MUST GET TO CHORAL CONCERT ON TIME

Management Will Not Permit Late-comers to Take Seats Until First Intermission

The box office at the Majestic Theater was open to-day for honorary members to reserve their seats for the Easter Festival of the Harrisburg Choral Society on next Tuesday. Each honorary member is entitled to two reserved seats for the afternoon concert and two reserved seats for the evening concert.

The afternoon concert will begin at 3 o'clock promptly. This hour is fixed so as to enable the teachers and pupils of the public schools to attend this concert. The concert will be over by 4.45 o'clock, so that folk may attend various social functions which are being given in the late afternoon.

The evening concert will begin promptly at 8.15 o'clock. Patrons are notified that the concerts will begin promptly at the hours named and those who come late will have to wait in the rear of the theater until the first intermission. The pleasure and enjoyment of those who come in time cannot be interfered with by late arrivals, say the choral officers. Patrons are therefore urged to be in their seats promptly at 3 o'clock for the afternoon concert and at 8.15 for the evening concert.

At the afternoon concert the famous Russian Symphony Orchestra, of which the New York press speaks most highly, will give the following program:

Program
Overture, "Mignon" . . . . . Thomas
Largo, "New World" Symphony. . . . . Drorak
a. Andante Cantabile . . . . . Chopin
b. Pas Pied . . . . . Gillet
Cello solos, Bernard Aitschuler
Second Hungarian Rhapsody . . . . . Liszt
a. Praludium . . . . . Jaernfelt

b. Ballet Music from "Life for the Album Leaf . . . . . Wagner Czar" . . . . . Glinka
c. Dance of the Fairy Dolls from the "Nutcracker's Suite." . . . . Tschaiakowsky mary," said Representative Mann.

Mann referred also to the statement made by Senator Burton, of Ohio, in his announcement that he would not be a candidate for re-nomination; that he (Burton) feared that in supporting the administration he was taking the unpopular side of the tolls question.

"He is right!" shouted Mr. Mann.

The Republican leader charged that the managers of the Carnegie Foundation had expended money to drive men into line for the repeal of the free tolls provision.

"But they are not going to deliver the country on this proposition," Mr. Mann remarked. "The people are wide awake on this issue. When the people finally pass judgment on it they will repudiate the administration."

Mr. Mann expressed the opinion that "if the Republican candidate in the Boston district had had the nerve to come out on the tolls question—the American side—he would have got a great many more votes than he did."

Continuing, Mr. Mann said: "The Democratic candidate stood on the platform of his party with Champ Clark and against the majority and he won hands down."

JOINT SOCIETY SESSION

Special to The Telegraph

Annville, Pa., April 10.—Last evening the Kappa Sigma and Chi Omega Literary Societies of Lebanon Valley College held a joint session in the former's rooms, a literary program being rendered the first part of the evening with refreshments served later. The program was as follows:
Pianoforte, Clarence Barnett; paper, Miss Martha Snyder; discussion, "Is the Campus Course as Valuable as the Time it Consumes," pro, Miss Ziegler; con, Ira S. Ernst; "My Trip to the Thousands Islands," Frank Va Schaeck; vocal duet, Miss Ruth Stricker and Harry Bender; sketch, Miss Bachman; Miss Gruber, Miss Mathias and Messrs. D. Long, C. Loomis and J. Lyter.

DEMOCRATIC "BUST"

[Scranton Truth]
"Is there a Democratic breach?" asks the Pittsburgh Gazette. Times looks to us more like a "bust," so far as Pennsylvania is concerned.
