ORDER CLEAN-UP OF WEST SIDE WARDS

Borough Officials Threaten Prosecution Unless Premises Are Put Into Better Shape

Throughout the upper West Side, especially in the "Bear Pit" and the upper part of the alley, execrable sanitary conditions were found. Ashes and all kinds of refuse were stacked in boxes and barrels and against fences in many yards. Dead cats, dogs and chickens were found lying in vacant lots at several places. A few houses were found to be not connected with the sanitary sewers.

Several of the residents complained that the garbage collectors weren't quite as efficient as they might be and so extra teams were pressed into service this morning.

Burgess Wigfield has called attention to the rule that each resident must furnish some kind of receptacle in which to place ashes. A separate receptacle must be provided for table refuse. Regular trips will be made over the entire town by garbage collectors and everyone is expected to clean up. Just as soon as the worst parts of the West Side and South Third street are looked after the burgess will issue a proclamation for a "clean-up" day. This will be some time next month.

Savage Bear Makes an Attack on Keeper

Special to The Telegraph.
 Philadelphia, Pa., April 6.—A savage European brown bear charged Thomas Preater, a keeper who had just fed him yesterday morning in the Zoological Gardens, in Fairmount park. The animal bit his fingers in the right thigh and tore his right arm with his claws. Preater, who lives at 110 West Sharpknock street, Germantown, was removed to the Presbyterian Hospital, where there will be thirty stitches were taken to close his wounds. The physicians say he will live.

The mauling of the keeper occurred in the northernmost bear pit at exactly 10 o'clock. Only one person, another keeper, Julius Dages, saw the struggle between the man and the bear. Dages was instructing Preater, who had been employed at the Gardens only five days, in his work in the pit, and was outside the heavy iron gate when the bear struck.

Dages saved Preater's life for, while Preater was twisting and turning with the bear's fangs in his thigh and beating the animal over the head with a tin bucket, Dages grasped his shovel, squirmed through gate and pummeled the bear until his hold was broken.

AFTER GRIPPE

Made Strong by Vinol.

John C. Furman, of Clarion, Pa., says: "After a very severe attack of the gripple my system was in a weakened, nervous and run-down condition. I had no appetite at all. I was obliged to continue with my work, and nothing seemed to help me until a friend induced me to take Vinol. I began to note good results from the first bottle. I continued its use and am now sound and well as ever."

In health one cannot realize how depressed a person may become after trying one remedy after another without benefit for such a condition as Mr. Furman was in, or what a relief it is to find help and be restored to health and strength.

It is the combined action of the medicinal curative elements of cod's livers without the greasy oil, aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron, that makes Vinol so efficient in building up the weakened run-down system.

We guarantee Vinol to give you perfect satisfaction. George A. Gorskas, Druggist, Harrisburg, Pa. Vinol is sold in Steelton by T. Frowell.

P. S.—For rough, scaly skin, try our Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.—Advertisement.

What Have Police-Women Done?

"Through miles of city blocks now you will not find the front parlor with the sofa that used to be in it, and the gas turned low, and Father or Mother calling at the head of the hall stairs when it is ten o'clock, and, oh, all the rest that you remember. Poets have been able to sing about love in a cottage. But there isn't any poetry about courtship in a tenement flat with little brother and sister and all the family looking on. The young people who were the first to make this important sociological discovery, adjourned from the overcrowded home to the street corner for their love-making. And the public dance halls opened up to take them in."

"It is largely a development of the past fifteen years that has appeared in every American city. Philadelphia has 200 dance halls. Chicago has 250. New York has over 500. For the girl who works away from home all day, and dances away from home at night, there is special need that the city be made a safe place for her to be in. Yet statistics show that each year in the United States 120,000 girls "fall" over the social precipice that slopes to the deepest destruction. And many of them have been tripped and trapped through the snares and pitfalls allowed to be set in great cities for young and thoughtless feet."

