PERSONAL & SOCIAL

JUST STARTING OFF ON THEIR HONEYMOON

MR. AND MRS. J. HOWARD JONES
Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Jones who were married at Newport yesterday morning, stopped in this city for several hours on the way to Philadelphia and New York. They were guests of honor at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. William T. Scheffer, 800 North Second street, and the above picture was snapped by the Telegraph photographer on the Scheffer porch. Mrs. Jones was formerly Miss Hanna Jennings Himes, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Banks Himes.

HAWBECKER-ROUCH WEDDING IN CHURCH

Will Be One of the Prettiest Bridal Events of the Season

MISS SARAH NOBLET ROUCH

In the presence of a large assemblage of friends at the Stevens Memorial Methodist church this evening at 6:30 o'clock, the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Clayton Albert Smucker, will perform the marriage ceremony for Miss Sarah Noblet Rouch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse J. Rouch, 1211 Chestnut street, and Linn Hoch Hawbecker, of Hershey.

The chancel is banked with palms and ferns and Spring flowers carry out a color scheme of yellow and white.

Miss Edna Catherine Shope will play the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" as a processional, and the Mendelssohn "Wedding March" as a recessional for the bridal party.

The bride, who will be escorted by her brother, George Thomas Rouch, has chosen an exquisite costume of white charmeuse, entraine, with touches of white chantilly. Her lace veil is arranged cap fashion, with orange blossoms, and she will carry a shower bouquet of marguerites. Her only ornament is the bridegroom's gift, a bar of sapphires and pearls.

Miss Charlotte May Rouch will be maid of honor for her sister, wearing a soft yellow charmeuse, entraine, with trimmings of chiffon and lace. Her bouquet is of yellow marguerites and pale lavender lilies. Her pearl necklace is the bride's gift. Edwin C. Snyder, of this city, is the best man, with Lloyd B. Shoap, of Hershey, and Charles A. Sollenberger, ushers. Their platinum scarf pins are the bridegroom's gift to them.

A reception to the bridal party and immediate relatives will follow the service at the bride's home where the decorations and table appointments are of yellow with daffodils and other Spring blossoms prevailing. Ruthersford caterers for the supper.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Rouch, will wear a handsome gown of wistaria charmeuse lace trimmed, and Mrs. Hawbecker, the mother of the bridegroom, will wear a beautiful costume of dark blue satin. The bride's going away gown will be of dark green cloth, with hat to harmonize.

The wedding journey will include southern pleasure resorts and after April 1st Mr. and Mrs. Hawbecker will be "at home" to their friends in their newly-furnished home in Cocoa avenue, Hershey, where Mr. Hawbecker is employed by the Hershey Chocolate Company. The bride is a talented musician as well as an artist. Both she and Mr. Hawbecker are graduates of the Central High School, class of 1910.

BRILLIANT BRIDAL OF MISS MARY MADER

Ceremony Largely Attended Last Night at Coxestown Methodist Church

The marriage of Miss Mary Elizabeth Mader, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mader, to Charles Blaine Hassler, was a brilliant event of last evening, the ceremony taking place in the Coxestown Methodist Church, with the Rev. Irwin Cullum officiating.

Palms and ferns decorated the church, with white roses and carnations lightening the greenery at the altar. Mrs. Moyer, of Green Hill, played the wedding marches, giving a recital before the service, and Miss Jennie Sellers, of this city, sang "O Perfect Love" preceding the final prayer.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a charming costume of white satin with draperies of shadow lace and her veil was a shower bouquet of white roses and a maiden hair fern. The maid of honor, Miss Laura Mader, wore pink chiffon over satin, and carried a sheaf of pink roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Nellie Mader, in blue satin and Miss Nellie Mader, in blue satin and white, carrying sweet peas, and Miss Hattie Hassler, in creamy satin and white, carrying crimson roses. The ushers were Samuel Hassler and the ushers were Ralph Hepford and Clarence Mader.

A reception at the bride's home along the Linglestown road, from 8 o'clock, was largely attended, and after congratulations and a supper the guests viewed the lavish array of gifts showered on the young couple.

Following a trip to New York, Washington and Philadelphia, after April 1st Mr. and Mrs. Hassler will be "at home" in Penbrook, where Mr. Hassler is engaged in business.

PARTY FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Mrs. R. M. Wolfe entertained, Tuesday, at her home, 509 South Thirteenth street, in honor of Miss Catherine H. Wenger, of Chambersburg, Pa., early in the Spring. Miss Miller, a graduate of the Central High School, class of 1910, and a member of the Sigma Beta Phi Sorority.

Don't Fuss With Mustard Plasters!

There's no sense in mixing up a mess of mustard, flour and water and getting everything all muddled up when you can so easily relieve that pain or soreness with a little clean, white MUSTEROLE.

MUSTEROLE is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of a pleasant white ointment. It takes the place of the out-of-date mustard plaster, and will not blister!

MUSTEROLE gives instant relief from Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chills, Frosted Feet, Colds of the Chest (it prevents Pneumonia).

At your druggist's, in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50.

Accept no substitute. If your druggist cannot supply you, sent 25c or 50c to the MUSTEROLE Company, Cleveland, Ohio, and we will mail you a jar, postage prepaid.

MISS C. BLEADINGHIZER, Nurse, Washington, Pa., says: "Have used Musterole on patients and consider it fine." (71)
