There's a Reason For Baldness— But No Excuse For It

How to Prevent Grayness: What To Do If Already Bald

Neglect of the hair and scalp is the primary reason for baldness in nearly all cases. But any excuse for the neglect is necessarily a poor excuse. A little systematic attention and the use of a really good hair tonic will destroy and prevent the return of dandruff. That, in turn, prevents premature grayness and baldness. Many hair tonics on the market are worthless if not harmful. The SAFE way is to mix your own hair tonic at home, or have a reliable druggist mix it for you, according to this formula: Dissolve 1/2 drachm Menthol Crystals in 6 oz. Bay Rum; then add 2 oz. Lavona de Composee. Mix thoroughly. Rub into the scalp with fingers or stiff brush night and morning. This is the best-known formula for dandruff, to stop falling hair, to cleanse and beautify the hair, and to stimulate the growth of new hair. One of the ingredients not only stimulates the hair-growing follicles, but tends to revive the activity of the pigment-forming cells, so as to make prematurely gray hair turn to its natural color. The ingredients of this hair tonic can be purchased at any drug store. Try this tonic night and morning for 30 days, even if totally bald; it has accomplished wonders for others.—Advertisement.

TO GIVE EASTER BASKETS The American Rescue Workers, whose headquarters are in Verbeke street market hall, announce this morning that they will distribute free Easter baskets to the poor and destitute children. The baskets will be given out an Easter Sunday morning between 9 and 11 o'clock and will be in charge of Adjutant and Mrs. P. Smith.

REWARD FOR SUICIDE'S BODY A reward for the recovery of the body of Harry F. Helsey, 1750 North Fourth street, who, it is thought, drowned himself jumping off the Market street bridge April 1, has been offered by relatives, who believe that the body may have been swept far down the stream.

To Cure Corns, Callouses Bunions and Aching Feet

The following is absolutely the surest and quickest cure known to science for all foot ailments: "Dissolve two tablespoonfuls of Calocide compound in a basin of warm water. Soak the feet in this for fully fifteen minutes, gently rubbing the sore parts. The effect is really wonderful. All soreness goes instantly and the feet feel delightful. Corns and callouses can be peeled off. It gives immediate relief for sore bunions, sweaty, smelly and aching feet. Twenty-five cent box of Calocide is said to be sufficient to cure the worst feet. It works through the pores and removes the cause of the trouble. Don't waste time on uncertain remedies. Any druggist has Calocide compound in stock or he can get it in a few hours from his wholesale house. Prepared only by Medical Formulas Co., Chicago, Ill., and Dayton, Ohio.

A. M. E. CONFERENCE

AT YORK ON MAY 20

Harrisburg Clergymen Will Be in Attendance at 87th Annual Session

About 150 clergymen and laymen are expected to attend the sessions of the eighty-seventh annual meeting of the Philadelphia and Baltimore Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, to be held in York, beginning Wednesday, May 20, and continuing five days.

The conference will be attended by many of the most prominent figures in the church. Assisting Bishop Walters will be five associate bishops, among them the Revs. G. W. Clinton, Charlotte, N. C.; J. S. Caldwell, Philadelphia, and G. L. Blackwell, Philadelphia. The Rev. J. H. Anderson, presiding elder of Harrisburg, will be in attendance.

J. C. Dancy, a prominent negro lawyer of Washington, secretary of the church extension board, will deliver several addresses. The Rev. J. S. Jackson, of Birmingham, Ala., financial secretary of the church extension board, and G. O. Clement, of Charlotte, N. C., editor of the church paper, Star of Zion, will take part in the sessions.

The auditorium where the meetings will be held has not yet been selected. Several meetings will be held in the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, but a larger edifice must be secured for the main sessions.

Celebrating a Victory.—The reception to be accorded the Rev. B. H. Hart and his family this evening in the Fifth Street Methodist church will be more in the nature of a celebration than the ordinary reception. Mr. Hart has just begun the fourteenth year of his pastorate in this church and because of his long stay in the city it was thought probably by those acquainted with the customs of the church that Bishop Cranston who presided at the conference recently held in this city would move him elsewhere. This was the salient program but so vigorously did the congregation protest through its committee that he was returned for another year. There will be a warmth and satisfaction in the reception to-night that will be especially noticeable. Dr. A. S. Fensick, district superintendent, will be present. All the members uniting with the church during the past year will be accorded a seat of honor. There will be vocal and instrumental music with addresses and readings. It was announced on Sunday that Mr. Hart himself would sing a solo but when interviewed respecting that matter was non-committal. The work of preparation has been in the hands of a committee composed of representatives from the various societies of the church. Festive hall has been beautifully decorated and arrangements have been made to serve refreshments to seven hundred people.

