WARREN M'CARRICK LOST LIFE IN RIVER

tor of a hotel on the grounds of the Suffolk Driving Park, in the extreme southern section of the city, volunteered the information that last Thursday two men and a 7-year-old boy entered the hotel. Wallace declared that the boy answered Warren's description, but was apparently willing to go with the men.

The boy's father and several detectives went to the hotel and started from there on an all-day search, which revealed nothing that might serve to shed light on the mystery.

The second clue was given by Samuel P. Sharkey, a clerk in Post Office Station D, Nineteenth and Christian streets. Sharkey told the detectives that he had seen a covered wagon going west on Christian street a few minutes before 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

The vehicle carried two colored men and a boy, he said. The postal clerk added that the wagon had "Eridesburg" painted on one side. Acting on this information, the police of Port Richmond and Bridesburg instituted a search for a wagon answering that description.

THREE DUTCH GIRLS OFF TO SCHOOL VIA CANAL

For the first time in five years the canals of Holland are completely frozen over, and as they are short-cuts, the canals have become winter highways. The picture above shows three happy Dutch girls on their way to school and carrying a charcoal fire with which to keep warm in the school house.
