While no contract has been given out for the construction of the new Cumberland Valley Railroad bridge across the Susquehanna river, it was announced to-day that work would Start Electrical Work.—After several months of experimenting with different types of construction, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has started the actual work of electrical phia and Paoli, a distance of twenty miles. The company has decided to adopt what is known as the catenary system of overhead wires, an arrangement of suspended electrical conductors, somewhat similar to that used in city trolley work.

A gang of 200 men has been put at work erecting the poles, stringing the wires and installing the other necessary apparatus, starting at St. David's and progressing eastward.

Weteran Engineer Gets Badge.

Veteran Engineer Gets Badge.—Congratulations came to Passenger Engineer William Robinson in bunches to-day. Mr. Robinson, who resides at the corner of Third and Peffer streets, has reached the twenty-lifth anniversary of his membership in the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen. Being a member of this organization for a quarter century entitles a man to a handsome gold badge. Engineer Robinson is now wearing one of these badges, one of the first to come to Harrisburg. It came from A. W. Hawley, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the wearer is proud of the honor conferred upon him. Engineer "Billy" Robinson, as he is better known, is a veteran in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad and at present is running one of the fast trains between Harrisburg and New York. For thirty-two years Mr. Robinson has been an engineman and a member of Division No. 75, of Philadelphia, and for twenty-five years he has been a passenger engineer.

Enola Y. M. C. A. Program. — Success crowned the efforts of the enter-tainment committee of the Enola Young Men's Christian Association, this season. The final entertainment will take place to-night, and will be a lecture by Bishop R. Dubs, of Harrisburg, on "Observations In Europe." On Friday night the Rev. H. C. Forncrook, pastor of Maclay Street Reformed Church, Harrisburg, will talk on "Essau and His Birthright."

The rooms will probably be located in Brothers' five and ten cent store building.

WANT WATER FOUNTAIN

Residents along the section of the borough that is to be paved this Fall are making a rush to secure gas and water attachments before the paving begins. After the paving has been laid no new connections can be made for three years. A resolution to this effect was passed by borough council several years ago. Middletown will have a new public water fountain within a short time unless the plans of borough council fall through. This matter was brought up at the council meeting by ex-Burgess Erisman. The water company has agreed to furnish the water free of charge.
