

Women AND THEIR INTERESTS

What a Woman Deserves

By Beatrice Fairfax.

During their courtship a man treats his sweetheart as if she were a child, whose ignorance of responsibility is what attracts him. After marriage, he demands that she be a woman grown, with shoulders broad enough to bear a woman's burden, and a woman's understanding that that is her portion.

mindful! Stop paying her any attention without the explanation due her if you think she is still a child, but if you have the notion of a man and realize that she has the brain and sympathies of a woman and is neither a baby nor a doll, go to her and tell her the truth and the whole truth, beginning with the statement that you love her. That statement will always result in a woman taking a chair, eager to hear the rest.

A NURSE TAKES DOCTOR'S ADVICE

And is Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Euphemia, Ohio.—"Because of total ignorance of how to care for myself when verging into womanhood, and from taking cold when going to school, I suffered from a displacement, and each month I had severe pains and nausea which always meant a lay-off from work for two to four days from the time I was 16 years old.

"I went to Kansas to live with my sister and while there a doctor told me of the Pinkham remedies but I did not use them then as my faith in patent medicines was limited. After my sister died I came home to Ohio to live and that has been my home for the last 18 years.

"The Change of Life came when I was 47 years old and about this time I saw my physical condition plainly described in one of your advertisements. Then I began using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I cannot tell you or any one the relief it gave me in the first three months. It put me right where I need not lay off every month and during the last 13 years I have not paid out two dollars to a doctor, and have been blessed with excellent health for a woman of my age and I can thank Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for it.

"Since the Change of Life is over I have been a maternity nurse and being wholly self-supporting I cannot over estimate the value of good health. I have now earned a comfortable little home just by sewing and nursing. I have recommended the Compound to many with good results, as it is excellent to take before and after childbirth."—Miss EVELYN ADELA STEWART, Euphemia, Ohio.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Says "Keep Your Eyes Open and Your Face Uplifted If You Wish to Look Young"

HABITS—Part IV.

The first lines that appear on the forehead are apt to be those that are the direct result of the habit of frowning. No amount of massage will permanently remove these unless this habit is corrected. An unlined brow with well trained, well marked eyebrows is a pleasing charm on any face, young or old, and the pity is that so few young faces even possess it.

Keep the Eyes Open.

Learn also to keep the eyes well open if you wish to preserve a young expression. As years go on the eyes are apt to appear smaller, to droop at the corners and to sink back into the head. This drooping effect can be largely corrected by training the muscles not to droop. Stand before a mirror and without touching the hands to the face, let the muscles relax; new lift them. Do you not see the difference? Now, using plenty of massage cream with the sides of the two forefingers massage the skin gently from the corners of the eyes up to the temples. To keep at bay the withered look that the eyelids sometimes assume keep them well lubricated at night with massage cream. Be careful never to press on the eyeballs while treating the eyelids to cream. It is very easy to harm them.

UPPER FLUOUS HAIR SKILLED WITHOUT ELECTRICITY

BY A SPECIALIST

"I have the greatest trouble with correspondents who insist on using common, worthless depilatories or want the torturing barbarous electrical needle applied for killing their superfluous hair," says Mme. Chamade in a physical suffering is caused by these abominable methods than you can imagine. I have carefully investigated and tried a new and simple method that never fails to remove all signs of hair completely and painlessly, and without injury to the skin or complexion. In a surprisingly large number of cases I have destroyed all trace of hair so that it has never returned. In fact I must caution my readers that it does not wish totally destroyed. It is called "Mrs. Oswood's Wonder," being named for a well known woman who arranged for it to be put on the market after it had succeeded in entirely eradicating all trace of her own very distressing growth of hair on chin, lip and arms, which everything else had failed to touch.

Mrs. Oswood's Wonder is quite inexpensive; you can obtain it from Kennedy's Medicine Store, or any up-to-date druggist or department store, on the guarantee of your money back, if it fails. Ask for it by name, "Mrs. Oswood's Wonder," a signed guarantee comes with every package.—Advertisement.