Reception to New Members.—Next Monday evening from 8 to 10 o'clock a reception will be given to the members received during the past twelve months in Grace Methodist Episcopal church. A program has been arranged and the members and friends of the church are expected. There will be music and refreshments.

NOLT-SMITH WEDDING

Special to The Telegraph Columbia, Pa., April 8.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith at Cordelia, was the scene of a pretty wedding, when their daughter, Miss Jenny M. Smith, was united in marriage with Harrison N. Nolt, a prominent young farmer. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George W. Genszler, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church.

AMUSEMENTS

MAJESTIC

Vaudeville and Pictures—Every afternoon and evening.

"AMBITION"

In the presentation of "Ambition" at the Majestic theater, Wednesday afternoon and evening of next week, Mr. Ashley Miller, a rising young playwright, looks for the greatest achievement of his career. This comedy drama is entirely new, and will not be produced until next week, but competent critics who have reviewed the manuscript and witnessed the rehearsals in New York, predict that the young author has a winner that will approach the success of Mr. Warfield's "Music Master." While it does not follow the same lines as Warfield's play, "Ambition" deals with the genius and ambitions of a musician with rare talents. Sufficient comedy to keep the play from becoming somber is introduced by way of a chorus girl, who sets her cap for the musician, but who is frustrated in her plans by a young Italian girl, whose purity of purpose leads the struggling musician to the greatness of which he has dreamed.—Advertisement.

HEAVENLY BILL

After one is all through singing the praises of the Orpheum bill, this week, with its moon and stars, so appropriately called a "heavenly" bill, one naturally turns to Hyams and McIntyre, the musical comedy stars, who undoubtedly outshine them all. Presenting "The Quakers" with new songs and new dancing conceits, these two artists are seen in a vehicle that fits their talents as well as anything they have yet appeared in. Miss McIntyre is dainty, charming and clever, and her partner is certainly a clever comedian. "The Quakers" gives them both excellent opportunities for their particular style. A comedy hit of this offering is the sketch that McConnell and Simpson present called "The Right Girl," while the surprise treat of the season is "The Girl in the Moon," a scenic novelty in which a girl sits in a moon and actually floats over the theater. She glides hither and thither, singing moon songs as she sails, and scattering flowers about the audience. A youthful and clever song and dance team, a real novelty in the way of an educated dog act, and several other features of variety round out a really deserving offering at the Orpheum.—Advertisement.

COLONIAL BILL

A study of character impersonations will be an unusual treat for the Colonial for the last half of the week. The characters will be limited to great men, past and present, all of them so faithfully reproduced that an audience never fails to recognize them immediately. The characters will be offered in artistic fashion by Gravetta and LeVondre, a team of well-known Keith performers. Phillips and Lee, a sifty song and dance duo, and Harry Sterling, an eccentric juggler, round out the vaudeville offering that goes on view for the first time to-day.—Advertisement.

Her Father's Honor! Her Lover's Peril!

The Great Underlying Motives Resulting in the Remarkable and Soul Thrilling Adventures of

"LUCILLE LOVE, THE GIRL OF MYSTERY"

By "THE MASTER PEN"

It is a tense, nerve-gripping, awe-inspiring, romance of love, intrigue and devotion. There is a thrill in every line, but is so clean and wholesome that the youngest member of every family can read it. To make this wonderful production still more captivating and interesting to the reader, it has been dramatized by and will be exhibited at all leading motion picture theaters in this city and vicinity supplied with their service. Remember, you can read the great story of "Lucille Love, The Girl of Mystery," in this paper, and see each dramatic situation reproduced on the screen at your favorite moving picture theater.

Watch for other announcements of "Lucille Love, The Girl of Mystery." It will be the story sensation of the year.
