WORK IS STARTED AT STEELTON FOR EXTENSION OF PENNSYLVANIA STEEL COMPANY MILLS

The Pennsylvania Steel Company yesterday broke ground for the mill extension work in the lower west side of Steelton which will wipe out at least fifty dwelling houses. Several scenes of the breaking of ground yesterday for the building work were snapped by a Telegraph photographer. The etching on the upper left shows G. T. Irwin and Victor T. Brady, gang foremen, taking out the first shovelful of ground in the excavations for the concrete bases for the big yard cranes. On the upper right is shown one of the pits an hour after work was started. On the lower left is shown ties already in place for the branch railroad that is being built to handle the material for the new mills. On the lower right is a group of anxious residents of the West Side, who are forced from their homes discussing the improvements and wondering where they can seek new dwelling places.

By Associated Press

El Paso, Texas, March 13.—Unconfirmed reports received here from Americane Entring from Chihuahua that the commission appointed by General Carranza, head of the Constitutionalists, had caused the arrest of Major Rudolfo Fierro, one of General Villa's subordinate officers, as the slayer of William S. Benton, a British subject, were given credence to-day by those interested in the case.

The reports stated that Major Fierro is being held on a blind charge for the killing of two Mexican railroadmen in a resort at Chihuahua. At the time of Benton's execution it was reported Fierro was in General Villa's office, said to have been the scene of the execution. It is known that the Carranza commission began its investigation with information that Benton had been killed by Fierro.

General Carranza's commission is said to have gathered convincing evidence that Colonel Fidel Avila, commander of the rebel garrison at Juarez, ordered the execution of Gustav Bauch, a German-American, who was tried as a spy, but in whose case no verdict was rendered. Denials that Bauch was killed have been made repeatedly by rebel officers at Juarez and Chihuahua.
