New York, March 9. — Bullish trad-ers succeeded in changing the direction of the market to-day from the course followed late last week, but progress upward was only temporary. Early irregularity was caused in part by for-eign selling, but the strong showing Mag made by 8t. Paul and some of the East-july ern railroad shares pulled up the whole list.

nomination, aithough urged by his irriends to run. When the Railroad Commission was created, Edwin & Stuart, then Gov-ernor, selected Mr. Boyd as a personal appointment, desiring one who was accustomed to large business matters and who resided in this city. Mr. Boyd took a large part in the organization of the commission, and as resident commissioner devoted much time to the office. He was reappointed but resigned because of the press of per-sonal affairs, the management of his father's estate having railen largely upon him. His resignation was the occasion of a tribute by Governor Stuart to his service in behalf of the State and of formal action by the other commissioners. Good Roads Advocate JOS. S. WERNIG TRANSFER CO.
