By Casotiated Press New York, April 22. — The market soon lost its good undertone, and dur-ing the second hour there was gen-eral showing of weakness, with many declines of one to three points. Al-though the Mexican situation was pre-dominant in influencing sentiment, the market gave no indications of uneasi-ness and the decline did not bring out a heavy volume of selling. Targe selling orders for Europe werp executed in Canadian Pacific, which broke four points, and in various other stocks. Coalers were weak features. Declines in investment shares, such as
