The woman whose hair turns a pure silvery white is to be congratulated, for there is no prettier, more becoming hair in the world.

White Hair Demands Care. Gray hair demands care and thought. While nothing is lovelier than well groomed, carefully arranged white hair, unkempt, oily, neglected or too severely plain gray locks are the reverse of attractive.

Sunday a Suicide Cure Says Provost Smith

Philadelphia, April 7.—The hope that a religious revival would tend to prevent suicides by students is said by Provost Edgar F. Smith to have been among his reasons for inviting Billy Sunday to hold meetings at the University of Pennsylvania.

Since the number of suicides in the university began to be a subject of public comment Provost Smith has felt that a religious awakening would be the best deterrent. He believed that Sunday was sincere and that his method of mixing religion with athletics in the language of his discourses might excite the students' attention.

Newspaper Will Throw Out All Liquor "Ads"

Chicago, April 7.—After carrying out existing contracts, the Chicago Record-Herald will print no more liquor "ads." In making the announcement, the newspaper says:

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh.
