

FACE A SIGHT WITH ERUPTION RESINOL CURED

Itched and Burned Until Resinol Brought Relief at Once.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 5 1913: I had a small pimple on the side of my face, and it kept getting larger and larger. It had spread over one cheek, and as it would spread water would come from it and every place the water would touch, another sore would form. It itched and burned and my face was a sight. I used several salves and ointments that were recommended, but none helped, until I tried Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment, which relieved me at once, and after using it about two weeks, my face was entirely clear. I cannot praise Resinol enough. (Signed) Mrs. Rose Muller, 1313 Snyder Ave.

Physicians have prescribed Resinol for nineteen years and every drug-gist sells Resinol Soap (25c), and Resinol Ointment (50c, and $1). Don't be deceived by the useless "substitutes" which a few unscrupulous dealers offer. For free trial, write to Dept. 6-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.—Advertisement.

RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

It's Me For Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician, contains calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative. No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force the bowels into unnatural action. If you have a "dark brown" stool now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—a sick headache—a torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime. Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them, 10c and 25c per box. The Olive Tablet Co., Columbus, O. At all druggists.

"MOTHER" HAYES 91 YEARS OLD TODAY

Long Famous For Pumpkin Pie and Her Sweetness and Kindness of Soul

"MOTHER" HAYES

The happiest woman on Allison Hill to-day is Mrs. Ellen Hayes, 1537 Hunter street. "Mother" Hayes as she is affectionately called by her hundreds of friends is eighty-one years old to-day.

Though long past the allotted three score and ten "Mother" Hayes is still as thrifty and active as at the age of fifteen. For many years Mrs. Hayes lived in Perry county, having been born in Shermansdale in 1833. For many years she lived at Duncannon. During the Civil War "Mother" Hayes' kitchen was always open to any tired and hungry Union soldier who happened to pass her door. Hundreds of veterans throughout this and many another State can recollect the "hand-outs" given by Mrs. Hayes back in those stirring days when they passed Duncannon on the way to the front.

For many years Mrs. Hayes has lived at her present home. One of the oldest members of Derry Street United Brethren church, she is still one of the most interested in the work. Whenever the weather permits of a Sunday morning, "Mother" Hayes can be seen in her pew and her kindly old face is as sweet and beautiful as the sweetest and prettiest of the young misses in the congregation. "ask any one, if you don't believe it, who goes to Derry street church?"

One organization that knows the kindness of "Mother" Hayes perhaps better than any other on Allison Hill is the Hill Christmas Choral Singers' Association. Every Christmas morn "Mother" Hayes sits up until the wee hours of the morning and listens to the half hour serenade that she knows is sure to be given. And when the last echoes of "Now Crown Him King of All" rings through the crisp night air, the kitchen door of the Hayes home is always opened and a cheery voice cries:

"Come on boys, I've got pumpkin pie."

And it's some pie, too.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Carson and Miss Helena Carson went to their county seat near Southern Pines, N. C., on Saturday for a two weeks' stay.

Miss Katharine Darby attended a dance at Lebanon on Saturday evening.

All Run Down in the Spring

The reason why you feel so tired at this time is that your blood is impure and impoverished. You need the rich red blood that gives life to the whole body, perfects digestion and enables all the organs to perform their functions as they should. Ask your druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla. It will make you feel better, look better, eat and sleep better. It is the old reliable all-the-year-round blood medicine. Get Hood's. Nothing else acts like it.—Advertisement.

BURY HERMAN ASTRICH WEDNESDAY AT 2:30

Services Will Be Held in Ohev Sholem Temple; Burial in Mt. Moriah Cemetery

HERMAN ASTRICH

Herman Astrich, one of Harrisburg's foremost business men, proprietor of the Astrich women's department store, Fourth and Market streets, died yesterday morning at his home, 1129 Sheridan avenue, East Liberty, Pittsburgh.

Mr. Astrich was 51 years of age and until last October was a resident of Cottage Ridge, Harrisburg. Death was due to acute nephritis, following an attack of grip. Mr. Astrich was ill four weeks. Besides his wife, Mrs. Emma Astrich, the survivors are a daughter, Miss Mildred Astrich; a son, Harold J.; a brother, Louis, in charge of the Harrisburg store; and a sister, Mrs. Lena Machaelsohn, who resides in Germany.

The funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Services will be held in Ohev Sholem Temple, Second and South streets. The Rev. Charles J. Freund will officiate. Burial will be private and will be made in Mount Moriah Cemetery near Shoop's church. The body will arrive in Harrisburg from Pittsburgh to-morrow.

Herman Astrich was known throughout Harrisburg as an active, enterprising business man. He opened a millinery store in Harrisburg in 1879, coming to this city from Hoboken, N. J. He was born in Prussia, Germany, in 1863.

The Astrich store was first located in North Third street on the site of the present building of the Security Trust Company. Here a general millinery and ladies' furnishing business was carried on for twenty-five years. Mr. Astrich then sold the building to the banking company and located at Fourth and Market streets where the business has continued on a large scale for seven years.

Prior to coming to Harrisburg, Mr. Astrich was identified with his two brothers in business at Lancaster, the late Bruno and Louis Astrich. During the last year he opened a branch millinery department in the Goldstein store at Altoona and later in the M. H. Basch Sons' store at Pittsburgh. In October he moved his family from Harrisburg to Pittsburgh.

He was a member of the local branch of the Bnai B'rith Society, Modern Woodmen of America, Royal Arcanum and Foresters. He was a lover of horses, and himself was a horseman of ability. He was always identified with the public movements for the betterment of the city.

Trusty Left Jail Job and Wife at Same Time and "Beat It"

Among the wayward husbands called to the court's attention in April divorce court this morning was John DeHart. Mrs. Anna DeHart wanted Judge Kunkel to give her a divorce on the grounds of desertion. DeHart had been in jail, it developed, and made himself so popular as to secure a place as "trusty."

And while sweeping the pavement in front of the jail one morning he quietly checked his broom on the steps, grabbed his hat in his hand, and streaked it at a 9-3-5 gait out Walnut street. Neither wife nor jail authorities ever heard of him since the double desertion.

Caesarian Operation Brings Bouncing Boy Into World
