Eat less meat if you feel Backachy MI-O-NA FOR ALL or have Bladder or have Bladder

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is badyou have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a table-spoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.—Advertisement.

Missouri Athletic Club, in the Burning of Which Many Well-known Men Lost Their Lives

WEDNESDAY EVENING

The Missouri Athletic Club building in St. Louis burned with many prominent men, who lost their lives without a chance of escape. The club had a membership of 1,500, and it was one of the best known organizations of the West. The sleeping rooms contained many persons who live there regularly and some who had come in for the night. Shortly after the fire started the roof fell in carrying all through the wreckage. Later the walls caved, and then it was seen there was little chance of getting any one out alive. There were many thrilling rescues from the windows and some persons jumped. Two men lost their lives by leaping from the sixth floor.

State's Chief Road Engineer Talks About the Construction in Europe Today

That the United States has little to learn from Southern Europe and Northern Africa about the science of noderin roadbuilding, is the opinion most concerned are on the Job really twenty-four hours a day every day on the work.

Stone Easy to Get

"Another thing which helps in road construction in Italy is that in the majority of instances the material is to be found adong the road and thus expensive haulage charges are done away with. They use a form of limestone for their roads and it seems to be very satisfactory. Of course the Italian government is doing little in the construction of new roads, most of their highways in that country being military roads built centuries ago and to this day requiring but little resurfacing to put them in tiplop condition.

"In Africa the French government has built first-class roads through to both Algeria and Tunis, connecting all of the principal cities. There are many places where location has been sacrificed in order to get grade; this was probably due to economy in the original construction and the preponderance of camel, mule and vehicular traffic over automobile travel on surface of these roads. Near the large cities they have treated their water-bound macadam roads with tar and asphalt and in several instances have used a cement concrete covered with asphalt and tar. Here again, as in Italy, is manifested the permanency of construction, which is the thing that appealed to me the strongest; whatever they do, they do well, and this, I think, is the one thing that should be the axiom of all road-builders, whether abroad or in this country."
