

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH

Established 1833... PUBLISHED BY THE TELEGRAPH PRINTING CO.

Published every evening (except Sunday), at the Telegraph Building, 216 Federal Square.

Eastern Office, Fifth Avenue Building, New York City, Hasbrouck, Story & Brooks.

Western Office, 132 West Madison Street, Chicago, Ill. Allen & Ward.

Entered at the Post Office in Harrisburg as second class matter. The Association of American Advertisers has examined and certified to the circulation of this publication.

Sworn daily average for the month of February, 1914

22,493 Average for the year 1913-21,577 Average for the year 1912-21,175 Average for the year 1911-18,551 Average for the year 1910-17,495

TELEPHONE: Bell Private Branch Exchange No. 2040. United Business Office, 203. Editorial Room 585. Job Dept. 205.

SATURDAY EVENING, MARCH 14

THE AUTOMOBILE SHOW

FOR five consecutive years Harrisburg has had an automobile show such as is seldom seen, outside of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, in Pennsylvania.

Time was when the automobile was looked upon merely as a rich man's toy. To-day it is the most popular vehicle in the world—popular not only in the sense that it has the approval of the public, but because it has become the great "common carrier."

The automobile is not an extravagance when properly used. Even the man of limited salary can afford a rebuilt "used" machine or one of the cheaper models fresh from the factory.

President Wilson signed the Alaskan railroad bill with a Klondike gold pen. Those Harrisburgers who invested a few years ago in Alaskan gold mining companies will wonder whether any of their product found its way into that pen, particularly as they never had any return from their investments.

ACTIVITY AT STEELTON

THE organization of a special company, with a capital stock of $100,000, for the sole purpose of having charge of construction work in connection with the Pennsylvania Steel Company at Steelton, augurs well for the further enlargement of the steel works there.

Sporadic improvements and occasional building operations are ordinarily carried out to contractors making a specialty of that kind of work. It is only when large corporations face plant enlargements on a gigantic scale that they organize separate companies in order that they may do their own building.

When the late Congressman Olmsted was instrumental in having a bill passed appropriating $125,000 for the improvement of the building here the parcel post bill had not been introduced and there seemed little likelihood of such a law at a very early date.

The Chamber of Commerce is right in extending to the Congressman every assistance within its power. There is nothing like home backing to make legislators understand that appropriations sought by their fellows are really needed.

Inasmuch as the next Legislature will have few purely political matters to worry about, the election of a United States Senator being disposed of in the general election next November, the choice of legislators is going to rest almost entirely upon their fitness to legislate rather than upon political considerations.

While the snow is piled high all over the city, the several heads of departments are struggling with the figures of the 1914 budget with a view to the energetic prosecution of the several public improvement projects which are already under way or about to be started.

Amateur night which proved to be the undoing of a band of orators of the suffragist association is an established institution in Harrisburg's theaters, especially the vaudeville houses. An invitation is given for all persons who think they can act, sing or dance to show their stunts and some real clever things are presented, especially team sketches.

A man who had been told that Father Penn would not object very much if he caught a pair of squirrels, took them to his home town for the public park is looking for the man who told him that. He went to the park one day and admired the squirrels and some one noticing his interest talked about them and imported the information that the State was glad to furnish them, but that they must be taken by the hand to meet the laws. The man bought a bag of nuts and started to catch squirrels. He had no trouble catching the animals but what happened when he tried to keep them sent him to a drug store for court plaster. One squirrel bit him in three places and another scratched his thumb so that he will not be able to use it for a week.

Evening Chat

"It is rather astonishing the way people flock to see an unidentified corpse," said an undertaker last evening in talking about accidents and their attendant features.

Harrisburg hotel registers have been ornamented with the slogan, "Votes for Women" lately and the marking appears to attract much attention. At one of the big hotels an ardent suffragist appended the legend to her name before the clerk could say Jack Robinson.

Amateur night which proved to be the undoing of a band of orators of the suffragist association is an established institution in Harrisburg's theaters, especially the vaudeville houses. An invitation is given for all persons who think they can act, sing or dance to show their stunts and some real clever things are presented, especially team sketches.

