WELLS FARGO EXPRESS TROUT PLACED IN MILLFORD STREAMS Eighteen Cans Small Fish Bought From Ellefonte Hatchery to Stock Waters Special to The Telegraph Lewistown, Pa., April 13.—Eighteen large cans of trout were received a few days ago by well-known Millford county anglers, and were at once placed in the waters of Tea and Honey creeks. The consignment was from the State fish hatchery at Bellefonte and the fry run from 5 to 7 inches in length. Trout fry are planted in the streams of the vicinity of Reedsville, and in the Seven Mountain streams east of Spring to replace the large number of fish caught by fishermen. A monster trout, measuring 23 1/2 inches, was caught in Honey creek, by James Moyser, of Yorktown, last season. There was a fight of forty minutes' duration before he was able to land the trout and it is known that there are many more trout of like size in the stream.

Dropy comes so fast in Bright's Disease that the patient has to be diagnosed that the case is hopeless so far as the old treatment is concerned. We never heard of a case recovering that required tapping until Fulton's Renal Compound was evolved. Under the Renal Compound recoveries are frequently reported even in such supposed hopeless state. We cite two cases: F. H. Chandler of Clay, New York, presented a serious case. As high as forty drops of urine were reported tapping. He was put on Fulton's Renal Compound and a year thereafter had resumed employment. Another Patient six years old, the son of A. C. Dean, of Oakland, Cal., was tapped eight times; even had to be tapped again during an influenza attack. Fulton's Compound, however, gave further relief and he was able to return to school at last, and was going to school at last, as usual.

Heroic Fireman Is Buried Today (Continued from First Page) Hearse by these pallbearers: William Stewart, Frank Sterring, George Shoemaker, William McCord, J. C. Kohler and O. D. Ebert. The cortege was led by A. H. Kreider, president of the Hope Company. Following him came John C. Kinder, Fire Chief, his wife and daughter, Albert and M. Harvey Taylor, Commissioner. Following the Hope Company, which acted as guard of honor to the hearse, came the other companies in the order of the numbers: the Mt. Vernon, No. 1; Friendship, Citizen, Washington, Paxton, Good Will, No. Pleasant, Susquehanna, Kelly, Shamrock, Allison, Camp Curran and Royal. The procession went down Third to Market, and thence to Fourth, whence, crossing the Mulberry street bridge, they proceeded to Thirtieth and to State street. At this point six hearse cars were waiting to convey the casket to the East Harrisburg Cemetery. Here, after a brief service, the body was lowered into the grave.

Mother May Have Helped Him Escape He made one clean drop of more than fifteen feet. Hohl evidently had planned his escape well, according to dispatches from Altoona to-day. That he had the assistance of some one on the outside is also the general belief. Being charged with the reputation as a desperate character and a man who will resort to anything to get away, a close watch has been kept on Hohl. Greased Window With Butter When Hohl was given his meals he was watched closely and everything in the way of dishes, knives and forks and spoons were removed from his cell at the finish of the meal. The only thing Hohl had in his cell was a set of towels. On Saturday he asked for an extra supply of butter and bread and gave the runner in the jail a quarter to pay for the extra rations. An examination of the window through which Hohl crawled brought the discovery that the window frame sill had been greased with butter and soap, allowing him to slip through more easily and hurriedly to the street. It is also believed that Hohl undressed and greased his body with butter. Once outside and his hands free, it is believed Hohl pulled himself to the roof by grasping the water spout, crawled to the front of the jail along the roof, and with the aid of a rope made from his mattress covering dropped to the street and made his escape.

Opinion Prevails That New Company Will Take Over United Business Early in May No official announcement has been made by local officials of the United States Express Company, which will go out of business April 30, regarding future arrangements, but definite instructions are expected the latter part of the week. At the offices of the Harrisburg division of the Reading, and with Manager H. P. Long, local agent for the United States Express Company, the opinion prevails that the Wells-Fargo Company will take over the United States Express Company's business. The Reading Railway Company is the only railroad that has not been officially notified of the closing up of the United States Express Company's business. This is taken as an indication that some other company will take over the business. In the East the United States Express Company uses the Reading and other lines throughout New York State and New Jersey, and the business has been quite profitable. Eliminating the United States Express Company from the Reading system would mean the loss of considerable business from country districts.

