

And Jeff Couldn't Wait Till Monday For Wash Day

By "Bud" Fisher

STEELTON HIGH WINS BY GOOD SHOOTING

Tech High Played an Indifferent Game at Critical Times; the Score

Basketball tossers on the Steelton High team played all around the Tech High five in the final game at Steelton last night, winning by a score of 41 to 23.

Technical. Steelton. L. Scheffer, f. Krout, f. Steward, f. Keim, f. Tittle, c. Crump, c. Beck, g. Boyles, g. W. Scheffer, g. Dayhoff, g.

ALLOW SIX-ROUND BOUTS Special to The Telegraph. Scranton, Pa., March 21.—Sheriff Benjamin S. Phillips yesterday issued an order announcing that after to-day all poolrooms in Lackawanna county must close at 11 p. m. and all boxing exhibitions must be cut from ten to six rounds.

Correct Hats For Spring. In our early showing of the new spring hats you will find exclusive styles, correct in shape, finish and color.

Even Steven Cigars. THE TASTE TELLS THE TALE.

Central High Loses to Wilkes-Barre Five

Falling down in the second half of the final scholastic game at Wilkes-Barre last night, Central High lost out to the Wilkes-Barre High five, score, 31 to 21.

Lacrosse at Carlisle; Hobart Lands Indians

One big game of lacrosse will be played at Carlisle this season. Manager Sidney, of the Hobart College lacrosse team, yesterday announced the schedule for the approaching season.

BID WAS INCREASED; CUBS WILL NOT BE SOLD. Chicago, Ill., March 21.—Charles P. Taft, of Cincinnati, who announced Wednesday night he would retain his controlling interest in the Chicago National League baseball club for at least a year, refused an offer of $770,000 for his holdings, according to John T. Conery, who attempted to purchase the Cubs for the Connery-Spiegel syndicate of this city.

Senator Penrose Tours Western Pennsylvania. Senator Boies Penrose spent yesterday in Jefferson county, where he was warmly greeted in his campaign for reelection and to-night in Clearfield.

WHITE WOMAN GETS DIVORCE FROM CHINESE PHYSICIAN. San Francisco, March 21.—Mrs. Elvide C. Cheng, white wife of Eng W. Cheng, a Chinese physician of Boston, was granted a divorce in the Superior Court yesterday on grounds of extreme cruelty.

23 STICKS OF DYNAMITE ONE MAN SHOT TO DEATH. Corona, Cal., March 21.—George W. Laporte, a watchman for the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad, was killed early to-day by Samuel Morie, a bandit found in a box car. Morie after-ward was riddled with bullets by two policemen, both of whom he wounded before he fell dead.

POSTPONE LECTURE. The lecture on "Panama," by Clem Shorter Lewitch, an engineer on the work, which was scheduled for this afternoon and to-night in Technical High School, has been indefinitely postponed, because of a lack of safety devices to place around the machine used in the lecture.

Buried Under Foot of Earth an Hour; Life Is Miraculously Saved. Caught under a fall of ground when the walls of a ditch fell on top of him, Salem Hill, of 6 Lochiel row, was buried under a foot of damp earth for an hour and a half, according to a plank which fell on top of him when the earth fell, giving him space enough to breathe.

Jim Thorpe Real Ball Player; Will Be in Game With Giants

Harrisburg Admirer Brings Good News About the Former Carlisle Indian Star; McGraw Is Much Pleased

Indications are favorable for the appearance of Jim Thorpe, the Carlisle star athlete, in the regular baseball game this season. Thorpe has improved wonderfully, according to Leo Harris, the local coach and football official, who recently met Thorpe in New York.

PRISONERS TO WORK ON COUNTY HIGHWAYS

March quarter sessions, Grand Jury makes suggestion to Court. Judge Johnson returned from Lewisburg today to resume the hearing of March criminal court cases.

NEW CUMBERLAND PEOPLE HEARTILY ENDORSE KUNKEL

Petitions Are Also Received from Indiana, Lebanon and Other Counties. Judge Kunkel's candidacy for the Supreme Court bench was heartily endorsed at a meeting in New Cumberland last evening with J. J. Baughman presiding and Jacob H. Reiff acting as secretary.

