By Special Correspondence

New Germantown, Pa., March 7.—Miss Lucy Baltzer and sister Florence each had quinsy during the past week. Russell F. Swartz attended a literary society meeting in the West Horse Valley schoolhouse on Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Murray D. Snyder and Mrs. Snyder's mother, Mrs. B. F. Shumaker, of Jackson township, and Mrs. Vernon Smith, of this place, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Bowman on Thursday. Samuel Morrison, of near Andersonburg, spent Wednesday night with M. H. Shearer. Mrs. John Sanderson, who had a paralytic stroke some time ago, had another one on Friday evening and is in a critical condition. George M. Burkett, a well-known carpenter, had a slight paralytic stroke a week ago, followed on Wednesday morning by another more severe one, and for a time he could not see, hear or speak. He is now somewhat improved, but not out of danger. Dale McConnell placed a dead chicken on the snow near his father's barn, took a loaded gun into the barn, and when a large number of crows gathered around the dead bird shot at the thorough one of the windows and killed six of them. Re-loading his gun, he waited until the crows gathered again and killed three more at the next shot. The 15-day-old child of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Fry, which died on Thursday morning, was buried in the Methodist Episcopal Churchyard on Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. David Tressler, of Pueblo, Col., and Daniel Tressler, of Ohio, are visiting Mrs. James Tressler, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Tressler, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver S. Bistline. The State has men shoveling the snow out of the roads west of this place. Ross Mumper, of Carlisle, is visiting friends here. At Ralph Rumples' public sale on Saturday a horse 19 years old was sold to Martin L. Rhine-smith for $105.

Scene From the Tour Through Ireland

IRELAND'S LAND TO BE VISITED TONIGHT BY TOURING PARTY

Last night the Telegraph touring party made a visit to Africa and enjoyed remarkable views in both color and motion pictures. Arthur B. Price, who has acted as the guide for the week, had a flattering reception, and was greeted with very generous applause at the conclusion of the program.

Steeplechase at Dublin Will Be Feature of This Evening's Program

The wonderful Lakes of Killarney, the ride through the Gap of Dunloe, Blarney Castle, the Giant's Causeway, the round towers, the mountains, the rapids, the cities and their attractions with visits to the country homes, the people of Ireland and their customs, the round towers, the mounting cars, the colleens—all are interesting and all are included in the program.

Steeplechase at Dublin

The steeplechase at Dublin, conceded to be one of the most remarkable motion pictures ever presented. It shows in detail, the full race, from start to finish, including the crowds and all the incidents thereto and, from the start to the finish, but what itself there is never a minute but when you are seeing this wonderful race in all of its beauty. There are hedges, riders and jumps, the horses and the jockey, the falls are all faithfully pictured and you are made to feel that you are looking at the race itself, so vivid and lifelike in its presentation.

White Sox and Giants to Be Honor Guests at Banquet in New York

By Associated Press

New York, March 7.—The banquet to which the White Sox and the Giants will close the week of baseball fray in New York. The National League meeting resulted in no decision with regard to the Chicago-Boston club deal for the services of Johnny Evers and his friends. A new owner for the Chicago club was known that he favors having Mr. Taff as a partner on his stock. The Chicago club will remain in control until one of the several offers made to purchase his interest is accepted. This announcement was made yesterday by President Tener who has let it be known that he favors having Chicago club will remain in control. Mr. Taff has not a price on his stock. It is large and carries with it the stipulation that the minority stockholders should have the option of disposing of their holdings at the majority stock share at the time the majority stock is sold.

LEWISTOWN NEWS FOR CHURCH

Saves $350 and Gives It For the Benefit of Lewistown Congregation

By Special Correspondence

Lewistown, Pa., March 7.—Walter Fosnot, business manager of the Sentinel publishing house, went to Philadelphia for treatment for rheumatism. J. Smith Greene is spending a few days in Philadelphia. Calvin Green has returned from a trip to Texas. A blind veteran of the Civil war, has saved $350, and has paid for the new pews placed in the Trinity Evangelical Church of this place. He has also offered to furnish a bell for the church. M. B. Dunmore has returned home from Atlantic City, improved in health. Mrs. Thomas Reed, of New York City, called on her mother, Mrs. Belvin Wallace. Robins have made their appearance in the vicinity of Belleville, Mifflin county. Lewis-town's chief Burgess, G. A. Leopold, Sr., has placed the ban on the Tango dance.

