The survivors of the band are George P. Bruderly, John Chambers, Fred-erick Wettig, Henry C. Scheck, of Lancaster; Herman Neumyer, of Har-risburs, and George C. Myers, of Coatesville. "WAY DOWN EAST" Typical of New England rugged honesty, simple traits and charity, "Way Down East" comes to the Ma-jestic Saturday afternoon and even-ing. For nineteen years this famous play that arouses memories of child-hood, of clean, wholesome living, has been before the public. A play that touches the heart and emphasizes the little virtues that make all humanity hetter is bound to live and be always interesting. As familiar to the ma-jority of theatergoers as a household word, for this reason no description is necessary. All that needs to be said is, that there is no purer, sweeter or more wholesome play in existence, one of which holds the mirror up to nature more truly and none which has more real inspiration in its every line and feature than this famous ru-ral play.—Advertisement. Nothing so delicious, nothing so easily digested, nothing so easy to prepare. The filmy shreds of cooked whoat take up and neutralize the fruit acids, retaining all the delicious flavor of the berries.

least three years older. HE IS A TIME WASTER DEAR MISS FAIRFAX: I have been keeping company with a gentleman for the last ten years off and on. Now, he is very pretty and has a lot of girls admiring him, but does not pay any attention to them. He seems to care a lot about me, but does not like any one to speak of marriage. He will throw up his hands and say: "No wedding bells for mine." YOU have wasted ten years of your life, but better that than marriage to a man so selfish. Cut him from your list of friends.

CERTAINLY NOT DEAR MISS FAIRFAX: I am going with a young lady whom I have known but a short time. The other night I saw her at a public dance, of which I did not approve. I think a great deal of this young lady, and want to know if it would be im-pertinent to ask her not to go to a public dance. WELL WISHER IT would be a friendly thing to do, but use some tact in going about it. Young girls are quick to resent what they may regard as unwarranted in-terference.

Coal Is Cheapest and Best Now

To buy coal now is to buy it at the cheapest price for which it can be obtained during the year. And then you gain in quality, too, for the coal sent from the mines at this time of the year may be thoroughly screened before delivery, a difficult matter in cold weather when frost will cause the dirt to cling to the coal. So to buy Montgomery coal now is to buy the best quality of the best coal at the lowest prices. Place your order.
