What Is a Bond?

there can be no safer investment than a FIRST MORT-GAGE REAL ESTATE BOND. In the case of a First Mortgage the whole amount is borrowed at one time from one source, while Bonds may

a FIRST MORTGAGE ON REAL ESTATE, therefore, be sold as money is required. All FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS are secured by a FIRST MORTGAGE upon some property owned by the company issuing the bonds, THE TITLE TO WHICH MUST BE ABSOLUTELY FLAWLESS, in favor of a Trust Company, and the signature of an officer of the Trust Company appears on every bond sold, to certify that the bond is so secured.

The Trust Company, as Trustee, will act in behalf and for the interest of the bondholder; will pay the interest as it becomes due every six months; will pay the principal upon the expiration of the bond; and if the Company issuing the bond fails to produce the money for the payment of the principal and interest, the Trust Company will foreclose the mortgage, and pay the bond-holders the principal and accumulated interest.

If you have One Hundred Dollars or more saved earning less than 6%, this is your opportunity to increase your income. We have FIRST MORTGAGE 6%

BONDS in denominations of $100 to offer, interest free from all taxes. Banks, Trust Companies and all large investors get 6% for their money. YOU CAN GET IT TOO.
