Seeking Individuality With the Personally Selected Hats and Trimmings

The costume and its color, the style of head dress and the complexion, the desire for a hat with some different shape and effect and many other special reasons lead the particular woman to find her exact requirements by personal selection of shapes and trimmings.

This display of Spring millinery in all its branches--trimmed and untrimmed hats, flowers, fancies, in fact every type of millinery and hat adornment known to fashion--presents the city's choicest and largest variety with many exclusive things that are imported direct and brought by our own representative from Paris.

Whatever is needed in shapes, ribbons, flowers, pompons, butterflies, in plumes, ostrich fancies will be found here.

And special preparations for the Easter rush brings the Millinery Department up to a high point of efficiency to serve all satisfactorily who pick out hats to be trimmed.

German National Bank Reduces Its Surplus

By Associated Press
Pittsburgh, Pa., April 1.—In order to avoid large participation in the federal reserve bank soon to be organized under the new currency system, the German National Bank of Allegheny to-day divided among its stockholders a dividend of 300 per cent, amounting to $600,000. The bank had accumulated a surplus of $900,000 and as every national bank must subscribe to the stock of the federal reserve bank in proportion to its capital and surplus it was decided to reduce the surplus. F. N. Hoffstad, of New York, is president of the bank.

EARLY VOTE EXPECTED

By Associated Press
Washington, D. C., April 1.—The Senate had before it again to-day the McCumber bill providing for Government inspection and grading of grain with prospects of a vote being had on it this week, according to Senator McCumber, author of the measure.

UNSIGHTLY PIMPLES COVERED FACE

Like Rash. Big, Red, Scaly Blisters. Always Tearing and Scratching Skin. Itching and Burning. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

3223 So. 3rd St., Philadelphia, Pa.—"My son who is four years of age was afflicted with some kind of a skin disease of the face for nearly a year. It was like a rash or ringworm. Big red scaly blotches began to appear on his skin and his face was covered with unsightly pimples which disfigured his looks to a marked degree. He was always picking or scratching his face which made things worse. He was always tearing and scratching his skin from the excess itching and burning sensation caused by the disease. The boils of his face and head were very sore, being very much inflamed. They feasted and came to a white head. He was peevish and as cross as he could be. His sleep was broken and restless, as he was always twitching and turning in the bed. I had to carry him around in my arms. I finally concluded there was no hope for him. I purchased three cakes of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment and used them with much success. From the first box of Cuticura Ointment together with the Cuticura Soap I noticed a big improvement and I kept right at it and I found my child entirely cured." (Signed) Mrs. M. Sweeney, Sept. 25, 1913.

Cuticura Soap 25c, and Cuticura Ointment 50c. are sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

NOT A THORN IN HIS SIDE BUT--

"Counter Tacks" Caused Inspector Boyer Some Annoyance Last Month

If there be such a thing as a thorn in the side of Dauphin county's inspector of weights and measures, then the particular prickling that bothered Inspector Harry A. Boyer during the past month was due to "counter tacks."

Inspector Boyer made his March report to the County Commissioners to-day and among the miscellaneous items tested were thirteen sets of counter tacks. These tacks are pressed into the counters of various country stores and are supposed to be a yard apart, thus serving for measuring cloth, etc., instead of a yardstick. Only one of the thirteen measured thirty-six inches and this was approved; the other twelve were condemned.

The sealer's report on other items follows: Scales, tested 94, sealed 82, condemned 12, adjusted 34; sealed 82, condemned 12, adjusted 34; sealed 82, condemned 12, adjusted 34; sealed 82, condemned 12, adjusted 34.

Wedded at 3: in Jail at 6

Introduced to his bride here Saturday at 2 o'clock, wedded in Hagerstown at 3, arrested in this city at 6 o'clock—in brief is the story of Lloyd Leach's romance. He is wanted by the Milford county authorities for stealing $175 from an employe of the Zortman Lumber Company.

MAIL CLERK CLINGS TO DENIAL IN BIG MAILS THEFT CASE

Believed in Many Quarters That Accused Is Victim of Circumstantial Evidence

Sitting in his cell in the Dauphin county prison this morning William R. Baum, the postal clerk accused by the postal authorities with the theft of $20,000 from the registered mails, denied that he is the thief.

Subjected to a severe sweating last night by the post office inspectors, Baum answered every question but absolutely refused to confess to any guilt. The inspectors finally left the jail with no more evidence than when they entered. The inspectors have admitted that Baum was arrested on evidence that is almost entirely circumstantial.

Baum gave notice to-day that he had retained Frank E. Ziegler and Edward E. Beldeman as his counsel, and that they would answer for him in the future. Efforts were made to-day to secure bail for Baum and it was expected that the necessary $10,000 would be forthcoming late this afternoon, or early to-morrow morning.

In view of the fact that Baum, who has always been held in the highest esteem by his acquaintances, is believed by his personal friends to be a victim of circumstantial evidence, the young man is receiving much sympathy in many quarters. Those who know Baum claim that he has always lived a quiet, frugal life and while working in the baggage room at the Pennsylvania railroad station, had made money on an investment in a building association.

WEST END REPUBLICAN CLUB HAS BANQUET

Opening Gun of Campaign Is Fired at Pleasant Annual Social Function

WILLIAM M. HARGEST

The sixth annual dinner of the West End Republican Club, held in the big diningroom of the North Third street clubhouse last evening, was the largest and most enthusiastic greeting in the history of that live-wire organization. Not only was the diningroom filled to overflowing, but there were fifty guests who could not procure seats and who dined together when the prettily arranged tables had been reset especially for them.

President H. A. Douglas introduced William M. Hargest, Assistant Attorney General, as toastmaster, at the opening of the dinner and he announced that he would follow the German method of speaking and call on the guests between courses. Among those who responded were W. Harry Baker, who brought a message from State Republican Chairman William H. Crow; Superintendent W. B. McCaleb, of the Pennsylvania Railroad; James H. Craig, Deputy Secretary of Internal Affairs; Representatives Wildman and Dickinson, State Senator Beldeman and E. J. Stackpole.

very conclusively that the big audience was won to the man. Mr. Baker was first introduced, for the reason that he had a business engagement to meet, and said that he brought to the West End club the best wishes of State Chairman Crow and a message of good cheer. Chairman Crow believes that there is a big Republican victory in store for the party this Fall, but that this result largely depends upon how earnestly each Republican throughout the Commonwealth puts his shoulder to the wheel between now and election day.

Mr. Stackpole dwelt at length upon the failure of the Wilson administration at Washington and upon the hypocrisy of the State Democratic machine in its loud protestations of virtue while its agents have gone about the State selling post offices to the highest bidder.

Mr. McCaleb speaks of the most striking remarks of the evening was made by Superintendent McCaleb, who said: "I feel strongly against now following political lines, but I do not believe it would be well for me to say what I think at this time. Some day soon I may find it necessary to hire a hall bar out reporters and then tell my friends just what I think. Certainly it behooves us to dwell deeply upon the kind of men we send to office. They should be honest and fair in their dealings both toward employer and employe. I do not hesitate to say that the men who served the city in House and Senate last session of the Legislature were not such men."

Speeches by Deputy Secretary Craig and Representatives Wildman and Dickinson followed. Mr. Wildman and Mr. Dickinson will in all likelihood be candidates for re-election to the Legislature and Mr. Dickinson in his remarks dropped a hint to that effect. Senator Beldeman on Kunkel brought the speaking to a close with an address that brought the diners to their feet in a wild cheer for Judge Kunkel, who, the speaker said, is certain of nomination as candidate for the Supreme Court bench. Judge Kunkel's popularity in the West End Club was well attested by the applause that greeted Senator Beldeman's reference to his candidacy. Letters of regret were read from Governor Tener and his private secretary, Walter L. Galtner, and a message came from Congressman Kielder saying that the vote on the Panama tolls bill detained him in Washington. Kurzenkabe's Orchestra rendered music during the dinner, which was arranged by the following committee, the members of which were heartily congratulated upon the success of the affair: President H. A. Douglas, Vice-President T. B. Marshall, Secretary C. J. Zimmerman, Treasurer H. W. Miller, Trustees W. D. Sheesley, C. G. Solters and C. V. Brashers, and Robert Thornton, steward.

GIRLS ARE PALMBEARERS

Six friends of Miss Ethel Helm, who died last Sunday at her home, 2146 Penn street, acted as palmbearers at her funeral this afternoon. They were: Miss Laura Green, Miss Goldie Otstot, Miss Ruby Andrews, Miss Catherine Van Camp, Miss Anna Montgomery and Miss Grace Stone. The services were conducted by the Rev. B. H. Hart, pastor of the Fifth Street Methodist Episcopal Church. Burial was made in the East Harrisburg Cemetery.

Market St. Crowds Cheer as Folks Are "Fooled"

In the presence of more than two hundred men, women and children, lined on both sides of the street in front of a Market street department store an "April Fool" joke was pulled off at noon to-day by several boys. A pocketbook and a string tied to the end of the string was tied to the curb and the other end was tied to a boy's foot. The string was hidden in a crack in the pavement. As a sucker stooped down to pick up the purse the youngster pulled his foot and the purse flew away. The lads stood for more than an hour and "April fooled" more than fifty people while the crowds cheered.

WILL SHAD RUN? WHAT!

The County Commissioners to-day were asked by whether there was going to be much of a runoff shad this year in the Susquehanna, accidentally the same boy was asked to grant permission to the writer to use a seine. Councilman Dawson, Aderholt, Roy, Alto borough, was the inquirer.

AMUNDSEN POSTPONES HIS TRIP

San Francisco, Cal., April 1.—Captain Raold Amundsen, discoverer of the South Pole, has postponed until 1915 the expedition to the Arctic regions he had planned to make this summer. His vessel the Fram, has been detained on its journey from Rome and cannot reach San Francisco in time to be fitted out for the start that was to have been made in July.

RUB SORE, LAME BACK STOPS PAIN AT ONCE

Get a Small Trial Bottle of Old-time St. Jacobs Oil

NO BACKACHE OR LUMBAGO Instant Relief--No Waiting--It Penetrates Right in and Don't Blister

Kidneys cause Backache? No! They have no nerves, therefore can not cause pain. Listen! Your backache is caused by lumbago, sciatica or a strain, and the quickest relief is soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil." Rub it right on the ache or tender spot, and instantly the pain, soreness, stiffness and lameness disappears. Don't stay crippled! Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacobs' Oil" from your druggist and limber up. A moment after it is applied you'll wonder what became of the backache, sciatica or lumbago pain. "St. Jacobs' Oil" is harmless and doesn't burn the skin. It's the only application to rub on a weak, lame or painful back, or for lumbago, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, sprains or a strain.—Advertisement.

TO TEAR DOWN OLD SHED

The old shed standing on a vacant lot at Third and Rely streets, the main of the Redmond firm, which destroyed an entire block last July, will be torn down next week.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to bring back color, gloss, thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggy and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.—Advertisement.

Lumber for permanent improvements should have permanent quality. The longer it lasts the cheaper it is. Lumber that Does Not Warp Does Not Split Does Not Decay is the kind we sell and is the only kind to buy. We buy lumber that is properly sawed and properly dried—hence the lasting quality.
