Officers, Jackie Writes

Officials of the Huerta Government use the most insulting and disgraceful methods to humiliate the Americans and to show contempt for the United States Government, writes Charles W. McCoy, of Harrisburg street, Steelton, who is on the Utah.

who is on the Utah.

In a letter to his mother, McCoy, who is assistant cashier on the Utah, tells of the capture of the Utah paymaster and his clerks. The Huerta officials not only forced the Americans into all. not only forced the Americans into jail iwthout any cause, but spit upon the Utah officers, and called them vile names. The letter concludes with a re-

Mexicans in New York

Fear Assassination

By Associated Press

New York, April 24.—Scores of non-English speaking Mexicans in New York, according to Manual A. Esteva, Mexican consul general here, are seeking transportation to the West Indies or to Europe. Consul Esteva declared that it was impossible to convince these people that their fears of arrest and assassination as a result of the Mexican hostilities were groundless. Many of these panile-stricken people visit the consulate daily and assist that they will be attacked in the streets of the city if war is declared. The well educated Mexican residents of the city, he said, of course have no such fears.

NOTES OF TIMELY INTEREST On Monday the session will change, the morning session becoming the afternoon and the afternoon session the morning.

Edward Cooper and James Stuart, students of the Harrisburg Academy, attended the lecture given by H. G. Murray on Princeton at the chapel exercises to-day.

Chapel exercises will be held on Tue day and Thursday of next week.

Brenton G. Wallace, a professor at the Harrisburg Academy, issued an invitation to the boys of the school to a retend an illustrated lecture on Camping in the Canadian Woods this evening in the Canadian Woods this evening at the Academy.

Bad Water Worst Foe of U. S. Army in Mexico

New York, April 24.—Bad water will be the army's worst foe in Mexico if war is declared, according to Colonel M. L. Maus, chief surgeon of the first army division, which has headquarters on Governor's Island. The water supply and sanitation system of Mexico, he explained, were so far behind modern methods that if any army should be sent into Mexico City an entirely new system would have to be provided. He estimated that millions of dollars would be expended by the United States for sanitation and that form a health standpoint American occupation of Mexico would be a good thing for that country. He did not express concern because of disease among the soldiers except from typhus in Mexico City which is responsible he declared for the large mortanty rate of infants in that city.
