

The General says:
 "Some roofing jobbers and dealers refuse to handle Certain-teed Roofing because the profit is not big enough to satisfy them."

Certain-teed Roofing

Quality Cert-ified Durability Guaran-teeed

They have not realized that service to their customers builds the best business for themselves. The dealer who is doing the biggest roofing business in his community is the dealer who handles Certain-teed Roofing—because he recognizes service to his customers as the biggest part of his job—and more customers as his reward.

He knows, just as you know, that Certain-teed Roofing will give you the best, the longest and the guaranteed service. He is willing to take his modest profit on Certain-teed Roofing in preference to an inflated profit on any other brand, because he knows there are many more roofing buyers just like you who know and have faith in Certain-teed Roofing and in him.

When you buy roofing of such a dealer as this, you know it is the best roofing service you can buy for your buildings because it is Certain-teed —guaranteed for fifteen years—backed by the world's three biggest roofing mills, endorsed by your local dealer whom you know and who meets you face to face when he sells it to you.

There is a dealer of this calibre in your neighborhood. He will sell you Certain-teed.

Certain-teed Roofing is sold at a reasonable price everywhere by dealers who believe in giving unsurpassed quality at a fair profit.

The amount of Certain-teed Roofing required for an average roof, say ten squares, will cost less than $5 over the cheap, mail-order grade. This small initial cost is saved many times in the fifteen years' wear which is covered by the manufacturer's guarantee.

HOUSING CONFERENCE DELEGATES REGISTER
 To Discuss Ways of Relieving Congestion in Tenement Districts
 Conferences which are expected to lead to the organization of the Pennsylvania Housing and Town Planning Association opened in the Market Square Presbyterian church this afternoon. Registration of delegates began at 2:30 and the convention will open at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Probably a thousand will be in attendance at the convention. Among associations taking an active part are the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce, the Octavia Hill Association, the City Parks Association of Philadelphia, the French Benevolent Society and the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce. Mayor John K. Royal will this afternoon deliver the address of welcome. Gifford Pinchot, forester under Roosevelt, will be the principal speaker. Practical methods to enforce right housing will be discussed to-morrow, when Governor Tener's address will feature the morning session.

BOY RESCUED FROM DEATH ON TRESTLE
 Pulled From Track Just in Time to Escape Approaching Train
 Special to The Telegraph
 Waynesboro, Pa., April 6.—Herolph of Silas Fitz, a young man residing near Wetty's Mill, saved Herbert Leisinger from being run over and killed by a train of the Western Maryland Railway on Saturday afternoon. Young Leisinger and another lad were walking upon the trestle near that place and they did not see the rapidly approaching train until the attention was called to it by Mr. Fitz, who was some distance away.
 One of the boys ran across the trestle to safety, while Leisinger became so frightened that he stood still midway on the trestle. Mr. Fitz, realizing that in a few seconds the boy would be struck by the train, ran to the trestle to the lad and grasping him by the hand dragged him to the solid ground in safety just as the train whirled by. The boy was saved by a couple of seconds. Mr. Fitz is employed in the Landis Machine Shop here.

BIG CLASSES ARE TAKEN INTO CHURCHES

Season of Confirmation Started Yesterday; Hundreds to Be Admitted on Easter

Possibly 200 or more new members were formally enrolled as members of various city churches yesterday, and many more will enter this week. It is a season of confirmations, and clergy men are at their busiest, with sermons for the Holy Week and large classes for confirmation. At Stevens Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church yesterday seventy-two were admitted, while a number only slightly smaller will be admitted next Sunday. At Bethlehem Lutheran eleven members were yesterday confirmed, while at Messiah Lutheran a total of fifty-seven were admitted.

At Memorial Lutheran about forty-six were admitted, while at Zion ninety-five will join the church this week. At Trinity, Lemoine, fifteen members will probably be admitted this week.

All Easter church music should reach the Telegraph editorial rooms not later than 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Because of the great number of special concerts and recitals to be given throughout the city, it is necessary that no program be sent in after this hour.

The Rev. King Accepts.—While the Rev. Harry B. King, pastor of the Cary Presbyterian Church, was announcing his acceptance of a call to the Paxton Presbyterian Church, Pastor King, his letter of acceptance to the latter congregation was being read in Paxton. After formalities necessary to his transfer from the Cary district are gone through with, the Rev. Mr. King will assume his new duties about May first.

Choral Service.—A choral service will be celebrated to-night at Messiah Lutheran Church. W. A. Hartman, choir leader, will sing. The Rev. Hanson will preach on the Christian in Relation to the World.