The members of the Central Democratic Club were last night prepared for the coming speech by Secretary of the Navy Joseph Daniels by Jesse Job-hunting Lybarger, recently defeated for the House and county controller-ship, and who is once more a candidate.

"Brumbaugh for Governor will sweep through the entire Allegheny Valley district like wildfire," said Senator Joseph H. Thompson, county, who was in Philadelphia yesterday to discuss with Republican leaders the candidacy of Jesse Job-hunting Lybarger, for the Supreme Court nomination. Senator Thompson is the ex-Republican county chairman of Beaver and is in touch with Republican sentiment throughout the western portion of the State.

"Don't you know?" Bill answers, "Say, you're mighty slow. They're off for the Arena. With its Auto Show."

WELL-KNOWN PEOPLE

—Mark Edgar, secretary of the Scranton Board of Trade, is making a series of investigations into freight rates to and from that city.

—Captain W. M. Fassett, U. S. A., has been detailed to inspect the National Guard signal corps company at Pittsburgh.

—Francis J. Kooser, former judge of Somerset county, has congressional aspirations.

—Henry Hart has resigned after serving as treasurer of the Empire Steel and Iron Company for years and will go into business in Reading.

—Charles M. Schwab is on a trip to California.

—William Robertson, well known in the iron trade, has retired from the business to look after large clay interests in Beaver county.

—Robert A. Balfour, Philadelphia capitalist, is about after an extended illness.

OPPRESSIVE DEMOCRATS

[From the Miami, Fla., Herald.] Some of our local so-called progressive Democrats are really what is known as oppressive Democrats. They ought to have a talk with themselves some time and get straight. If they make themselves believe that what they say and do, they are lucky. No one else believes them.

AN EVENING THOUGHT

The measure of a man's power to help his brother is the measure of the love in the heart of him, and of the faith he has that at last the good will win.—Ralph Connor.

Augustus Wildman Enters Campaign

He Announces That He Will Be Candidate For Renomination at May Primary

Lybarger is in Fine Form

Shows Effect of Recent Exploration of Classics and Takes First Place in Club

"I am a candidate for renomination to the House on the Republican ticket and will enter the primaries as vigorously as I can," said Representative Augustus Wildman to-day.

Mr. Wildman's papers for the renomination are now in circulation in the city and will probably be filed at the Capitol within the next few days. The nominating petition of Dr. James E. Dickinson, Mr. Wildman's colleague, is also expected to be filed before many days.

Republicans in the Second Legislative District are discussing various candidates, among those mentioned being O. C. Bishop, Oberlin; Albert B. Schenck, Derry township; Dr. M. C. Putt, Oberlin; ex-Representative C. D. Row, Williamstown, and H. M. Fairchild, Millersburg.

Dr. D. W. Schaffner, of Eshelut, named a Poor Board physician by grace of the machine, has finally consented to do what he can to help the bosses by staying as a Democratic candidate for the House in the Second Legislative District. John J. Newbaker, the wise old Democratic leader in Steelton, was slated for the nomination according to rumor, but with McCormick and Prizer to run with it, it is said that he did not like the signs.

Dr. D. W. Schaffner, of Eshelut, named a Poor Board physician by grace of the machine, has finally consented to do what he can to help the bosses by staying as a Democratic candidate for the House in the Second Legislative District. John J. Newbaker, the wise old Democratic leader in Steelton, was slated for the nomination according to rumor, but with McCormick and Prizer to run with it, it is said that he did not like the signs.

The members of the Central Democratic Club were last night prepared for the coming speech by Secretary of the Navy Joseph Daniels by Jesse Job-hunting Lybarger, recently defeated for the House and county controller-ship, and who is once more a candidate. Mr. Lybarger was intended to be a mere satellite in the galaxy of speechmakers at the club last night, but by force of voice and the gallant Engham, he won in large proportions. Mr. Lybarger was filled with ideas about knights and lances, but whether he had been reading of the Spaniard who tilted at a windmill or was consumed by memories of the paladin Roland, did not appear. Julius Caesar, the worst boss Rome ever knew, was also used in one of the similes of Mr. Lybarger. Vance C. McCormick, candidate for the gubernatorial nomination, made a speech in which he agreed to abide by the primaries; S. S. Prizer, the single-taxer and stove manufacturer, who is a candidate for the congressional nomination; the old reliable T. K. VanDyke, Arthur C. Young, H. M. Bretz and President Jones also spoke. Mr. Young also gave the club an easy chair.

