CHICK EMERSON IS REAL MANAGER TODAY

Harrisburg Youngsters Sneak Into Town on Their Way to Mercersburg

No it was not the Athletics that caused the big sensation at the Pennsylvania Railroad station this morning. It may have been a future aggregation for Connie Mack but at present those two year olds with real baseball forms and countenances were Harrisburg Tri-Staters.

No one knew of their coming. It was in the case of Manager George Cockill's pulling one over on the local officials. He sent this bunch of "future greats" to Mercersburg for their first game this afternoon. They all look good and Harrisburg fans will have an opportunity to look them over this evening as the youngsters will be in Harrisburg between trains.

"Chick" Emerson, smiling and hopeful was in charge of the contingent. He was manager and captain to-day and will see that Harrisburg lands a victory. The team lined up at Mercersburg as follows:

Cooks, first base; Raldy, second base; Ramsey, shortstop; Byers, third base; Emerson, left field; Wertz, center and pitcher; Addams, pitcher and centerfield; Wyckoff, right field; Howe, catcher. Those who remained at home in charge of Catcher Harkins practiced with the Bucknell squad. They are: Catchers, Harkins, Brink and Clarke; pitchers, Phillips, Gohon and Troup; and Outfielder Johnson. On Monday the squad will be joined by Therre, Chabek, Dietz, Rudolph and Crist.

CENTRAL HIGH GIRLS' JUNIOR TEAM

Central High closed the basketball season with another champion team. The second girls' team holds the Junior championship of the city. The girls are without a doubt the best scrub five that has ever represented the school.

The team is exceptionally fast and shows results of efficient coaching, promising an excellent team for next year's varsity five. They vanquished many worthy opponents, losing but one game, in the beginning of the season. The line-up follows:

Second row (sitting), Eleanor Weaver, Susan Rhoads (captain), Helen Kleckner and Ruth Richards.

Two Major League Twirlers Farmed to Manager Cockill

O'Neil Sent by Philadelphia Nationals; and Connie Mack Will Return "Rube" Bressler for a Time

News that sent Harrisburg stock soaring, came this afternoon a few minutes before Manager George Cockill left for his home at Lewisburg. Harrisburg will get Pitcher O'Neil from Philadelphia and "Rube" Bressler will be back early in May.

There are other major recruits to be farmed to Harrisburg, but these two in particular were in demand and it required considerable hard work to

Second Reformed Boys Are Back in the Game

The Second Reformed Church will again place a strong team in the field this year for both twilight and Saturday games.

Any team desiring a game should address C. W. Thomas, 2008 Green street or call on either phone at the Daily Telegraph. The old men on the team are Boss, Sterrick, O'Leary, Chard, Lesure, Beach and Thomas. Some who have announced their intention of trying for a place are Mersinger of Sunbury, Dwyer, Hartman and Smith.

The first game will be played at Island Park next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock with the Telegraph team. All candidates who desire to play on this team should report on that date. The Telegraph team desires twilight games with any team in this vicinity. Also a few Saturday games. Address Charles W. Thomas, at Telegraph or call sporting editor of Telegraph.

News Items From Points in Central Pennsylvania

YOUNG MEN HELD FOR TRIAL.
Dillsburg, Pa., April 18.—Tolbart Zeigler and Charles Zeigler, the two young men from Mechanicsburg who were arrested last week for robbing J. L. McCreary's bakery and taken to the York county jail, were brought back to Dillsburg and given a hearing before Justice of the Peace J. K. Evans, of Gettysburg, and were held for court next week. The young men were unable to furnish bail and were taken back to jail by Constable C. K. Weaver.

AMATEURS STARTED THEIR GAMES TO-DAY.
Bucknell defeated Dickinson yesterday, 6 to 2.

The Federal League games yesterday were real baseball contests.

Lew Bailey Retires; Veteran Fight Manager

Philadelphia, April 28.—Lew Bailey, who has conducted the Broadway Club as a boxing organization for the past fifteen years, announced last night that he had sold the club and would retire from Philadelphia boxing.

[Lew Bailey is well known in Harrisburg, having conducted shows here, and also brought a number of good fighters to Harrisburg. His last appearance in an official capacity was at Chestnut Street Auditorium three years ago.]

TRENTON WANTS RAMSEY; WILL HAVE TO BUY HIM

That Trenton is determined to have as strong a team as possible is evidenced by the fact that an effort will be made to secure Ramsey, a crack infielder, who is reported to belong to the Harrisburg club, according to President Morris, of Trenton. Ramsey signed a Trenton contract last year and later signed with the Senators and he was officially awarded to the latter club. President Morris is now ready to take an appeal, claiming that he is the property of the Trenton club, but if a cash deal can be arranged Ramsey may be allowed to remain with Harrisburg.

Annual Call to Amateur Managers

Future greats are warming up for the coming baseball season, and will soon be in the field for honors. The Harrisburg Telegraph desires to keep in close touch with all amateur teams and games. Managers are requested to send in at once the names of their team, manager and captain, with their addresses.

WILLIE RITCHIE WINS OVER TOMMY MURPHY

Harlem Boy Had Only Endurance to Back Him Up in Hard Contest

San Francisco, Cal., April 18.—Willie Ritchie, lightweight champion, defended his title last night against "Harlem Tommy" Murphy, of New York, in convincing fashion. Murphy fought a courageous, aggressive fight, but never was dangerous, and often was in distress himself. There was no disputing the referee's decision at the end of the twenty rounds.

Murphy might have been allowed one questionable round and perhaps two could have been given him as even, but the remainder were all Ritchie's by a wide margin. In the sixth, the tenth, the fifteenth and twentieth rounds Murphy was dazed and staggering. He reeled and clinched and covered up and leaned against the ropes. Only his remarkable vitality and his courage saved him from a knockout. When he was knocked through the ropes in the last round he bounded to his feet again, and came back with a splendid flash of daring, but the round remained Ritchie's by a wide margin.

Murphy scarcely landed a clear solid blow. Whenever he showed to advantage it was with a shower of short arm uppercuts and body blows. Murphy in the last round was a badly punished man. The champion bled a little at the mouth from the bruising he received in the clinches, but left the ring otherwise unmarked.
