Commissioner Bowman Says $900 Percival's Report Is Result of Investigation Made by Him For Ambassador

The $900 provision for the salary of an assistant health officer will be put back into the city budget for 1914 at to-morrow's session of City Council, according to Commissioner Harry F. Bowman to-day.

The item had originally been included, but was cut out by a 3 to 2 vote.

Commissioner Bowman, sponsor for the measure, declared that he was alming at economy as well as efficiency in trying to create the position in view of the fact that the city would save much money over and above what is now paid for the handling of smallpox patients.

For the last six weeks the city has had to provide for the treatment of smallpox patients at $10 per day and thus far the expense has totaled more than $400. Before the sick folks arreleased the city will spend all todi, is estimated, close to $900.

Dr. Ritzman to Be Appointed
Commissioner Bowman's plan is to appoint Dr. Allen T. Ritzman, the present smallpox physician, to the job at times when there is no smallpox to handle, the assistant health physician and other contagious diseases.

The ordinance creating the position of police captain at $1,200 a year, and providing for the appointment of acaptain and five additional policemen will be offered to-morrow, too.

Police Captain Ordinance In
The captain it is generally expected will be Joseph P. Thompson, a former police lleutenant.

Carlisle School Head Is Silent on Defense Plans

Carlisle, Pa., March 23. — Moses Friedman, suspended superintendent of the Carlisle Indian School, expresses himself to friends as confident of a vindication when his case come up before Cato Sells, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, next Tuesday; but, acting under the advice of counsel, he refuses to discuss his defense for publication. He is affable, but reticent, rejecting all overtures with the information that his case is now in the hands of W. U. Henset and that he has on right to talk. He is silent, as silent as most of his neighbors have been up the present time, and that is just about the limit of quietude and mute cogitation.
