TELEGRAPH WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

They Pull Like a Magnet

The Telegraph little WANT ADS have a pulling power all out of proportion to their size and apparent importance.

They attract men and women, seeking help and work; buyers seeking sellers; sellers seeking buyers; landlords to tenants; tenants to landlordsjust as a magnet attracts and pulls to it particles of iron and steel lying within a certain radius. The Telegraph, read in over 22,000 homes in Harrisburg and vicinity every night, is the most powerful WANT AD MAGNET in Central Pennsylvania.

son's demand for an unqualified apology 'backed up.

The text of Charge O'Shaughnessy's dispatches was not made public, but it became known that Huerta's latest proposal was that as his guns fired their salute to the Stars and Stripes, as an apology for continued affronts to the United States, particularly the recent arrest of bluejackets at Tamplico, that the guns of the American fleet should reply to the Mexican salute gun for gun.

Were Ready to Salute

Were Ready to Salute

Officials here were ready to acknowledge Huerta's salute of twentyone guns after it had been finished, with a return salute, such as is prescribed in naval custom and precedent. That would merely be acknowledging an amende honorable, they say.
But to return Huerta's salute gun for gun, they pointed out, would make the apploys valueless.
Officials described Huerta's latest

Officials described Huerta's latest move as an act to preserve his own dignity before the Mexicans of that part of the country under his control. While President Wilson and the Cabinet will decide what shall be done, the opinion was expressed freely in official circles that nothing but a complete apology and such a salute as the United States demands would be accepted now. Washington, D. C., April 17, — Naval officers to-day declared that a departmental regulation which forbids a salute "in honor of any nation or of any official of any nation not formally recognized by the Government of the United States" would not prevent an acknowledgment of the salute Huerta has promised to fire to the American flag.

Panking officials pointed out that when the commandant at Tampico fires the salute President Wilson has despited to the commandant at Tampico fires the salute President Wilson has despited to the commandant of the salute President Wilson has despited to the commandant of the salute President Wilson has despited to the commandant of the salute President Wilson has despited to the salute

Criticism of Wilson in Papers of France

By Associated Press

Paris, April 17.—French opinion is relieved at what promises to be a peaceful terminati n of the Tampico incident, which might otherwise have developed into a crisis, it was feared, seriously affecting Europe. At the same time there is much criticism of President Wilson. Comparisons are drawn between the mild reproofs to the constitutionalists after the killing of Benton and other foreigners and the display of energy on the part of the United States government for the mistaken action of a subordinate officer.

One newspaper says that President Wilson's action will serve to show Mexicans the danger that threatens

DISCUSS SNOW REMOVAL

Philadelphia, April 17. — Problems connected with the removal of snow from city streets were discussed here to-day at a conference of local and visiting officials. The program included papers on various angles of the subject.