Divorce and Widow Wed.—Among the marriage licenses issued to-day was one to Elmer D. Michener and Mary C. Jones, both of Philadelphia. He was divorced November 25, 1912, and her husband died on May 13, 1905.

Wanted to Issue Marriage License.—County Recorder O. G. Wickersham remained on the job more than an hour longer than ordinary today to grant a license to Bessie Stella Renner, Bressler, and Oscar Ray Mowery, Lemoyne. They had called at the office of Squire Gardner of Steelton, and they were required to go to the recorder's office, and got Mr. Wickersham by phone. It was 1 o'clock then but the recorder waited.

Caught under a fall of ground when the walls of a ditch fell on top of him, Salem Hill, of 6 Lochiel row, was buried under a foot of damp earth for an hour and a half, according to a plank which fell on top of him when the earth fell, giving him space enough to breathe.

AMUSEMENTS

To-night—"Oh! Oh! Delphine." All next week, with daily matinees—Helen Grayce and her company.

ORPHEUM. Keith Vaudeville—Every afternoon and evening. COLONIAL. Vaudeville and Pictures—Every afternoon and evening.

PLAYS OF TIMELY INTEREST. Theatergoers have the assurance that each play presented by Helen Grayce on her return engagement to the Majestic Theater, next week, is right up-to-date and that it deals in topics that are of general interest.

"THE BRIDE SHOP." The Orpheum's fine novelty bill that is headed off with the screeching comedy, "Wrong Front the Start," will make its exit after to-night's performance.

AT THE COLONIAL. It has been a long time since patrons of the Busy Corner were treated to the thrills such as the Zoyarrs are handing out there as one of the splendid attractions of a bill that will be presented in the last engagement to-day.

MAJESTIC THEATER

This theater has shown many comic Keystone pictures, but none of them can compare with the one showing today, entitled "Tango Tangles Washing Our Clothes." The name itself assures the patrons that it is funny.

WILMER, VINCENT and APPEL Managers. To-night at 8.00. All Next Week Matinee Daily. SEATS NOW SELLING.

Oh! Oh! Delphine. Present Helen Grayce. The Lion and the Mouse, Mon. Mat. The Lion and the Mouse, Tues. Mat. Witching Hour, Tues. Eve. Girl in the Taxi, Tues. Eve. Grain of Dust, Wed. Mat. Beverly of Graustark, Thurs. Mat. Dawn of a Tomorrow, Fri. Eve. Grain of Dust, Sat. Mat. Traffic in Souls, Sat. Eve.

Orpheum. The funniest act in Vaudeville. Wrong from the Start. NEXT WEEK "THE BRIDE SHOP" Musical Comedy with 20 People. Bill Also Includes VAN and SCHENCK Special Brides' Matinee Tuesday.

Hunters! Keep In Form. because you are rusty. Keep in trim at the trap-shooting club. Write for free booklet "The Sport Alluring" and address of nearest club. Du Pont Powder Co. Wilmington Delaware.

Victoria Theater. To-day. The Great Leap, 4 Acts. The Silent Messenger, 2 Acts. Tango Tangles, Washing Our Clothes. 5c

CHESTNUT STREET AUDITORIUM, MONDAY, MARCH 30, AT 8.15. PADEREWSKI THE WORLD'S GREATEST PIANIST. PRICES: $1.00, $1.50, $2.00, $2.50. Subscription and program at C. M. Sigler's Music Store, 30 North Second street.

York Here Tonight For Final Contest

Harrisburg tossers will play the final game of the season with York five at the Armory to-night. York has won three games out of five from the locals and the game to-night promises unusual interest.

York will have two of their college stars in the line-up, Newman and Fredbenner. The game will start at 8.15. An added attraction will be a contest between the Hassett Juniors and Methodist Scrubs. Dancing will be the closing feature on the program.

KING OSCAR 5c CIGARS gives him the quality bulge on other smokers.