FROCK FOR TINY TOT IN EMPIRE STYLE

Dresden Patterns in Lawn or Dimity Make Up Prettily

8221 Child's Empire Dress, 1, 2 and 4 years.

WITH STRAIGHT SKIRT AND SLEEVES THAT CAN BE DRAWN IN AT THE LOWER EDGES OR LEFT FREE, ROUND OR SQUARE NECK.

Even the tiniest children are following the tendency towards skirts drawn in at the lower edge and this little frock is in the very height of style. The body portion is made in the Japanese style with the sleeves making a portion of it. When the sleeves and skirt are drawn in and finished with little frills, a real picture effect is obtained but they can quite easily be left free and finished with a hem and scallops or in any way that may be liked. Whatever the treatment, the short waisted or Empire line is apt to be becoming. In the large view, the dress is shown made from one of the little printed Dresden voiles that are offered this season and it is very pretty and child-like in effect. There are, of course, numberless other fabrics that are appropriate; in fact, anything that is suitable for tiny children can be utilized or this frock.

For the 2 year size, the dress will require 2 1/2 yds. of material 27, 1 1/2 yds. 36, 1 yd. 44 in. wide, with 3/4 yd. 36 in. wide for the little trimming and 2 1/4 yds. of ribbon. The pattern of the dress 8221 is cut in sizes for children of 1, 2 and 4 years. It will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper, or receipt of ten cents. Bowman's sell May Manton Patterns. Cleanliness of body was ever esteemed to proceed from a due reverence to God.—Bacon.

DIDN'T WORK IN 30 YEARS; EARNED $348

Two $100 Bonds of 1874 Worth $548 Today; City Hands Over Cash, Too

Two 1874 thirty year 6 per cent $100 water bonds from which only one year's interest coupons had been clipped were presented to City Treasurer O. M. Copelin for payment. The interest on each which stopped ten years ago, amounted to $174, or $348 for the pair.

The securities were two of three outstanding bonds issued forty years ago in part payment for printing and advertising in connection with the construction of the city reservoir in Reservoir Park. They are signed by D. Boas, mayor, Grafton Fox, city treasurer and L. R. Metzger, Harrisburg's first city controller. The Commonwealth Trust Company unearched the bonds in settling up an estate.

Miss Fairfax Answers Queries

THAT DEPENDS DEAR MISS FAIRFAX: I have been keeping company with a young man (two years my senior) for one year, and as a rule we are very happy when together; but every time he meets a certain person in my family whom he dislikes, he is very cool with me. When I speak to him about this he answers that he always has the same good feeling toward me.

IF THE PERSON HE DISLIKES IS VERY NEAR TO YOU, and one he would often meet after your marriage, I hope you will not marry the man. His intolerance now will become active dislike then, and he will make you very unhappy.

TIME WILL SHOW YOU DEAR MISS FAIRFAX: I was graduated from public school at sixteen, and since then have undertaken many kinds of work, but seem to fail in everything I do. At present I am eighteen and unemployed. I am at times almost frantic with the thought of not accomplishing the purpose of my being on earth. Is there not some way or place where one can find out what he is best fitted for?

THE Lord said to one in similar doubt, "What hast thou in the house?" meaning what is the talent lying nearest at hand. Your purpose of being on earth cannot be explained by worry and doubt; keep on working, find the work nearest at hand suitable till you find better, and don't grow discouraged. One at eighteen should not know the meaning of the word.

ARM BADLY FRACTURED Special to The Telegraph Lewistown, Pa., April 14.—John Hook, of Blacklog, has been admitted to the Lewistown Hospital with a broken arm. The youth, who is employed at a sawmill a few miles from this place, was firing the boiler in readiness for the day's work, when he tripped and fell into a deep pit.
