No Boozing Will Be

Unanimous action was taken by members of the Firemen's Union at an adjourned meeting in the Reily Hose Company house last night barring intoxicating liquors from all fire houses during the convention next October.

Fire Chief John C. Kindler said today. "I shall co-operate with the general committee, and the members of the union, in carrying out the action of the union at last night's meeting. There has long been an established rule prohibiting liquor around fire houses, but the action of last night will give stronger emphasis of this rule."

Honor students at the Harrisburg Academy for the month past were announced yesterday. They number thirty-three. There were eleven first thoractions and twenty-one were awarded second honors. The list is as follows:
