RAILROAD NEWS

FREIGHT BUSINESS SHOWS BIG INCREASE

March Record Was Almost Equal to the High Water Mark Two Years Ago

Freight business on the Pennsylvania railroad for March showed an increase of 46,000 cars over that of February. The total movement for thirty-one days ending at midnight last night was 188,181.

While March had three more working days than February, the increase is very encouraging and indicates still better records in the future, officials said to-day.

There were a total of 188,181 cars passed Denholm, the recording station on the Middle division, during the month of March. This was 3,170 more than in the same month in 1913, but less by some thousands than in 1912. The loaded movement was also in excess of that of March, 1913. There were a total of 112,763 loaded cars hauled over the division, 90,052 being hauled east and 22,711 west. The loaded movement in 1913 was 109,858 cars.

STEELTON MIDDLETOWN CHIESPIRE ROYALTON OBERLIN ENHAUT

CHURCH HEAD AND PASTOR DISAPPEAR

Why Did Council President Go? Question Puzzling Church

Again the congregation of St. Nicholas Serbian Orthodox Church, in the lower end of Steelton, which received recently the two warring actions of the congregation and some of their troubles in the Dauphin county court, has been thrown into a great furor.

Less than a year ago with practically no warning, the Rev. Theophil Steranovich, under whose pastorate the church and parsonage was built, took a midnight train for New York, from where he never was heard of. A count of alleged differences he was going into exile in the historic monastery on Mt. Athos, in the Aegean Sea.

It was succeeded by the Rev. N. D. Yukevich. All went well for a time until a few weeks ago when the pastor asked the Dauphin county court to rule compelling the church council to perform all his pastoral duties. A date was set for a hearing on the rule, but when the day for the hearing came announcement was made of a compromise. Within the week the Rev. Yukevich departed, leaving no address.

He was succeeded by the Rev. Jugovic and apparently the dove of peace had spread her wings over the little church. Just what has caused the shepherd to desert the flock is a mystery, according to prominent members of the church, and the disappearance of the president of the church council adds to the mystery.

A member of the congregation said this morning that a meeting of the remaining members of the church council would be called to examine the accounts.

Trievun Tepsic, president of the church council, is the proprietor of a boarding house at 720 South Third street. Neighbors in that locality say they haven't seen him since Monday evening.

The list of soloists include some of the best known singers in Central Pennsylvania and insure the success of the cantata. Some of those who will have a prominent part are: Mrs. O. E. Good, soprano; Miss Esther Loos, alto; Robert Miller, tenor; and George Sutton, baritone. Upgrevode's orchestra, of Harrisburg, has been engaged to furnish the music for the chorus parts.

STATE TREASURY BALANCES DROP

State Income During March Was Considerably Less Than During February

The balances in the State Treasury shrunk over three-quarters of a million during March, according to a statement of the condition of the State's strong box at the end of the month of March, 1914. The total of the balance is given as $7,362,368.31 against $8,189,460.51 at the close of February business.

The receipts during the month aggregated $1,447,775.73 for the general fund, a decrease as compared with those in February, and $225 was received as interest from bonds in the permanent school fund. The expenditures during March aggregated $2,275,172.37.

The balances stand: General fund, $6,568,985.51; sinking fund, $491,631.24 and school fund, uninvested, $1,673.82.

Foetus' Big Showing—The receipts of the dairy and food division for the first three months of this year aggregate $187,113.96, or more than the total appropriation to operate the department for two years. The income for March was $7,393.60, of which $2,985.49 came from oleo licenses and $4,399 from egg fines. Almost every kind of fine is represented in the income for the month.

Complaints Made—The Clearfield Hotel Company, the Clearfield Brewing Co. and the Clearfield Textile Company have filed complaints with the Public Service Commission against the Clearfield Water Company, alleging an exorbitant increase of rates.

Albert B. Kearney, clerk of the borough council of Lilly, complains to the Commission of dangerous grade crossings on the line of the Pennsylvania railroad in that borough and desires the assignment of crossing watchmen. Residents of Newtown and Swatara petition the Commission for train service in the morning and evening on the Middle Creek branch of the Philadelphia & Reading. The Leontonia Railway Company wants the Commission to advise as to whether railroad companies operating in this State can legally be freed of charge, or moved from one point to another under orders of the company; and also if a railroad company can bill, free of charge, shipments of household goods of a man just employed, who is moving to his place of employment.

Big Auto Income—With money coming in at the rate of from $5,000 to $7,000 a day, the automobile division of the State Highway Department at the close of business on March 31 had turned over to the State Treasurer $704,363 for licenses and registrations of automobiles for 1914. Just 95,134 license and registration cards have been sent out by the department. The pneumatic tires, helmets for which license tags have been sent out number 55,598, while for solid tired vehicles 4,807 licenses have been issued. Two hundred and fifty-seven tractors have been licensed and sixty-five trailers. That the motorcycle is gaining in popularity is evident from the fact that 5,399 licenses have been issued for this type of vehicle this year. Two hundred and four hundred and thirty-nine dealers have

Author of April First Joke Sought by Police

Chicago, April 1.—A first of April joke perpetrated by some person known to the police to-day caused more than 500 unemployed men to congregate in a cold rain in front of the Soo line freight terminals and wait for the employment promised by the joker.

Before the men could be made to understand that there was no basis for the report that the railroad wanted hundreds of workers, the crowd surged against the steel gates, breaking the locks and poured into the yards shouting "give us the jobs."

It took the police nearly an hour to clear the men out of the yards. The author of the hoax is sought by the police. He spread the false rumor among the hundreds of men gathered along West Madison street in front of employment agencies.

Dozen to Enlist—A dozen recruits appeared at the office of the State police to-day to apply for the eight vacancies on the force. The examinations were in progress this afternoon.
