Militant Suffragette Succeeds in Having Hearing Postponed

By Associated Press
London April 11.—May Stewart, the militant suffragette, who, with a clever, tried to demolish a case of valuable porcelains in the British Museum on April 9, created such a disturbance when charged to-day that the police magistrate was compelled to adjourn the trial. When the public prosecutor opened the case against her Miss Stewart shouted, "I have not come here to listen to you to-day."
The magistrate remonstrated with the prisoner, but she declared she would not desist so long as Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst was being "tortured under the cat and mouse act—the devilish work of Reginald McKenna, the home secretary."
Then Miss Stewart threw a ball of paper at the magistrate, whereupon he and the public prosecutor gave up in despair and ordered the hearing postponed.
"May Stewart" was later in the day identified as "Catherine Wilson," who was arrested on March 16, 1913, in the lobby of the House of Commons, dressed in men's clothing and carrying a concealed dog whip. She was sentenced at that time to six weeks' hard labor as a suspected person.

German Kiss Captured by the Law and Tagged

Special to The Telegraph
Leipzig, April 11.—What is a kiss? When is it offensive and when inoffensive? Here are the answers as laid down by the Supreme Court of the German Empire:
"A kiss is a reaction upon the body of another."
"A kiss always requires the permission of the person kissed."
"Without such permission one may kiss only if one is sure of the other's tacit consent, as in the cases of parents, children and lovers."
"If the kisser is not only coy but gravely objects, it is to be assumed that the kiss is considered an illegal interference with his or her personal freedom and a violation of his or her honor."
"Any one who inflicts a kiss in such circumstances is guilty of assault and battery."

New Yorkers Buy at Least 75 Tons of Sand in Chickens Each Week

By Associated Press
New York, April 11.—The Humane Society has appealed to the Department of Agriculture to put a stop to "sanding" and "overcropping" of live poultry. The Poultry Dealers Protective Association says that chickens are starved for a day or more before the consignment arrived in Jersey City and then fed on a paste composed of grain, pebbles and finely crushed stone. It is said that from 150,000 to 300,000 pounds of sand is thus sold to consumers here each week at a fancy price.

New York, April 11.—Sleeping passengers on the steamship Vauban appeared to be aroused off Sandy Hook by an explosion in the stowage. Fire followed the explosion, but was quickly extinguished. Investigation showed that a Syrian, rifling the baggage of a fellow immigrant, had opened a box of cartridges and in so doing set them off. He was badly burned.

Bandits, Who Attempted to Rob Passengers Are Routed; One Man Shot

By Associated Press
New Orleans, La., April 11.—A daylight hold-up of passengers on Illinois Central train No. 34 was attempted to-day near Tangipahoa, La. Two robbers after shooting and wounding a negro porter named Allen, escaped without obtaining any loot.
The two robbers boarded the train at Tangipahoa. Soon after it left the station they entered a day coach and commanded the passengers to hold up their hands. One bandit flourished a pistol and the other began to relieve the passengers of valuables. Allen attacked the man holding the gun and was shot through the body. It is reported he was dangerously wounded.
As the negro fell one of the robbers pulled the bell cord and when the train slackened speed they jumped and fled through the underbrush.

DANDRUFF SURELY DESTROYS THE HAIR

Makes It Dull, Brittle, Lifeless, and Causes It To Fall Out.

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will ruin your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will be silky, fluffy, lustrous, soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get Liquid Arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—Advertisement.

Dorothy Arnold May Have Met Her Death
in "House of Mystery"

Special to The Telegraph
Pittsburgh, April 11.—District Attorney R. H. Jackson's case against Dr. C. C. Meredith, who, charged with illegal medical practice and larceny, was arrested Thursday with Dr. H. E. Lutz and Miss Lucy D. Orr, alias Danana, alias Bennett, in connection with the county detectives' raid on the "House of Mystery," in Bellevue, was strengthened yesterday by the positive identification of the fur coat and small satchel found in Miss Orr's room as the property of Mrs. Myrtle Allison, of Wilkesburg, who disappeared a year ago. Bail aggregating $22,000 was furnished to obtain the release of the trio.
The identification of the two articles is considered by the district attorney most damaging evidence against the proprietor of the alleged private maternity hospital. Four persons, Mr. Jackson said, swore they belonged to Mrs. Allison, who is believed to have died in the house. These included the salesman who sold the coat to her and the nurse who attended her in Dr. Lutz's office prior to her removal to Bellevue.
As to the theory that it was the same establishment to which Miss Dorothy Arnold, the New York heiress, went, never to return, soon after she disappeared from her sumptuous Forty-ninth street home in 1910, District Attorney Jackson regards that still as a strong probability. No word reached him yesterday from the parents of the girl, nor did he communicate with them.