This extract from Mabel Potter Daggett's remarkable story of What the Women's Clubs Have Done To Protect Children and Young Girls is merely one of the many good things to read in

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't stay gray! Here's a simple recipe that anybody can apply with a hair brush

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Furber's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant.—Advertisement.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder troubles you

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid, which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys. The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Advertisement.

EARLY ARGUMENT IN AUTO INCOME CASE

Auditor General Will File Answer This Week and Court Will Hear This Month

Steps are being taken to-day to secure argument within a fortnight on the mandamus proceeding to determine whether or not income from State motor vehicle licenses must be paid to the State Highway Department for maintenance of highways without further legislative action. Auditor General Powell will to-day ask for an extension of a few days for filing his answer and Wednesday a conference of attorneys will be held with a view of fixing a date.

Ex-Auditor General M. Hampton Todd, who drafted the specific appropriation act of 1909, which it is claimed prevents payment without action by the legislature, will represent the auditor general and Attorney General Bell will represent the highway commissioner.

Over $700,000 paid in since the first of the year is said to be involved.

Trustees.—Trustees for administration of mothers' pensions have been named for Potter county as follows: Mrs. W. Schwarzenbach, Galeton; Mr. Flora B. Crittenden, Oswego; Mrs. Lucy Smith, Roulette; Mrs. J. M. Butler, Coudersport, and Mrs. E. R. Guster, Harrison Valley.

PEOPLE IN HARRISBURG ARE AMAZED

No medicine has ever caused such amazement in Harrisburg as the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-I-ka. This remedy drains such surprising amounts of foul matter from the body that it is known as the most thorough bowel cleanser sold. Adler-I-ka acts on BOTH the upper and lower bowels and JUST ONE DOSE relieves constipation and gas on the stomach almost IMMEDIATELY. G. A. Gorskas, Druggist.—Advertisement.

State Economy and Efficiency Commission will begin its work to-morrow when offices will be placed at its disposal in the east wing of the Capitol.

The plan is to make a general survey of all departments and then to summon heads and clerks to ascertain the division of duties and to hear suggestions for changes.

New Magistrate.—Charles E. Judd was to-day named as alderman of the Fourth Ward of Bradford city.

Increase Filed.—The Public Service Company, recently incorporated by the Silverman interests for furnishing drinking cups, etc., to-day filed notice of increase of stock from $5,000 to $50,000.

Sealers Here.—Chief James Sweeney, of the State Bureau of Standards, was visited to-day by a delegation of sealers from the northern counties. They came for advice.

Lykens Hearing.—The hearing on the Lykens grade crossing case is scheduled for noon to-morrow at the Public Service Commission offices.

Meet To-morrow.—Commissioner Jackson expects to meet the committee in charge of drafting rules for the moving picture theaters to-morrow. Their report will be sent to the State Industrial Board on Wednesday.

Bids To-morrow.—Bids for the furnishing of indeterminate quantities of asphalt for the State will be opened at the Highway Department to-morrow. The State will buy in bulk.

Best Sale yet.—The sale of buildings in Capitol Park extension was the best, $1,942.50 being realized. Fifty-two buildings were sold in three hours by Auctioneer John T. Ensminger. Charles Gilmer bought nine properties including six in the row beginning at 602 State street. Fred C. Miller also did considerable buying.

Leddon Upheld.—A decision which will settle a number of questions regarding the holding of State positions has just been given to the Auditor General by Morris Wolf, third deputy attorney general, in which it is held that Thomas E. Leddon, who happens to be a commissioner of Elk county, can also serve as a deputy State fire marshal. The opinion notes that State officers carrying a salary may not be filled by federal officeholders and that the constitution provides that the legislature may determine what officers are incompatible. The only reference to county commissioners is that they may not serve as commissioners and as school directors or as members of a board of health at the same time.

INCREASE IN ATTENDANCE

By Associated Press.
 Washington, April 6.—Church attendance here Sunday was the largest in the history of the city, according to estimates announced to-day. The increased attendance was the result of a vigorous "go-to-church" campaign launched several weeks ago. The average increased attendance was more than sixty-one per cent. The general theme of the sermons was a plea for more earnest faith and practical religious enthusiasm.