"Brumbaugh for Governor will sweep through the entire Allegheny Valley district like wildfire," said Senator Joseph H. Thompson, county, who was in Philadelphia yesterday to discuss with Republican leaders the candidacy of Jesse Job-hunting Lybarger, for the Supreme Court nomination. Senator Thompson is the ex-Republican county chairman of Beaver and is in touch with Republican sentiment throughout the western portion of the State.

"Don't you know?" Bill answers, "Say, you're mighty slow. They're off for the Arena. With its Auto Show."

SEE THE AUTO SHOW

Say, Bill, hear that honk-honk. Hear that honk-honk. Something must be doing. Sure as you were born.

Where are all the people headed for to-night? Surely, they expect to see some pleasing sight.

"Don't you know?" Bill answers, "Say, you're mighty slow. They're off for the Arena. With its Auto Show."

"Austos, big and little. Motorcycles, too. And accessories are waiting there for you."

"Even though you haven't made your mind up, mate that you'll buy, be sure to see the show to-night."

"Or if that you can't go, Sometime next week do. Take the whole blamed family. They'll enjoy the show."

WELL-KNOWN PEOPLE

—Mark Edgar, secretary of the Scranton Board of Trade, is making a series of investigations into freight rates to and from that city.

—Captain W. M. Fassett, U. S. A., has been detailed to inspect the National Guard signal corps company at Pittsburgh.

—Francis J. Kooser, former judge of Somerset county, has congressional aspirations.

—Henry Hart has resigned after serving as treasurer of the Empire Steel and Iron Company for years and will go into business in Reading.

—Charles M. Schwab is on a trip to California.

—William Robertson, well known in the iron trade, has retired from the business to look after large clay interests in Beaver county.

—Robert A. Balfour, Philadelphia capitalist, is about after an extended illness.

OPPRESSIVE DEMOCRATS

[From the Miami, Fla., Herald.] Some of our local so-called progressive Democrats are really what is known as oppressive Democrats. They ought to have a talk with themselves some time and get straight. If they make themselves believe that what they say and do, they are lucky. No one else believes them.

AN EVENING THOUGHT

The measure of a man's power to help his brother is the measure of the love in the heart of him, and of the faith he has that at last the good will win.—Ralph Connor.

Augustus Wildman Enters Campaign

He Announces That He Will Be Candidate For Renomination at May Primary

Lybarger is in Fine Form

Shows Effect of Recent Exploration of Classics and Takes First Place in Club

"I am a candidate for renomination to the House on the Republican ticket and will enter the primaries as vigorously as I can," said Representative Augustus Wildman to-day.

Mr. Wildman's papers for the renomination are now in circulation in the city and will probably be filed at the Capitol within the next few days. The nominating petition of Dr. James E. Dickinson, Mr. Wildman's colleague, is also expected to be filed before many days.

Republicans in the Second Legislative District are discussing various candidates, among those mentioned being O. C. Bishop, Oberlin; Albert B. Schenck, Derry township; Dr. M. C. Putt, Oberlin; ex-Representative C. D. Row, Williamstown, and H. M. Fairchild, Millersburg.

Dr. D. W. Schaffner, of Eshelut, named a Poor Board physician by grace of the machine, has finally consented to do what he can to help the bosses by staying as a Democratic candidate for the House in the Second Legislative District. John J. Newbaker, the wise old Democratic leader in Steelton, was slated for the nomination according to rumor, but with McCormick and Prizer to run with it, it is said that he did not like the signs.

Dr. D. W. Schaffner, of Eshelut, named a Poor Board physician by grace of the machine, has finally consented to do what he can to help the bosses by staying as a Democratic candidate for the House in the Second Legislative District. John J. Newbaker, the wise old Democratic leader in Steelton, was slated for the nomination according to rumor, but with McCormick and Prizer to run with it, it is said that he did not like the signs.

