

TH' feller that hollers loudest about th' duty o' citizenship is usually first to dodge payin' his income tax. Some folks hez a good deal 't say about "give an' take" an' "live and let live," but I notice they're kinda slow about returnin' any of the VELVET they borrow.

VELVET, the Smoothest Smoking Tobacco. Full weight 2 oz. tins, 10c.

DEATH SITS IN AT JURY WHEEL DRAWING

Present Member of Prison Board Among Those Who Will Serve

Among the sixty traverse jurors drawn to-day by the Jury Commissioners and Sheriff Wells to serve at the special Spring term of Common Pleas Court during the week of May 11, was Henry Cordes, Lenkerstown, formerly secretary of the board of Dauphin county prison inspectors. The slip with the name of the dead inspector was laid aside for all time. Then a dozen or more names were drawn—and then that of John H. Harger, ex-County Registrar of Wills, and at present a member of the Prison Board. At March sessions of criminal court, John H. McIlhenny, a fellow member of the Prison Board, served on the grand jury.

VISIT THE Hiawatha Indian Village To-morrow Bring the Children to See the Little Papoose, the Wigwam, Native Indians in Buckskin and Bead Attire

Special Feature Thursday at 3.30 P. M. Old Black Eagle, 94 years old, Will Officiate at a Christening

Showing the strange custom of the Indian in making a white man a "blood brother."

This rite was performed by the Indian drawing knife from its sheath with one hand, the knife of the white man with the other, then handing his knife to the white man, each using the knife of the other, pricked a vein in their wrists. Letting fall a few drops of blood in a conch horn filled with water, each of them put the horn in his mouth and let his lips touch the water. The water was then sprinkled about the entrance of the Indian's tepee. The performance of this rite made the white man a "blood brother" of the Indian and the bond could be severed only by death.

Exhibition, 9.30 A. M. to 1 P. M. War Dance, 10.30 A. M. 2 P. M. to 5.30 P. M. Indian Baptism, 3.30 P. M. LECTURES ALL DAY BOWMAN'S—Third Floor.

PUSH THE BUTTON

When you make a call and want to advise your host of your arrival you—push the button. If yours is office work and you want to dictate a letter or consult with an employe you—push the button. If you live in an apartment affording an elevator and you wish to start it you—push the button. When a great industrial show is all in readiness you—or some other notable—throw the thousands of lamps into a dazzling glow and the machinery into motion by—pushing the button. Securing help, or positions, selling used clothing or furniture, renting houses or buying or selling real estate is merely a matter of—pushing the button. MAMMA, DADDY AND CHILDREN ALL LOVE "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS"

Harmless "fruit laxative" Cleanses stomach, liver and bowels. A delicious cure for constipation, biliousness, sick headache, sour stomach, indigestion, coated tongue, salivousness—take "California Syrup of Figs." For the cause of all this distress lies in a torpid liver and sluggish bowels. A tablespoonful at night means all constipation, poison, waste matter, fermenting food and sour bile gently moved out of your system by morning without griping. Please don't think of "California Syrup of Figs" as a physic. Don't think you are drugging yourself or your children, because this delicious fruit laxative can not cause injury. Even a delicate child can take it as safely as a robust man. It is the most harmless, effective stomach, liver and bowel regulator and never ever evaded. Your only difficulty may be in getting the genuine; so ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs." Say to your druggist, "I want only that made by the California Fig Syrup Company." This city has many counterfeit "fig syrups," so watch out.

HOUSING DELEGATES BACK STATE CODE

The Pittsburgh department of health, were presented. The Pennsylvania Housing and Town Planning Association is the name officially adopted late yesterday afternoon when delegates to the convention which has been sitting in the lecture room of the Market Square Presbyterian Church effected formal organization. Officers included in the board of thirty directors are two Harrisburg men, Dr. J. M. J. Raunick and J. Horace McFarland. William Jennings was elected as treasurer. Following are the officers: President, Samuel S. Fels, Philadelphia; vice-presidents, C. P. Hill, Pittsburgh and D. W. Harper, Erie; secretary, Sharrard Ewing, Reading; treasurer, William Jennings, Harrisburg; directors, Dr. Alexander M. Wilson, Miss Hannah Fox, Louis Gersley, George W. Norris, Mrs. L. C. Maderia, Bernard S. Neugebauer, Philadelphia; Dr. Carol Aronovitch, Moylan; Francis Christie, Meadville; Ward Bonsall, G. H. Schwan, Mrs. Franklin P. Iams, G. I. Snyder, Pittsburgh; Miss Gertrude Lovell, Scranton; W. C. Howard, Johnstown; Mrs. Griffith, Easton; W. D. Brandon, Butler; L. Singmaster, Palmerton; John Gill, Frankfort; G. I. Blake, Erie; A. B. Sharpe, Chambersburg; J. Horace McFarland and Dr. J. M. J. Raunick, Harrisburg.

While no provisions have as yet been made for opening permanent headquarters, Sharrard Ewing, secretary of the Reading Chamber of Commerce, will act also as secretary of the organization. At the afternoon session late yesterday, following an informal discussion of waste disposal for small towns at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon, Director George Norris, of the Department of Wharves and Docks, Philadelphia, presided, and the topic discussed was a city planning progress. Dr. Carol Aronovitch, of the Philadelphia Suburban Planning Association, declared that the shifting of population to the great centers created grave problems in regard to housing, and that lowering of housing standards constituted a danger to civic advancement and a waste of the most valuable source of resources we possess—our human resources. Benjamin H. Ludlow, Philadelphia, and Frederick T. Bigger, of the Pittsburgh Art Commission, spoke yesterday afternoon, while last night Sharrard Ewing, Reading, was the principal speaker. The great need in our cities to-day, he said, is for houses that rent from $9 to $14 a month. John J. Maloney, of the State Department of Health, said that the need for housing reforms is more imperative in America than in China. John Meelitor, chief of the Philadelphia bureau of housing, exhibited colored slides showing the advancement made by European countries in community planning and housing. Those in attendance at the meetings to-day were: H. C. Sheppard, Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce; Dr. John M. J. Raunick, Harrisburg; Robert M. Wadsworth, Harrisburg; Charles H.
