"Green Beetle" to Take Folks Slumming in Chinese Quarter

Orpheum Headliner Tells a Weird Story of the Treachery That Awaits Unsuspecting Visitors to Mongolian Resorts

It will be an odd and interesting trip into the heart of New York's Chinatown that vaudeville audiences will take right here in Harrisburg next week. "The Green Beetle," which comes to the Orpheum for a week's run, is a two-act Chinese playlet, showing the wily traits of a week's run, who bring shame to their race by the manipulation of unsuspecting dives in the heart of the great metropolis. In reality this playlet is an expose of conditions that really exist, but is presented with so much care to the artistic and dramatic detail that it forms an enjoyable, as well as a surprising entertainment. The title of the piece comes from the wised superstition that hovers about a certain gem in the Chinese shop, and the experience of those who handle the jewel support the theory that Chinese cunning is a difficult thing for even a conscientious police department to combat.--Advertisement.

BERRY BOXES MUST CONTAIN MARKS

Chief Sweeney Tells What Will Happen If People Disregard the New Act

The man who sells strawberries or any of the other luscious fruits of summer time in a box or other container with the capacity being stamped on the outside is going to get into trouble and there is also bother in store for the seller of ice cream who disposes of his box unless a statement of the quantity is printed on the side of the lid. The old way of selling by the box or basket or bag without the buyer knowing the quantity is under the new law and the kid who asks for a nickel's worth of ice cream or peanuts is to be given as much information as the most captious buyer in bulk.

Under the new law the boxes to be made by weight or numerical count. The old ways of doing things were done away with by the commodities act of 1913 and Chief James Sweeney, of the State Bureau of Standards, says that people had better study the law before the cry of "strawberries" rings through the land.

In speaking about the situation, Mr. Sweeney said the act passed by the Legislature of 1913 requires that all dry or liquid measures used in measuring commodities must have the capacity thereof marked on the outside of the measures, as it is unlawful to use any measure unless the same has the capacity marked thereon. The former method of selling by the crate, box or basket is prohibited under this act.

"In the fruit season it has been customary to sell strawberries and other fruit for so much per basket. Under the act passed by the Legislature this method of selling berries or fruit will not be permitted. If berries or fruit are sold in baskets, boxes or crates the quantity of the contents of the baskets, boxes or crates must be plainly and conspicuously marked on the outside thereof. All commodities must be sold by weight, measure or numerical count. If the berry baskets contain one quart, that quantity in words or figures must be marked on the outside of the baskets. The dealer who refuses to comply with those requirements of the law subjects himself to the penalties of the act. Under this act the inspector of weights and measures is vested with authority to enforce its provisions.

Young Men in York County Notified of Draft For Service in Mexican War

Dallastown, Pa., March 30.--Letters received here from Harrisburg signed by J. M. Milligan, U. S. A., in which the writer says he was authorized by the War Department at Washington, notified several young men who have been drafted for service in the Mexican war, and that unless they report within ten days or furnish $300 for a bond, they will be taken into custody and be subjected to court-martial. Archibald Grim, George Geesy and Curvin Heise, of this place, and Ralph Price, of York, each received a notice, and it is said that there were a number of others. The letters caused considerable annoyance to the young men and the members of their families, some of whom looked upon them as official and not as a joke, for which they were apparently intended. The one received by George Geesy was turned over to Squire Barton, and he is forwarding the notices to the post office officials at Harrisburg for investigation. The notices are dated March 26, at Harrisburg, postmarked York, and were received here on March 27. Each bore a two-cent stamp. None of the men seen could imagine who Milligan is or who would write such a letter and sign a fictitious name. The Milligan signature is in a bold, business hand.

To Organize First Aid Corps at Elliott-Fisher

Some time ago a man was hurt at the Elliott-Fisher Typewriter Works. He lost much blood, for no one knew how to stop it. A doctor came in the nick of time. This incident began to be discussed in the work and out of it has sprung a suggestion for the formation of a first-aid corps. Twenty-five men will be organized Thursday into the first such body in the Elliott-Fisher works. H. A. Forthner, superintendent, will direct the class which will take up first-aid work in all its phases. Possibilities opening before the class are large, but, of course, everything is as yet tentative. The company will bear all expenses of equipment.

FARM ADVISERS TO START APRIL 1

Had Their Spring Conference With Director Martin at Capitol Yesterday

Pennsylvania's ten farm counsellors or field advisers will begin their tours of the State on next Wednesday, April 1, and each one has from thirty to forty requests for immediate visits and advice on agricultural problems, including crops, drainage and dairying. The counsellors were here Friday for consultation with A. L. Martin, the director of farmers' institutes with which they are connected, and the work for the Spring and summer was planned. As far as possible the counsellors will follow a schedule made up for them according to the 400 requests sent to the office of the division by people throughout the State.

The farm counsellors were organized last year following passage of an act presented early in the session and over 500 farms were visited on requests and advice given as to meeting problems. The work is distinct from the orchard supervision work by which demonstrations of methods of spraying and pruning trees are now being given throughout the State.

Warnings of the dangers of forest fires have been sent to almost every railroad and to many of the big manufacturing and lumber companies of Pennsylvania, by the State Forestry Department in an effort to secure co-operation in a campaign to reduce fire losses. The notices call attention to 500 farms were visited on requests and advice given as to meeting problems. The work is distinct from the orchard supervision work by which demonstrations of methods of spraying and pruning trees are now being given throughout the State.

GERMS MADE HARMLESS

Rich red blood is the power that keeps the human body in order. Every day many germs of disease enter our bodies but they are made harmless and passed off if the fighting forces of the body are in good condition. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make the blood rich and red, and strengthen the nerves. Try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for anemia, rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness, sciatica. Build up your blood and note how the purer and richer blood fights your battle against the disease. Take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a tonic if you are not in the best physical condition and cultivate resistance that with the observance of ordinary rules of health will keep you well and strong. ### Analytical Results Brights Disease

Patient--Dennis Beale, Pierson, Manitoba, Canada. Physician--Dr. Shier, Pierson, Manitoba. Case--Diagnosed by Dr. Shier as "Chronic Bright's Disease." There was the usual albumen and necrosis was in evidence--knee stiff and foot inverted. Recovery considered impossible.

Fulton's Renal Compound was taken into the case in March, 1913. Patient improved and removed to Perry, Iowa, where the treatment was continued. After taking two dozen he writes: "I had the doctor make an examination. He reported no albumen. You may rest assured I felt good. I am now healthy, eat and sleep well and am gaining in strength. Of course my stiff, useless leg bothers me and prevents my getting around. The ability of Fulton's Renal Compound to reduce albumen in many cases of Bright's Disease is not a matter of opinion but a FACT IN PHYSICS, and we will mail formula for albumen test that will show the percentage of albumen from week to week. As the albumen declines improvement commonly follows, recoveries having been reported in thousands of cases. Formula and literature mailed on request. John J. Fulton Co., San Francisco. J. H. Boher, druggist, 209 Market St., is local agent. Ask for pamphlet.--Advertisement.
