The Style Secrets of the World's Master Milliners Revealed Tomorrow

Harrisburg's Supreme Fashion Event
That Sets All Doubt at Rest As to the Authentic Hat Styles For Spring

Formal Opening Days
Thursday, Friday and Saturday
March 19, 20 and 21

HARRISBURG fashion lovers will see millinery styles, to-morrow, that are authentic in every line and grace of fashion. Many of the chic creations were copied and adapted from original Paris modes by our Miss Whitman, while on her annual visit to the French Capital last month. She brought with her fine French trimmings of every kind, which, of course, will be among the many things shown here exclusively. In addition to the hundreds of hats of incomparable beauty and correct style designed in our own work-rooms will be shown pattern hats of smart style and exquisite taste from these famous designers:

Burgesser	Halsey	Phipps	Croft	Hyland
Rawak	Waters	Jardine	Castle

And the Chapeaux de Paris are clever copies of the masterpieces of

Evelyne Varon	Suzanne Talbot	Marie Louise
Camille Roger	Louison	Georgette
		Mary and Annie

WOMEN are naturally interested in the new shapes, which are new in every sense of the word. Sailor effects that are not even "second cousins" to sailors of past seasons are a predominating feature--cornered hats seemingly designed to hold pompons and other trimmings--Watteau shepherdess styles so piquant and charming--small hats with wonderfully curved and sharply turned brims--these are leaders with variations that are almost unlimited.

Welcome, then, to a fascinating display of fashionable millinery.
