Curfew Law Prepared For Anville Children

Anville, Pa., April 13.—At its next meeting the Board of Townships Commissioners of this place will act on a Curfew Law, introduced by one of the members on Saturday. The proposed legislation is similar to that in force in a large number of towns and cities in Eastern Pennsylvania and provides that all minors under the age of 16 years are to be off the streets at 9 p. m. from October 1st to April 1st, and at 9:30 p. m. from April 1st to October 1st, unless the minor be accompanied by a parent or responsible person. The ordinance provides that the Public Safety Committee shall have an alarm sounded fifteen minutes before the time the minors shall be off the street.

IF MEALS HIT BACK AND STOMACH SOURS

"Pape's Diapiesin" ends stomach misery, Indigestion in 5 minutes

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of distress, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache, you can get blessed relief in five minutes. Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of Pape's Diapiesin, then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why they relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diapiesin" is harmless; tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but, that will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation. This city will have many "Pape's Diapiesin" cranks, as some people will tell them, but do not let them rid you of this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gases, heartburn, sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery. It is clean and fresh, and it rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion in five minutes.

CHORAL SOCIETY TO HOLD LAST REHEARSAL

Carpenters Busy on Platform in Theater; Seat Sale Is Now On

All arrangements are completed for the Easter festival of the Choral Society in the Majestic theater to-morrow. The orchestra and soloists will arrive to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock and will hold a rehearsal with the society in the theater at 10 o'clock. The afternoon orchestral concert will begin at 3 o'clock promptly, the evening concert at 8:15. All day Saturday and to-day there has been a steady demand for tickets for both concerts and the houses are practically sold out. This afternoon C. W. E. Yoder, superintendent of concert arrangements, began the erection of the choral platform and the extension to the stage in the theater. He has a large force of carpenters at work and will have the platform and extension completed by late to-might. Everything will be in readiness for the rehearsal which will begin promptly at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

FOUR GUNMEN PAY THE PENALTY

The head and leg sponges were then used on a criminal from the warden, went to the death cell. There he found Crocifol in prayer with Father Cashin. The condemned man clutched a crucifix in each hand as he was led into the presence of death. He had to be supported by two keepers. In the death cells could be heard the murmur of the other slayers in their supplications. The warden and attendants stepped back from the rubber mat. "Oh God, I meet my God," gasped the Italian. The State electrician turned the switch. The first shock was gradually reduced and then a second shock was given. The prison physicians, Dr. Farr and Dr. Meerson, with several other witnessing doctors, applied the stethoscope. "I pronounce this man dead," said Dr. Farr in a low voice. It was 8:43 o'clock. The group of witnesses left the death chamber and the body of "Dago Frank" was lifted by white-coated guards and taken to the autopsy room.

Four-inch Piece of Wire Pierces Heart of Fine Cow

Waynesboro, Pa., April 13.—John J. Zody, West Main street, Waynesboro, is lamenting the loss of his valuable milch cow under peculiar circumstances. Mr. Zody went to milk the cow on Friday morning and she seemed in the best of health. A few hours later when he went down to the barnyard he found the animal dead. He summoned Dr. M. C. McKibben, veterinarian, to investigate the cause of the cow's sudden death. He cut her stomach open and found embedded near the animal's heart a piece of wire, such as used in baling hay, four inches long. The wire had been swallowed by the cow and passed through its body until it reached that point without being bent. The wire probably got mixed into the hay when it was being baled by the machine.

Charles Becker Refuses to Comment on Execution

New York, April 13.—Charles S. Becker was the most watched prisoner in the Tombs yesterday. Every prisoner wished to know how he had taken the decision of Justice Goff that the gunmen could not have a new trial. Becker himself said nothing. He went through the usual routine and took his exercise, attended services and went to his cell. His face was drawn, his lips a bit closer together, but to those who watched him he gave no outward evidence of his thoughts. There were no visitors except newspaper men. To these he refused to comment on the decision of Justice Goff or the approaching death of the four gunmen who Rose, Vellon, Schepps and Webber say, carried out his orders to slay Rosenthal. The last night he was in bed at 10 o'clock. Becker read the papers eagerly all day yesterday, scanning them carefully for any straw that might help his own case when he is again placed on trial.

SUPPORT PENROSE AS TARIFF ADVOCATE

ROY WILLIAM STEELE Tenor

Mr. Shronk produced a huge roll of paper; every page besmeared by grimy fingers and blackened with penciled names. This is the petition: "We believe that the Hon. Boies Penrose, Senior Senator from Pennsylvania has been the friend of the workingman and that his retirement from Congress at a time when the wage-earners' interests are imperiled would be a grave misfortune to us. We, therefore, pledge ourselves to his support, urging labor of every class in every town and every county of the Commonwealth to vote with us for the return of a man who has always stood and will continue to stand for the kind of tariff that makes wages."

Mr. Shronk said that the only workmen who had declined to sign the petition were a few in those departments of the mills which had not yet felt the depression. The others, he declared, were unanimously in favor of the renomination and reelection of Senator Penrose. "Don't let me tell you that we are not having hard times and that we are not going to have harder times," said Mr. Shronk. "because I know what I am talking about and here is the proof of it. Up at Falls of Schuylkill, we want protective tariff and we are going to have it if our votes will get it. Moreover, we know the man who can get it for us and that man is Senator Penrose."
