WITNESSES PROMISE

When Men Face Arrest They Decide to Tell Commission What They Know

By Associated Press

Washington, D. C., April 17.—All the recalcitrant witnesses in the Interstate Commerce Commission's inquiry into the financial operations of the Billard Company with the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad have agreed to testify fully concerning the facts in their possession and to produce the books and papers of the Billiard Company.

Chief Counsel Joseph W. Folk, of the commission, to-day received

Chief Counsel Joseph W. Folk, of the commission, to-day received Homer S. Cummings, attorney for two of the witnesses, Hemmingway and Morehouse, a telegram saying that his clients would respond to questions.

Another telegram from Henry Stoddard, representing Whipple and Field, gave assurance that his clients not only would testify concerning the matters to which a week ago they refused to answer, but also would produce books and other documents of the Billard Company desired by the commission. Confronted by indictment and criminal prosecution for their refusal to respond to "lawful questions" of the commission the witnesses concluded not to press their contention that the questions asked constituted an invasion of their personal rights.

It is known that the federal grand jury yesterday voted indictments against the four named witnesses.
