Authorities Refuse to Permit Men in Sacramento; Leader Lodged in Jail

Sacramento, Cal., March 10,-Beaten and badly disorganized, its leaders in and badly disorganized, its leaders in Sacramento jalls, and provided with scanty food and shelter, the "unemployed army," driven from Sacramento, is encamped to-day across the river in Yolo county, a dejected lot of men. Deputies are guarding the bridges and will not permit any to return to the city and Yolo county officers, heavily armed, are keeping the men within the new camp made yesterday after being forced beyond the city limits.

With no spokesmen and no leaders, the "army" has put aside temporarily its projected trip to Washington, D. C., and turned its attention to the graver subject of subsistence.

The city and county governments have sent enough money to provide two meals. Yolo county, which last Friday paid the army's transportation from Davis to Sacramento, as yet has taken no action to further disperse the from Davis to Sacramento, as yet has taken no action to further disperse the men.

Sacramento citizens are breathing a sigh of relief after the exciting events of yesterday. The streets are well patrolled and the police say nearly all the men, who scattered about the city when a portion of the army was routed and forced across the river, have joined their comrades in Yolo county.

No one was seriously injured when the police and special deputies routed the mob with dubs and fire hose. A few scalp lacefations, bruised bodies and broken noises represents the extent of the clash between the "army" and the authorities.

Applications will be made to-day for writs of habeas corpus in behalf of "General" Kelley and "Major" Thorne, and other leaders now in jail. The authorities said that if the writs were
