MISS FANNIE CAPIN MARRIES L. LEFSKY

Elaborate Wedding Festivities
Take Place in the Chestnut Street Hall

Brilliant festivities marked the marriage of Miss Fannie Capin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis R. Capin, 1731 North Third street to Lawrence Lefsky, in Chestnut Street Hall.

Rabbi Charles J. Freund, of the Ohav Shalom Temple officiated in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives of the young couple.

The bride wore a handsome toilette of white satin with touches of white lamb fur, and carried a sheaf of roses and valley lilies. She was given in marriage by her parents and escorted to the altar by Mr. and Mrs. S. Frank.

Miss Florence Capin was maid of honor for her sister, wearing a bewitching pink satin gown and carrying a Directoire staff capped with white roses. The bridesmaids, wearing tailored gowns, and carrying staves capped with rose and orchids were: Miss Minnie Lefsky, Miss Bessie Fine, Miss Fannie Frank, Miss Bessie Frank, Miss Bessie Capin, Miss Edith and Miss Ray Jordan, of Baltimore, Md. The best man, Arthur Stine, was assisted by the following ushers: William Capin, S. E. Frank, Saul E. Frank, Frank M. H. Capin, Samuel Adelstein and Daniel M. Capin.

A supper was served to two hundred guests after the ceremony, and a stringed orchestra played for the dancing.

The out-of-town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. L. From, of Lock Haven; Mr. and Mrs. M. Frank, of Cincinnati, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Frank, of Cincinnati, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Davis, of Norfolk, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Keger, of Portsmouth, Va.; Miss Bessie Keger, of Portsmouth, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. L. Davis, of Norfolk, Va.; the Messrs. and Mrs. Ray Jordan, of Baltimore, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. L. ## "The French Shop"

MISS SWOPE
11 SOUTH THIRD STREET

Miss Swope has just returned from New York after a ten days' search in the market for novelties for which this shop is noted.

The dress trimmings are here in all their beauty for the new Easter gown. Exquisite Laces, Dainty Collars and Neckwear of all kinds; Scarfs, Handkerchiefs, Hosiery, Robe Buttons, Novelty Embroidered Crepes, Embroideries, Bands, Gallons and All-overs.

Pine white dress materials, among which Organdie, Voile and Crepe are well favored and adapted for the styles of the season.

New Officers Elected by the Verdi Band

The Verdi Band, an organization composed of Italians of this city with headquarters in South Second street, at their last business meeting elected the following officers: Instructor and leader, Professor Maestro C. Sparagano; president and manager, Casimiro Gaeta; secretary, A. F. Malsana; treasurer, P. O. Magnelli.

This band, though recently organized, is progressing rapidly and now numbers forty-five, all very much interested in making this band a success.

By a little encouragement, and under the leadership of Mr. Sparagano, a descendant of a musical family and a pupil of the best authorities of the Neapolitan school, there is no reason why Harrisburg will not feel proud of their success. It is the only organization of its kind in this section of the State.

SILVER LOVING CUP FOR J. A. STRANAHAN

Presented by Solid Comfort Fishing Club on His 75th Birthday

Fisherman's luck, reminiscences, stories and songs were all part of a delightful evening spent with Attorney James A. Stranahan Saturday evening at his home, 303 North Second street, in celebration of his seventy-fifth birthday. The guests were chiefly comrades of Mr. Stranahan's in three fishing camps in Canada and represented the Solid Comfort Fishing Club, Kahwee Camp, at Hollow Lake, and the Bobcaygeon Club.

Tales of great hauls and catches astonished the ears of the tenderfeet present and that the fish were weighed in their own scales was quite evident. Camp songs were sung with Frank A. McCarrell at the piano and letters were read from Judge Joseph Buffington, of the United States Circuit Court of Philadelphia; John Scott, Jr., Philadelphia; S. S. Mohard, of Pittsburgh; W. B. Keck, of Greenville, Pa., and Herman Frankel, of Mercer.

The guests presented Mr. Stranahan with a handsome silver loving cup, on which the names of the donors will be engraved. Supper was served later, with Spring dowers, snapdragons, roses and narcissus gracing the table.

Mr. Stranahan was born in Philadelphia and studied law with Judge John Trunkay, a justice of the Superior Court. He was admitted to the bar in Mercer county and practiced there for several years before coming to this city as Assistant Attorney General of Pennsylvania in 1891.

The invited guests, met in camp at Canada, were Judge Joseph Buffington, Judge and Mrs. S. J. McCarrell, Mr. and Mrs. E. Z. Gross, Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gross, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Scott, E. J. Stackpole, Henry M. Gross, Casper Dull, W. S. Ray, Robert Ruth, Richard Haldeman, John E. Fox, Ross Oenslager, A. C. Stamm, John Fox Weiss, Fred Ray, H. E. Hershey, William Russ, John Tack, Jr., C. H. Backenstoe, W. M. Hall, Coleman Sheetz, Clarence Funk, J. V. Reynolds, Dr. J. F. Culp, Hugo Schuttsch, Edward Bailey, F. W. Feltz, John Scott, Jr., Reynolds Scott, W. M. Donaldson, Frank A. McCarrell, Frank Ray, Harvey O. Miller, District Attorney M. E. Stroup, Attorney B. M. Nead.

The following tenderfeet were also invited: Dr. and Mrs. D. S. Funk, Mr. and Mrs. John V. Boyd, Judge and Mrs. George Kunkel, Miss M. O. Seiler, Mrs. Frank A. McCarrell, the Rev. J. Ritchie Smith and Mrs. Smith.

Mr. Thomas H. Wilson and little Miss Mary Eleanor Wilson, of York, are visiting Mrs. Wilson at the home of Mrs. Al. G. Keet, 315 South Front street.

Mrs. Clarence Ficklin entertained informally in the home of Mrs. Frank G. Ficklin on Saturday evening. Refreshments followed an evening of pleasure.

Miss Belle Davis, of Lewistown, has returned home after a visit with Miss Belle Middaugh at Camp Hill.

Mrs. Senger, of Philadelphia, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Burns, 213 State street, has gone to Cresson.

George Kunkel, Jr., a student at Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, spent the week-end with his parents, Judge and Mrs. George Kunkel, Front and Liberty streets.