The members of the Central Democratic Club were last night prepared for the coming speech by Secretary of the Navy Joseph Daniels by Jesse Job-hunting Lybarger, recently defeated for the House and county controller-ship, and who is once more a candidate. Mr. Lybarger was intended to be a mere satellite in the galaxy of speechmakers at the club last night, but by force of voice and the gallant Engham, he won in large proportions. Mr. Lybarger was filled with ideas about knights and lances, but whether he had been reading of the Spaniard who tilted at a windmill or was consumed by memories of the paladin Roland, did not appear. Julius Caesar, the worst boss Rome ever knew, was also used in one of the similes of Mr. Lybarger. Vance C. McCormick, candidate for the gubernatorial nomination, made a speech in which he agreed to abide by the primaries; S. S. Prizer, the single-taxer and stove manufacturer, who is a candidate for the congressional nomination; the old reliable T. K. VanDyke, Arthur C. Young, H. M. Bretz and President Jones also spoke. Mr. Young also gave the club an easy chair.

"Brumbaugh for Governor will sweep through the entire Allegheny Valley district like wildfire," said Senator Joseph H. Thompson, county, who was in Philadelphia yesterday to discuss with Republican leaders the candidacy of Jesse Job-hunting Lybarger, for the Supreme Court nomination. Senator Thompson is the ex-Republican county chairman of Beaver and is in touch with Republican sentiment throughout the western portion of the State.

"Don't you know?" Bill answers, "Say, you're mighty slow. They're off for the Arena. With its Auto Show."

SEE THE AUTO SHOW

Say, Bill, hear that honk-honk. Hear that honk-honk. Something must be doing. Sure as you were born.

Where are all the people headed for to-night? Surely, they expect to see some pleasing sight.

"Don't you know?" Bill answers, "Say, you're mighty slow. They're off for the Arena. With its Auto Show."

"Austos, big and little. Motorcycles, too. And accessories are waiting there for you."

"Even though you haven't made your mind up, mate that you'll buy, be sure to see the show to-night."

"Or if that you can't go, Sometime next week do. Take the whole blamed family. They'll enjoy the show."

WELL-KNOWN PEOPLE

—Mark Edgar, secretary of the Scranton Board of Trade, is making a series of investigations into freight rates to and from that city.

—Captain W. M. Fassett, U. S. A., has been detailed to inspect the National Guard signal corps company at Pittsburgh.

—Francis J. Kooser, former judge of Somerset county, has congressional aspirations.

—Henry Hart has resigned after serving as treasurer of the Empire Steel and Iron Company for years and will go into business in Reading.

—Charles M. Schwab is on a trip to California.

—William Robertson, well known in the iron trade, has retired from the business to look after large clay interests in Beaver county.

—Robert A. Balfour, Philadelphia capitalist, is about after an extended illness.

OPPRESSIVE DEMOCRATS

[From the Miami, Fla., Herald.] Some of our local so-called progressive Democrats are really what is known as oppressive Democrats. They ought to have a talk with themselves some time and get straight. If they make themselves believe that what they say and do, they are lucky. No one else believes them.

AN EVENING THOUGHT

The measure of a man's power to help his brother is the measure of the love in the heart of him, and of the faith he has that at last the good will win.—Ralph Connor.

Nicholson--Hemminger--Johnson

Who--during their many years in Evangelistic work--have had the FREE use of every good Piano, as an advertisement, purchased for their exclusive use the

The only reason these gentlemen could have for purchasing a Chickering in preference to any other piano, is because THEY KNOW it to be the BEST--never, because it is cheaper, for Chickering pianos cost more than others--but

They Are Worth the Difference

Ask any of the leading musicians or musical authorities of Harrisburg, such as Professor C. A. Ellenberger, Professor E. J. Deceve, Miss Jennie Pratt, Bishop J. H. Darlington, Mrs. Musser, Mrs. Bent Weaver, Mrs. W. K. Bumbaugh, Mrs. M. E. Olmstead, Mrs. W. K. Myers, Mrs. Kreider, and many others. They will tell you that the Chickering is the supreme piano of the world.

