

MOTHER! IF CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

A laxative to-day saves a sick child -morrow. Children simply will not to-morrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their howels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour. Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's aliment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, be-cause it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation pol-son, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is ofttimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

should be the first treatment of syrups. Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for bables, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "Cali-fornia Fig" Syrup Company." Don't be fooled!—Advertisement.

Her Locks Youthful, Dark, ossy and Thick with Common Garden Sage and Sulphur

Garden Sage and Sulphur When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is mussy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Rem-edy." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and lux-uriant. You will also discover dan-druf is gone and hair has stopped failing. Gray, faded hair, though no dis-

The statement issued by Premier Asquith last night declaring that the movements of troops were of a pure-ly precautionary character has not weakened the determination of the Unionists to be prepared for all eventualities. When Sir Edward Car-son, the leader of the Ulstermen, read it to-day he remarked: "The statement simply represents the position the prime minister has been driven to take. The government has put itself in a ludicrous position, but its action makes no difference to us. We are proceeding steadily with our preparations and organization." The statement issued by Premier functal services will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock in Philadel-phia. William C. Bullitt was well known in Harrisburg. He was the son of the late John C. Bullitt, who framed the charter of Philadelphia, and for many years was an aggressive exponent of decent politics in his home city. Inheriting the traits of his father, Mr. Bullitt originally was a Democrat of the most ardent type. He was elect-ed to the Pennsylvania House of Rep-resentatives in 1852. In this eity he showed a keen inter-est in public affairs, and in the rollcall on any bill designed to further the pub-lic interests he was always with the legislators indorsing the project. He introduced into the House the bill now known as the 'city charter' of Phila-delphia, which was drafted by the com-mission of which his father, John C. Bullitt, one of the leaders of the Phila-delphia bar, was president. It was not until the session following Mr. Bullit's retirement from the Legislature, how-ever, that the measure was passed. Mr. Bullitt supported the "gold Dem-ocrats" in opposition to Bryan's "free silver" platform, and with the election of William McKinley he became a Re-publican. of the same year. C. A. Mentzer, of the same class, was discontinued at his own request. Pass On Retired MenThe character of the following retired preachers was passed upon as follows: George E. Ague, Charles A.
