Little Girl's Picture at Panama Exposition in 1915

REBA SHOVER HURST

Special to The Telegraph
Mechanicsburg, Pa., March 10.—Little Miss Reba Shover Hurst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hurst, South Arch street, celebrated her fourth birthday on Saturday afternoon with a party. The small folks played games and at 5 o'clock refreshments were served in the dining room, where St. Patrick's Day decorations prevailed, carried out in white carnations and ferns. A birthday cake surrounded by lighted tapers, occupied a prominent place, and at each cover were tiny iced cakes bearing a single taper. St. Patrick souvenirs were given each little guest. The young hostess received many pretty gifts, cards and letters of best wishes. Assisting Mrs. and Mrs. Hurst at the party was Miss Romaine King. The guests were Solomon Jacobson and Mariner Simms, of Harrisburg; Mary Jane Baird, Gladys Bloser, Frances Hershman, Mary Louise Garrettson, Catherine Dice, Irene Snyder, Helen Barnes, Grace Lauck, Grace Bowers, Dorothy May Wolfe, Martin Burke Sharp, Catherine Shover, Verna Shover, Miriam Orris, Florence Orris, Mary Otstot, and Reba Hurst.
The above picture will be on exhibition at the baby show at the Panama Exposition at San Francisco in 1915. An artist who thinks it should be there, has been granted permission to place the same.

WOMEN CAN HARDLY BELIEVE

How Mrs. Hurley Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Eldon, Mo.—"I was troubled with displacement, inflammation and female weakness. For two years I could not stand on my feet long at a time and I could not walk two blocks without enduring cutting and drawing pains down my right side which increased every month. I have been at that time purple in the face and would walk the floor. I could not lie down or sit still sometimes for a day and a night at a time. I was nervous, and had very little appetite, no ambition, melancholy, and often felt as though I had not a friend in the world. After I had tried most every female remedy without success, my mother-in-law advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and gained in strength every day. I have now no trouble in any way and highly praise your medicine. It advertises itself."—Mrs. S. T. HURLEY, Eldon, Missouri.

Remember, the remedy which did this was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For sale everywhere.

It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means have failed. Why don't you try it? Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

PLANS BEING MADE FOR MINSTREL SHOW

George Sutton, George C. Martin and James Riley Wheelock Will Be With Company

Special to The Telegraph
Wormleysburg, Pa., March 10.—Rehearsals for the fifth annual performances of the Wormleysburg minstrels are being held regularly on Tuesday and Thursday nights. The twenty-five members of the organization are learning their parts in good style and from indications, the shows, when given on March 25, 26 and 27, will surpass those of other years. George Sutton, Harrisburg's well known baritone, in all likelihood will sing with the minstrels this year. George C. Martin, who has been one of the end men for the past three years, will be found in his old place. James Riley Wheelock, director of the Enola band, has been engaged for a number of clarinet solos. Mr. Wheelock is one of the best clarinet players in the State.
There is also a probability that "Butch" McDevitt, the Wilkes-Barre millionaire for a day, will send his statue to Wormleysburg for the show. When he was in Harrisburg a week ago he signified his intention of sending his famous likeness to the show if arrangements could be made.

The Price of a Single Page Advertisement

That's what it costs in some publications.

But that's not all. Only high priced brains can be entrusted with the important duty of filling such valuable space with a proper story. More cost.

And, what's the result?

In nine cases out of ten almost half the space is devoted to an illustration — and $2,500 just to publish a picture one time is some money.

But advertisers who are buying the space over and again say, "The picture story pays."

It attracts the eye—it tells a two-page type story at a glance.

Picture your story in all your publicity—circulars—letterheads—newspapers, because it pays.

Let us in on your thoughts and we'll have our artists and engravers produce the cut that will do the work.