ROBINS MAKE THEIR APPEARANCE IN WOODS OF MIFFLIN COUNTY

Lewistown, Pa., March 7.—Walter Fosnot, business manager of the Sentinel publishing house, went to Philadelphia for treatment for rheumatism. J. Smith Greene is spending a few days in Philadelphia. Calvin Green has returned from a trip to Texas. A blind veteran of the Civil war, has saved $350, and has paid for the new pews placed in the Trinity Evangelical Church of this place. He has also offered to furnish a bell for the church. M. B. Dunmore has returned home from Atlantic City, improved in health. Mrs. Thomas Reed, of New York City, called on her mother, Mrs. Belvin Wallace. Robins have made their appearance in the vicinity of Belleville, Mifflin county. Lewis-town's chief Burgess, G. A. Leopold, Sr., has placed the ban on the Tango dance.

MR. MARY V. WEBER

Mrs. Mary V. Weber, aged 80, died yesterday morning at the home of her grandson, Frank Englebright, 1615 1/2 street. Mrs. Weber has been a resident of Harrisburg all her life. She was a member of the Memorial United Brethren Church. Funeral services will be held Monday morning at 10 o'clock. The Rev. T. J. Spangler, pastor of the Memorial United Brethren church, will officiate. Burial will be made in the East Harrisburg Cemetery.

COPELIN MAY HAVE TO PAY HIS CLERKS FROM OWN POCKET

Commissioner Bowman Points Out That City Treasurer Gets Bigger Salary Than Governor

By Special Correspondence

All the clerical assistance employed by City Treasurer O. M. Copelin may have to be paid for by the City Treasurer himself. Protest against the practice of providing for the payment by the city of two of the clerks in the City Treasury was begun yesterday at the meeting of the City Commissioners when they considered the budget.

ITALIANS REMEMBER HOME OF THE ABRUZZI

Call New Beneficial and Social Organization After Famous Countryman

Dauphin county is to have another social and beneficial society of Italians if the Dauphin county court grants a charter for which application was filed in the prothonotary's office to-day.

Final Funeral Rites Over Body of Cordes

By Special Correspondence

In the little snow-filled cemetery at Lenkerville, the final funeral rites over the body of Henry Cordes, for years pastor of the Dauphin County Prison Board, were held to-day. The Rev. J. J. Spangler, pastor of the Episcopal church, officiated. The Rev. J. J. Spangler, pastor of the Episcopal church, officiated. The Rev. J. J. Spangler, pastor of the Episcopal church, officiated.

Dept. of Agriculture Reports Grain Left on Farms March 1, 1914

By Associated Press

Washington, D. C., March 7.—Grain of last year's crop remaining on farms March 1 was reported by the Department of Agriculture to-day as follows: Wheat, 151,809,000 bushels, or 19.9 per cent of the 1913 crop remained on farms. About 53.9 per cent of the 1913 crop will be shipped out of counties in which it was grown.

Deaths and Funerals

JOHN H. RUDY

John H. Rudy, aged 62, died Thursday evening at his home in Pottsville. He is survived by his wife and five children: Mrs. Earl Elser, of Penbrook; Mrs. Olive, John and George Rudy, at home. Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, from her home, with the Rev. Dr. John D. Fox officiating. Burial will be made in the Harrisburg Cemetery.

Miss Sarah Parker Dies; Funeral Monday Afternoon

Miss Sarah R. Parker, aged 72 years, died this morning at her residence, 1624 Green street, after a week's illness of pneumonia. Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, from her home, with the Rev. Dr. John D. Fox officiating. Burial will be made in the Harrisburg Cemetery.

PARTY AT LUCKNOW

Duncannon, Pa., March 7.—Mr. and Mrs. William Perry at their home in Lucknow entertained the following young people on Wednesday evening: Elizabeth Evans, Marys Eminger, Elsie Bowman, Wert Moyer, Helen Houser, Mrs. M. E. Houser, G. Len Lind, Russel Sturdivant, Hanson Miller, Paul Parker, Charles Bowman, Myrtle Byers, of Lucknow; Hazel Boldon, Esther Alender, Bessie Lowe, Elizabeth Muzabaugh, Mrs. Fannie Muzabaugh and little son, Walter, and Stanley Stroup, of Duncannon; Millie Weaver, of Lewistown. The evening was spent with games and music. Refreshments were served and all had an enjoyable time.

$1 BID FOR EAGLE

Old Gettysburg Hostelry Not Sold, But Is Closed to Business

By Special Correspondence

Gettysburg, Pa., March 7.—Hamilton R. Blucher, while cutting wood, had the misfortune to have a piece strike him in the eye, severely injuring the eyeball. The Forrence Concert Company gave a concert in St. James Chapel on Monday evening. John O. Beam, of York, gave a free lecture in Xavier Hall Thursday evening on "The Growth of a Great Modern Utility." The Eagle Hotel was offered for sale on Saturday, but one bid was received—$1. The well-known hotel was closed on Monday. The Bat-tlefield Council Order of Independent Americans initiated five new members at their meeting on Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Jerome J. Martin on Monday celebrated the fifty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. Mrs. Lulu E. Fowler has sold her house on Carlisle street to Miss Mattie Musselman. Miss Edna Pfeffer and Maurice Stansbury were married on Saturday in Westminster. They made the trip by automobile.

