Employees Given Opportunity For Recreation at Noon Hour Each Day

Already the recreation room at the new Moorhead Knitting Company factory in Cameron street is becoming a center of interest among the employees of the model plant...

When plans were drawn for the new building the Moorehead Company made provision for the creation of a big hardwood floor room where games and dancing and educational entertainments might go forward...

M'CORMICK AGAIN HOTLY DENOUNCED

Judge Bonniwell Scores Him For His Labor Ordinance Veto in Big Meeting

THE UNION LABOR LABEL, TOO Kensington People at Meeting Hear Warm Address by the Judge

Special to The Telegraph Philadelphia, April 24.—Vance C. McCormick and A. Mitchell Palmer were declared not the caliber of men to be elected to high public place in Pennsylvania by Judge Eugene C. Bonniwell at a Ryan mass meeting in the big Kensington labor district last night and Harrisburg affairs were brought into the remarks...

could vote in cold blood for an enemy of union labor such as this man's acts show him to be? "His partner on the ticket, A. Mitchell Palmer, he must be beaten if the Democracy of Pennsylvania is not to be disgraced. I am tempted to say of him as Gratton did of Corry: He found the house of the rich man a convenient way to honor and place, and that it was easier for a statesman with middling talents to sell his friends than it was for a lawyer with no talent to sell his clients! This man has been the protegee of every boss in turn in his district. Mutchler found him, Hall financed him, and he did Guffey's bidding while Guffey had power and pocketbook.

"Palmer said last night that he was opposing Ryan because the men behind him are using his candidacy to strike down the State organization." "Mr. Palmer ought to know who sold out at Allentown. He was part of the crowd that sold him out in their conference, if, indeed, it was held in the back room of a saloon. They offered him the nomination for Governor; he was too cowardly to take it. He had the opportunity that comes rarely to men, the next day on the stage at Allentown, when he was introduced to speak, and he talked of the tariff, but he had a word of condemnation for his then masters who were paying his bills; no word then of the betrayal of which he now so glibly talks. And even in September of 1910 he publicly declared, at a meeting of the congressional candidates in Harrisburg, that the action of the Allentown convention was honest, decent and justifiable politics.

Now, as for Mr. Morris, I charge him with being disloyal to the Democratic ticket. I propose to show his incompetence—or worse. There are sixteen registered Democrats in the Twentieth division of the Seventh ward of Philadelphia, where the State chairman lives. They are mostly of his own class and society—exclusive and silk-stockinged. I find, according to the official election returns, that he has not supported any Democrat in that division at any primary election. In 1911, when Michael J. Ryan was the Democratic-Keystone candidate against the gang city solicitor, he received but one vote in this man's division, while his Republican opponent received two in 1912. His intimate friend, the new United States district attorney—by grace of Palmer, McCormick and Morris—Francis Fisher Kane, running for State delegate, polled the enormous total of one vote.

"But the returns of the general election of 1913 show more clearly than any others do the total unfitness of this man to be the chairman of a political party. While Robert S. Bright, his personal friend and slated candidate for congressman-at-large, received 24 votes in Morris' division on November 4, 1913, D. Webster Grim, the Democratic nominee for Superior Court, received but 5, showing that not only did he not support Senator Grim, but that he made every effort possible to prevent him from having any vote whatever in his division. And yet, while he is to-day perverting the office of chairman and misusing the office of the State committee in a way scandalous in its openness against Democratic candidates, he has the effrontery to call upon decent citizens to support such highhanded methods."

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE DAY In accordance with a custom which has been observed for several years, the coming Sabbath will be known as "Lebanon Valley College day" in all of the United Brethren churches in Harrisburg and surrounding territory. The pastors will exchange pulpits in the forenoon and present the interests of that institution.

MARINES BOARDING GREAT BATTLESHIP NEW YORK TO FIGHT IN MEXICO

The New York, which, with the battleship Texas, is the largest in the American navy, is taking on hundreds of marines at the Brooklyn navy yard to sail for Mexico. The vessel was placed in commission a few days ago and at once orders were issued for preparations to go south.

Blood Tonic Has Important Meaning Puts the Right Sort of Vim Where Most Needed.

To tone the blood means to enable it to throw off accumulated impurities, to increase the red corpuscles and to put the blood-making organs into such active condition as to produce that conscious sensation of what we feel as health. This is the logical effect of using the famous blood purifier, S. S. S. Half the people you meet complain of weary muscles, stagnant brain, jangled nerves, and a wonderful desire to lay down and just quit. Most of these people have been using nervines that spasmodically flare up the nerves only to die down again, as if they must. Avoid nerve stimulants. Bear in mind that this worn-out feeling is due to poor blood, to bacteria in the water you drink; to the multiplying of destructive germs in the blood faster than they can be overcome by the white corpuscles; and to what is known as auto-toxemia, that condition where the venous or impure blood accumulates faster than it can be replaced by the red arterial blood.
