Millinery of Distinction at Underselling Prices
Now Is the Time to Select Your Easter Hat

NOW is the time that we can give you best service in the selection of materials and in the actual designing and trimming. This is not said in disparagement of what we can do later on. We have accomplished some wonderful feats in millinery, even when the order reached us at the last moment.

But—our milliners and our designers are only human. And humanity can do its best work only when unhurried.

There's a wealth of material from which to choose the Spring Hat.

Untrimmed Hats are here in the newest shapes—Watteau sailors, berets, the new pokes with high band in back, close-fitting turbans, small sailors with high crowns, medium sailors, and the popular tango tams.

Colors: Raven blue and other new blues, Russian green, tango, tete de negre, twine and the staple shades, and all at Underselling Prices.

Among the trimmings for these hats are a handsome assortment of quills, jet ornaments, roses, flowers, etc., and also the new ribbons.

Mechanicsburg Lodges Buy Pictures For Schools

Special to The Telegraph.

Mechanicsburg, Pa., March 20.—

Three lodges of Mechanicsburg have selected pictures from the Elson exhibition recently held here to be placed in the public school rooms. The Independent Order of Odd Fellows chose "I Hear a Voice," by Earl. On the committee were George W. Hersman, George C. Millelsen and Joseph Lemon.

"Signing the Declaration of Independence," by Trumbull, was the selection of the Patriotic Order Sons of America, with Guy H. Lucas, W. F. Fishburn and Harry N. Cromleigh as a committee. The Independent Order of Americans selected "The Indian and the Lily," by Brush. Harry Beitzel, William Kaley and Robert Kaley composed the committee.

The Rev. Leroy F. Baker to Give Lecture on Missions

Special to The Telegraph.

Newport, Pa., March 20.—The Rev. Leroy F. Baker, of Selinsgrove, general missionary of the diocese of Harrisburg, will give an illustrated lecture on mission in the Church of the Nativity on Monday evening next at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Baker carries his own stereopticon with him and will throw on the canvas pictures of about fifty of the churches, rectories and parish houses of the missions of the diocese.

BAUMGARDNER-BAREBECKE

Waynesboro, Pa., March 20.—

Charles Russell Baumgardner and Miss Anna Barebecke were married at the home of and by the Rev. H. Mitchell Stover, Cleveland avenue, last evening.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets. These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. They do not injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "biliousness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lumpy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. At 10c and 25c per box. The Olive Tablets Company, Columbus, O. At all druggists.—Advertisement.