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Gettysburg, Pa., March 7.—Hamilton R. Blucher, while cutting wood, had the misfortune to have a piece strike him in the eye, severely injuring the eyeball. The Forrence Concert Company gave a concert in St. James Chapel on Monday evening. John O. Beam, of York, gave a free lecture in Xavier Hall Thursday evening on "The Growth of a Great Modern Utility." The Eagle Hotel was offered for sale on Saturday, but one bid was received—$1. The well-known hotel was closed on Monday. The Bat-tlefield Council Order of Independent Americans initiated five new members at their meeting on Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Jerome J. Martin on Monday celebrated the fifty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. Mrs. Lulu E. Fowler has sold her house on Carlisle street to Miss Mattie Musselman. Miss Edna Pfeffer and Maurice Stansbury were married on Saturday in Westminster. They made the trip by automobile.

Oyster Supper in Church For Benefit of Pastor

By Special Correspondence

Montandon, Pa., March 7.—A delightful sleighing party was held on Tuesday evening, when the following persons were present: Mrs. Anna Fairchild, Ruth and Hazel Pfeeger, Edna Hillhelm, Eva Weller, Edna and Jessie Rahn, William Stocker, Lee Pfeeger, Starke and Harrison Wessel, Andrew and Moses Pollmer, Charlie Derr, Melvin Harshberger, Dean Albright, William Frederick, Tell Hookberry, Montandon, R. M. Cummings and daughter, Miss Mame, entertained a party of friends at their home on Thursday evening, which was thoroughly enjoyed by old and young. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. David Albright, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reed, Mr. and Mrs. James Ranck, Elizabeth Ranck, Edna and Hazel Pfeeger, Margaret Noss, Grace Albright, Anna Fairchild, Lena Reitz, Louise Hubbert, Pearl Fries, Edna and George Wenzel, Edward Reitz, Barron Wenzel, Donald Hauck, Charles and Merrill Reed, Dean Albright, Tell Hookberry, Foster Ranck, William Frederick, Herbert Reitz, Walter, Harry and Herman Pfeeger, Fred and Edna Leitcher, Reed. The trustees of the Methodist church will hold an oyster supper this evening in the church. Proceeds for the benefit of the pastor. Proceeds for the benefit of the pastor. Proceeds for the benefit of the pastor.

Delightful Social Events During Stormy Weather

By Special Correspondence

Millersburg, Pa., March 7.—On Tuesday evening the members of the Athenaeum Club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Paul Gutelius, in East Chestnut street. Guests present were: Miss Susie Bogenrief, Miss Fannie Brown, Mrs. F. Brown, Miss Martha Doebler, Mrs. D. W. Glover, Mrs. D. L. Glover, Miss Edith Gutelius, Mrs. P. B. Gutelius, Miss Sara Lincoln, Miss N. A. Kurtz, Miss Marie Lincoln, Miss Margaret Lovell, Mrs. C. B. Mench, Mrs. C. E. Orig, Mrs. O. K. Pellman, Mrs. G. F. Roush, Miss Daisy Royer, Mrs. F. A. Ruhl, Mrs. M. M. Steadman, Mrs. A. Watson. On last Saturday afternoon a sleigh load of young people, guests of Mary Gutelius and Kathryn Gutelius, enjoyed a drive throughout the town and the members of her Sunday School class of the First Presbyterian church at her home in Chestnut street.

Sunbury Lutheran Church Gives Pastor Assistant

By Special Correspondence

Sunbury, Pa., March 7.—Complimentary to his birthday anniversary, the members of the Sunbury Lutheran church, decided to give their pastor, the Rev. Dr. J. M. Francis, a lay assistant. The church has grown to a membership of 14.

Unconscious in Street

By Special Correspondence

Dillsburg, Pa., March 7.—Niles Cook, filling the vacancy at the local depot caused by the sudden death of Jacob Sparrow. Class No. 3 of the Lutheran Sunday school will hold a chicken and waffle supper in the regular building on Saturday evening, March 21, for the benefit of their building fund. J. J. Moore, of Philadelphia was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Bricker, of South Baltimore street, over Sunday. George S. Brandt has leased J. H. Dick's home on South Baltimore street. A. K. Strayer, of York, was the guest of Dillsburg friends on Monday. A section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his home, where it was fully two hours before he was revived by the doctor. Mrs. John M. Albert, whose husband died Tuesday evening, Samuel Dittmer, a section of the Calvary United Brethren after ringing the Church bell for revival services, started for his home across the street, when he fell unconscious with heart trouble, in the middle of the street, and was laying in this condition for some time before he was found by two women on their way to church. They summoned help and moved the aged man to his