Revenged is the weatherman for the sneers and laughter occasioned in these parts by his Easter forecast. Here's the plot:

For weeks and weeks folks having a propensity for getting up early in the morning with a confidence that can not be squelched and a habit of coming home late in the evening with stories that make Jonah's whale look like a "sunny," have been sitth round fixing up that rod and putting a drop of oil on that reel. For days the sun smlled and the streams where

Branch Rickey, no win charge of the St. Louis Browns, is the one new manager with which the American League begins the season of 1914. He has hopes of making a great club; so had his predecessors. Rickey is perhaps the best educated baseball player in the business. There are many other college men, but Rickey, even while in baseball, has been a great reader. When he caught for the New York American League club some years ago he carried about with him on his trips works on metaphysics and psychology. He read them and understood them, and could discuss abstruse metaphysical problems with students. He doesn't believe in swearing or drinking; in fact, he was once secretary of the Connnecticut Young Men's Christian Association. He will manage his men without the use of cuss words, something few managers have tried in the past. Rickey's players will know that they won't be called any names that can't be used in decent society. haps the best educated baseball player

Two Leaders of Champion Teams

Baseball got a good start yesterday, O. but there were sobs after the games J. in the majority of the clubhouses. Two H. managers who communed with themin American League selves before going to bed last night were Mugsy McGram and Connie

Mack.

With the exception of the thirteen inning game at Detroit, in which that much heralded fading star, Ty Cobb, was the one big factor in landing a victory, neither the National or American leagues furnished anything extraordinary.

Asida for the Matha to American leagues furnished anything extraordinary.

easy picking and lambasted the ball in such a manner that victory was easy. Johnson who holds many records, scored his first shutout for Washington. There was a reason. Boston had no form.

Brooklyn was lucky in many ways. Governor John K. Tener tossed out the first ball, and the "Dodgers" pulled off a victory over Boston with timely hits. Like the Giants, the Cubs, too, were weak. Cincinnati with one pitch-were weak. Cincinnati with one pitcher, won a victory over Chicago, while Philadelphia simply toyed with the New York champions. Former Pirates figured in the St. Louis victory over Pittsburgh, Griner being strong in the pinches

Reading Fans Anxious; Practice Starts Monday

Practice Starts Monday

Special to The Telegraph

Reading, Pa., April 16. — While Reading baseball fans welcomed the opening of the big league season yesterday, underlying their enthusiasm was an impatience for the beginning of the Tri-State season, to see the Reading club in action.

The Tri-State season will not open, however, until Wednesday, May 6. The fans will not have to wait that long to get a glimpse of the material to
to get a glimpse of the material to
to represent this city on the diamond this year, as the players will arrive here from all directions next Monday for the preliminary practice and exhibition games.

According to Business Manager Weitzel, at least twenty-five men will be in line on the reporting day. The first batch of players expected here
taré Moser, Joyce, Coveleskie, Kulp, Newton, Doty, Boelzle, Munch and Jordon, of last year's Atlantic City club; Lahner, Morrison, Hart, Beaver, Holmes, Stickell, Wyckoff, Weinberger, Balles, Cotter and Clumm.

Playing Manager Izzy Hoffman will be here Friday and President John H.
Myers, of the club, is expected to make another visit shortly.

The New Baseball Rules

EREAFTER when you wallop any umpire on the nose, Don't ever plant your heel-spikes on his unprotected toes;
The president will hold it as the worst of baseball size
To bite an umpire's ear off while you're hacking at his shins.

He especially regards it as of conduct most unfair To drag offending umpires to the club house by the hair. You may bean him at all ranges with hard cushions or soft clods, But you must not peg pop-bottles if he's inside seven rods.

Nor will it be considered either sportsmanlike or kind. To siam him with a ball-bat if you do it from behind. In other things not covered which may come up anywhere, Be guided by these precepts and treat umpires on the square

Seaton Wins Game With Classy Work

Special to The Telegraph
Pittsburgh, April 15.—Ideal weather, a parade and a big crowd marked the opening of the Federal League season here yesterday. Brooklyn defeated Pittsburgh in ten innings, the game being a pitchers' battle between Seaton and Knetzer. It was the classy work by Seaton that brought the answer.

"DOC" MILLIMAN REPORTS:
IS A YORK VETTERAN
York, Pa., April 15.—"Doc" Milliman was the first of the few remaining members of the "Old Guard" of the White Roses to report, he having arrived last night. Other players under contract are expected to arrive before the end of the week, although a number will not get here until Monday or Tuesday. The first part of next week will be devoted to getting things into running order and them Manager Heckert will inspect the candidates until Saturday, when the first exhibition game will be played. All the work that the candidates will do next week prior to Saturday will be confined to fungo hitting and throwing the ball around the bases.

CARPENTIER SCORES KNOCKOUT
Paris, April 15.—George S. Mitchell, the amateur heavyweight champion of North England, was knocked out last night by the French champion, Georges Carpentier, in the first round, after 1 minute and 35 seconds of fighting. At that he managed to last 22 seconds longer against the Frenchman than did Bombardier Wells in his bout with Carpentier at the National Sporting Club in London a few months ago.
