SELLS JACK O'CONNOR TO WILKES-BARRE

Harrisburg Twirler Did Not Want to Return to the Tri-State This Season

Fitcher "Jack" O'Connor, Harrisburg's best twirler and one of the best pitchers in the Tri-State for two seasons, was sold to-day by Manager George Cockill to Wilkes-Barre. The consideration was $500.

When O'Connor left Harrisburg last season he said he could be in the New York State League this season. He was wanted by "Red" Calhoun for the Binghamton team, but Wilkes-Barre had the first choice. O'Connor is not only a good man in the pitcher's box, but can hit the ball, and on a number of occasions proved himself of value as a pinch hitter.

O'Connor won 13 and lost 11 games last season. His percentage was .521. He played in 34 games, was at the bat 94 times and scored 20 hits. He scored 8 times and had 3 sacrifice hits. His batting average was .213. It was also announced to-day that Gus Dundon, who jumped his contract last season and went to the Pittsburgh Federal League club, has sent a check covering his financial obligations to the Harrisburg club and will be made a free agent.

Wertz Is a Comer Is General Belief; Has Good Records

In signing Ray Wertz, the Newport wing star, Manager George Cockill made one of the best bargains of the season, in the opinion of those who have watched the work of Wertz during the past two seasons.

Wertz plays the game with a confidence and is one of a few youngsters who listen to the advice of men with more experience. In 1912 his best game was when he pitched against Blain, allowing but one hit. Newport had two, one of which was credited to Wertz.

Last season in a seventeen-inning game Wertz won against the Pennsylvania Railroad Young Men's Christian Association of Harrisburg; score, 4 to 3. Wertz won his own game by hitting out a three-bagger. He allowed six hits, gave three bases on balls and fanned thirteen men. Wertz pitched for the Railroaders against Milroy, won his game and allowed but four hits. In this game he had a home run, two two-baggers and a single. In a game against Renovo Wertz pitched for Harrisburg Pennsylvania Railroad Young Men's Christian Association and allowed three hits. Wertz is also a good man at infield.

REPUBLICANS ARE GAINING

Special to The Telegraph, Passaic, N. J., March 27.—Complete returns of the Congressional primaries in the Seventh New Jersey district are most auspicious for the Republicans and a defeat for the candidate on the Democratic ticket favored especially by President Wilson. This is the most important industrial district outside of Philadelphia.

An analysis shows that the total Republican vote was more than double that of the Democrats.

THE NITRATE BEDS OF CHILE

I entered Chile from the north by way of the La Paz and Antofagasta Railway, coming from La Paz. The long ride over the Bolivian desert terminated at Antofagasta, one of the leading ports for the shipment of the nitrate for which Chile is famous. These nitrate beds were discovered by George Smith, a Scotchman, who observed that trees and plants budded up with a strange white substance flourished more than others. The nitrate fields belonged to Chile in her disastrous war with Peru in 1879-83. At the close of this dreadful contest Chile was victorious over the combined republics of Bolivia and Peru. She took from Bolivia its entire coastline, and from Peru the provinces of Arica-Tacna, which have become an Alsace and Lorraine of South America. The treaty of peace with Peru provided that after a certain time these provinces should revert to Peru, if a plebiscite of the people should vote for this return. Since South America was not populated like Alsace and Lorraine, the Chileans were able to fill the conquered provinces with their own people. At the close of day there is small chance of a Chilean going back to Peru. Since 1881 the nitrate industry has yielded the Government of Chile an export tax of nearly half a billion dollars. This enormous sum has been used for a variety of ways.—Chile, the Yankee-land of South America, Peter MacQueen, in National Magazine for March, 1914.

SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

Brush This Through Faded, Lifeless Locks and They Become Dark, Glossy, Youthful

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.—Advertisement.
