Officials Are Hustling, and Each Town Is Showing Much Activity

When the Central Pennsylvania League starts the season May 2, baseball fans can expect exciting times with semi-professional teams. The four towns, New Cumberland, Steelon, Highspire and Middletown, are hated rivals, and there will be somehing to talk about in each game. The president of the league, F. A. Stees, and the secretary, J. M. Donavan, are hustlers and both are nowhard at work completing details for the opening. In each town on opening day there will be a parade and other features.

injury to his arm and should be a big winner for the lower end team this season. The outfielders of the league are meeting with all kinds of hard luck. In addition to Dick Etter, the pride of Highspire, who has a broken finger, Schultz, the Steelton star, suffered a broken finger in the first practice game of the season. Boughter, another star outfielder of the Steelton team, sprained an ankle in the Susquehanna game, and will be out of the carly games.

another star outfielder of the Steelton team, sprained an ankle in the Susquehanna game, and will be out of the early games.

The Steelton team learned a lesson in last Saturday's game. The Airncliffes will buck up against a different team on Saturday. Blever and Rhoads will be in the points for Steelton, and, in addition, Coleman, a former star outfielder on the University of Princeton team, will be in the line-up.

The Steelton team will feel the loss of Crane in the infield, but feel that Nebinger, who can play any position on the team, will be able to fill the position to the satisfaction of the fans. Highspire will also feel the loss of Newashe, the Indian first baseman, and while Krause is able to fill the place to satisfaction, it might be necessary to shift him to the outfield, where he is at home. From present indications the New Cumberland team has the edge on the other teams of the league, due to the showing of their team in the two practice games. Wertz is pitching in good style already, and is hitting the ball with his old-time vigor. In addition to Wertz, the New Cumberland team has a prize in Hart, who pitched last year for Carlisle. Kleffer, of Carlisle, is putting up a great game at short and will be a strong addition to the New Cumberland team.

From all accounts, Crane, Wilson and Bamford are making good with the Greenville team. Biever, the Steelton pitcher, turned down several offers to join league teams this Spring. The Middletown team will have a strong pair in Coover and Vought.

Billy Moore is putting up a good game for the Middletown team and should make a regular position on the team.

Special to The Telegraph

New York, April 23.—The handicap list for this year issued by the United States Golf Association, contains the names only of those players who are religible for competition in the national religible for strokes or better. Last year the handicap list included those who were allowed six strokes and there were 442 on the list. The new rule which was adopted at the annual meeting last January limiting the eligin list to five strokes, has reduced the number to 227.

Jerome P. Travers, the national champion, and Francis Ouimet, the national open title-holder, are placed together on scratch. Charles Evans, Jr., who reached the semifinal stage in last year's championship tournament, stands alone with a handicap of one.

Boxing Show Bill Has Double Wind-up

Manager Hensel, of the Lancaster Athletic Club, has arranged a strong show for the club on next Monday night. There will be a double windup with Johnny Greiner and Harry Wagner in one match and Tim Droney and Ty Cobb in the other. The preliminaries will include Young Russel vs. Joe O'Keefe, of Philadelphia, and Ben Finefrock vs. Jimmy Mc-Clinchy, of the Pencoyd Iron Works. The two main bouts should prove very interesting, as there is some queer dope on the boys. Wagner has the credit of a knockout over Greiner, Cobb has beaten Wagner twice and Cobb and Greiner have won and lost to each other.