Reception to New Members.—Perhaps the most important event of the year in the Market Square Presbyterian Church will be the annual reception to the members received during the last twelve months on Thursday evening. A fine program is being arranged and it is expected that the evening will be one of real pleasure to all who attend. Members of the congregation and those who attend the church have been invited. There will be music and refreshments.

At Stevens Memorial Church.—The story of "His Last Days" will be told in special addresses this week by Dr. Clayton Albert Smucker in the Stevens Memorial Church. To-night at 7.45 he will talk on "The Day of Authority"; Tuesday, "Missing Jesus on the Road of Life"; Wednesday, the choir will render Gounod's "Gallia"; Thursday, "New Views of Life"; Good Friday, "Jesus Between Pontius Pilate"; Easter Sunday, "The Resurrection"; by Manney will be sung by the choir at 10.30 a. m., reception of new members at 11 a. m., Sunday school carol service at 2 p. m., young folk Easter joy service at 6.30 p. m., Easter evening closing service at 7.30 p. m., Pilgrim Commandery, No. 11, Knights of Templar attending.

At Christ Lutheran.—Special services will prevail in Christ Lutheran Church during this week when Dr. Thomas Reich will discuss the following subjects each evening: Monday, "Attitude of the Christian"; Tuesday, "Attitude of Religious Authorities"; Wednesday, "Attitude of Civil Authorities"; Thursday, "Attitude of Judas"; Friday, "Attitude of Peter"; concluding with preparatory services.

At State St. U. B.—Passion week services will be held in State Street United Brethren Church, Eighteenth and State streets, each evening this week except Saturday, at 7.30 o'clock. Different ministers will speak as follows: Monday, the Rev. J. A. Lyter, D. D.; Tuesday, the Rev. S. E. Rupp; Wednesday, the Rev. H. B. Miller; Thursday, the Rev. P. H. Blauvelt; Friday, the Rev. Clyde A. Lynch. These meetings will be of an evangelistic nature.

Plan Reception to Harris.—In honor of his return for the fourteenth year of the pastorate of the Fifth Street Methodist Church, members are planning a reception of the Rev. B. F. Hart and Mrs. Hart, who yesterday returned to Harrisburg after a visit to New York city, where the Rev. Mr. Hart gleaned some valuable ideas after a tour of five of the big city churches.

HARRISBURG MAN NOT YET IDENTIFIED

 the robbery. She has not been arrested.
 "Wilson was taken into custody at the home of his wife's sister. He formerly worked in a garage here and married Iva Ormsby, of this city. Wilson refused to say anything about the charge against him. A lawyer has been assigned to defend him, but Wilson will not talk to him.
 "The Altoona robbery was marked by the shooting of the bank cashier and a customer. Two thousand eight hundred dollars in money was stolen."
 If He Isn't the Man!
 In the event of the Altoona bankers failing to identify Hohl as the bandit he will be turned over to the Harrisburg police and will be tried on a charge of robbery. He will then be turned over to the Eastern Penitentiary authorities to serve a sentence of three years for robbing cars near Lemoine.
 Frank G. Hohl started his career as a criminal when he was about 16 years old when he was a member of the "Tin Can Alley Gang," which had its headquarters in Current alley in 1905. This gang lead by Hohl, robbed a number of stores. Hohl was sent to the Huntingdon reformatory.
 During 1907 Hohl came back to Harrisburg and married Miss Bertha Holtzman. During the summer of 1909 Hohl was captured with three others, charged with robbing cars at Lemoine. The stolen goods was found at Island Park. Hohl and his companions each received a sentence of from one to four years.
 After serving one year Hohl was paroled. He came to Harrisburg and secured a position at the Ford garage. After several months he disappeared with a car belonging to Dr. W. C. Peters, State street. The car was found in Baltimore. The police have been searching for Hohl ever since.

No One Should Miss Seeing the Wonderful Ojibway Indian Village

Now on Exhibition on our Third Floor.
 It is an accurate miniature representation of the aboriginal life as it existed in the United States centuries ago. It combines the value of educational history with the value of human interest, and in this combination lies its great virtue. It is, therefore, without doubt, the most educational exhibition of its kind ever placed before the American public.

- Lectures by Neawanna.
- War Dance.
- Burning of Leather.
- Making of Moccasins.
- Making of Bows and Arrows.
- Making of Baskets All Day.
- One feature is Old Chief Showman, 94 years old. See it all for it is a wonderful scenic display that you will never forget. A pretty Indian girl will lecture and explain the various costumes.
- An invitation is extended to all School Children of Harrisburg and all the Boy Scouts to come and see this unique display while it is here. Children must be accompanied by an adult.