COME IN AND INSPECT OUR DISPLAY

Uprights, $500 to $600

Grands, $650 to $1,550

The J. H. Troup Music House

Troup Building, 15 South Market Square

Force, of Scranton; Governor, Matthew H. Stevenson, of Pittsburgh; Lieutenant-Governor, Dr. H. J. Whalen, of New Castle; Secretary of Internal Affairs, C. W. R. Smith, of Philadelphia; Representatives in Congress at large, George Hart, of Scranton; B. R. Pike, of Erie; Dr. S. Harper Smith, of McKeesport; James J. Patton, of Philadelphia; in addition to the nonpartisan ballot: Supreme Court, Harold L. Robinson, of Uniontown; Superior Court, James E. Clark, of Philadelphia.

Although Judge C. N. Brumm, of Pottsville, may not announce his candidacy for the Washington party nomination for Governor for several days, the fact that the Judge has firmly decided to enter the race. His determination to oppose Dean Lewis is not because of personal antagonism, but merely because of the demand that has been manifested for a more aggressive candidate than Lewis.

POLITICAL SIDE LIGHTS

—Oh! Jesse. Why did you drag in Caesar? —Abiding by the decision of the primaries seems to be a principle just now, but in years gone by it was more observed in the breach.

—Julius Caesar and the knight who bucked a windmill in almost the same breath. —The candidacy of Messrs. Wildman and Dickinson is not popular in a certain mourning newspaper.

—Doc Schaffner shows a proper appreciation of being given a job anyway. —It's pretty nearly time for Doc Dougherty to be heard from again.

—Messrs. Dimmock and Ainey seem to be having differences and Borah is disposed to stand from under. —William Draper Lewis says he's for local option.

—Pinchot has gone to western States, probably to get a little glance at familiar scenes. —Borah and Cummins are said to be due in this State in a month to make speeches.

—Carr and Cresswell are now said to be slated for the federal judgeships and the appointments are to be made next week. —Nice situation when a judge from another State has to be sent into Pennsylvania to handle federal business tied up because Democratic politicians are squabbling over spoils.

—We trust Lybarger did not get Paxton creek and the Rubicon mixed. —Wonder if the scrap over federal judgeships as spoils conflicts with the "New Freedom"? —The doctrine of making the Legislature change its rules as a part of the executive prerogative is not being exploited much.

—Dr. Brumbaugh's announcement is expected next week and there will be more pain among the Democrats. —Anyhow, fight for place are not keeping Mr. Cupid from the White House.

—Peter J. Hughes, former newspaperman and magistrate, will run for Congress in Philadelphia. —McCormick and Ryan will both be out on the trail next week. McCormick is going to northern counties and Ryan to Scranton, Wilkes-Barre, Altoona and Pittsburgh. —Fifteen men formed a McCormick club in the Eighth ward of Philadelphia the other evening. —Ryan was endorsed by another ward committee in Philadelphia last night, making his score 22.

AFTER YOU DIE

Who will take care of your family? You cannot afford to carry the risk. A $10,000 policy at age 35 requires but $129.90. Dividends reduce cost after first year. Assets $140,000,000. Organized 1847. Write for sample policy. PENN MUTUAL LIFE 103 N. Second St. Isaac Miller, Local Agent, F. O. Donaldson, Agents.

HEADQUARTERS FOR SHIRTS SIDES & SIDES

Wills Should Be Perfectly Drawn In the preparation of no legal document is the inaccurate use of a word or phrase more serious than in a will. It cannot be insured against a contest as can property against fire, but— It can be made flawless to insure the wishes of the testator being carried out by consulting a trust company or an attorney. We will be pleased to furnish forms prepared by legal experts to guide you in making your will. And next in importance is the naming of a trust company as your executor. These important matters should be given your immediate attention.

Dauphin Deposit Trust Company 213 Market St. Capital, $200,000 Surplus, $300,000 Open for deposits Saturday evening from 6 to 8.