A Taste Of Health Is Sweet

And some folks use it toward money and fame. Are you eating right for health?

Grape-Nuts FOOD

is delicious with cream; easy to digest—in fact, partially pre-digested; and perfect in nourishment.

It contains all the nutrition of wheat and barley including the vital mineral salts (phosphate of potash, etc.) in just the right proportion as grown in the grains.

A regular ration of Grape-Nuts in place of rich, greasy, indigestible food generally shows a definite gain.

Doubt it? Have a try!

ROCKEFELLERS READY TO LOSE FORTUNE FOR INDUSTRIAL FREEDOM

John D., Jr., Says His Father Owns 40 Per Cent. of Stock in Troubled Colorado Mines

Washington, D. C., April 6.—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., told the House mines committee to-day that his father owns about 40 per cent of the stock of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, the central figure in the industrial strife which has swept the Colorado coal field. Mr. Rockefeller contended that responsibility for the conduct of corporations lay not only with the stockholders or directors but with the officers of the company. "In these days when business interests are so diversified and directors are members of so many boards, the best they can do is to appoint officers and hold them responsible," said he. "Don't you think the fact that the government has found it necessary to take action would warrant you in taking more than a passing interest in the situation?" asked Chairman Foster. "I have taken more than a passing interest," returned Mr. Rockefeller. "The vast sums of money involved and the great disorder in the field concerned me closely. But I have done all that I could have done. The officers of the company have been held responsible and if we are at any time convinced their policies are mistaken we will immediately remove them. I am one of my father's representatives in this as in other of his personal investments."

Industrial Freedom "We stand ready to lose every cent we have invested in that company rather than that the workmen of this country should lose their right to work for whom they please," said Mr. Rockefeller. "You'll do that even if you lose all your money, will you, your employees killed?" asked Mr. Foster. "It's a great principle. It's a national issue. And we propose to support the officers in their course, which is in support of the workmen themselves and their right to work for whom they please and how they please," returned the witness.

Wilson Says Daniels Is Just and Enlightened

By Associated Press
Washington, April 6.—President Wilson to-day enunciated the principle that is guiding him in the selection of public servants, expressing the view that he did not believe in choosing men who would decide questions in a certain way, but those whom he knew to be just and fair. The President remarked that, to him, it seemed justice was the hardest thing in the world to obtain and that it required more courage and conscience than any other one thing. Mr. Wilson was discussing his appointment of Professor Winthrop M. Commission. He referred to Mr. Daniels as a just and enlightened man.
JAMES TO SPEAK