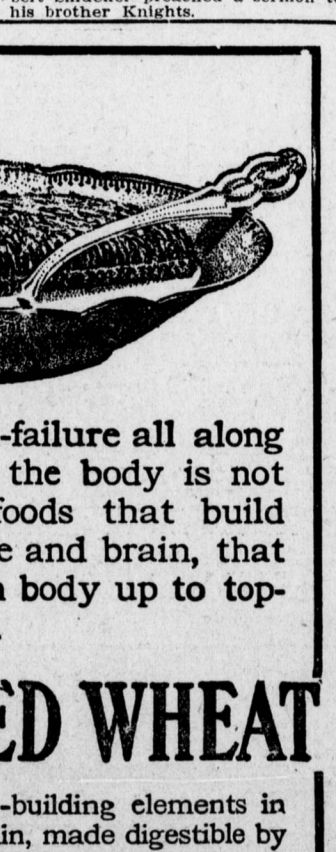

Heavy Fighting Is in Progress at San Pedro Torreon, Mexico, April 11 (via El Paso, April 13).—Heavy fighting was in progress at San Pedro yesterday, Federals having retaken the town two days previously. It is reported also that a Federal force of 3,000 men, being this city to be lightly garrisoned, is on its way to recapture the place. A surprise awaits them, for when General Villa sent pursuers after General Velasco he left 5,000 men in San Pedro was retaken by General Arguedo and General Emilio P. Campo. When Villa's troops drove the Federal commander, De Mour, out of the town, he left with a small garrison, the remainder of the troops taking up the pursuit.

John Lind Returns to U. S. After Long Absence Washington, D. C., April 13.—John Lind, President Wilson's personal representative in Mexico, returned to Washington to-day after an absence of months. While he came for a rest after his long stay in a tropical climate, he brought much information for conferences with the President and Secretary Bryan. The first of these took place at a luncheon with Mr. Bryan. Mr. Lind greeted inquirers by asking if it were true that Rear Admiral Mayo had been ordered to revoke his demand for the firing of a salute to the American colors at Tampico, and after he was informed that President Wilson had insisted that the salute be fired, he smiled approvingly.

Stevens Memorial Has Reached the 1100 Mark Easter morning in the Stevens Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church the choir sang "The Resurrection." by Charles Fonteyn Manney. The congregation filled the auditorium and the Sunday School room. Dr. Clayton Albert Smucker received into the membership of the church fifty-two. On Palm Sunday morning seventy-two were received making a total of added new members for Holy Week of one hundred and twenty-four. The total membership of the church is now 1113. The consummation of the Christian's hope—the Resurrection of the Crucified Redeemer—was celebrated last evening in the church by the members of Pilgrim Commandery Knights Templar. Some seventy-five Sir Knights dressed in full uniform occupied the reserved seats in the main part of the auditorium. Every available seat in the church and Sunday School room was taken. Bright Easter flowers surrounded the Altar and the banners of No. 11 flanked the speaker. An interesting and instructive program had been prepared by Dr. and Sir Clayton Albert Smucker. The ritual for the occasion was beautiful and instructive and was carried out in its entirety. The Church choir and Prof. C. A. Ellenberger rendered the special musical features of the evening. Sir Knight Clayton Albert Smucker preached a sermon to his brother Knights.

Mysterious Shooting Causes Two Men's Death Somerset, Pa., April 13.—John and Joseph D'Angelo, cousins, were shot and died, and Mrs. Frank D'Angelo, Joseph's mother, was dangerously wounded at Boswell, near here, to-day. Mrs. D'Angelo was awakened by the sounds of shooting, and hurrying to the front of the house, fell over the bodies of the boys. She stopped to lift one of them when a fusillade of shots came out of the darkness. Seven persons were arrested, five of them blood relatives.
